PREFACE.

One day six or seven years ago, while we were in the middle of a game of fives, the headmaster of the Bury Grammar school, the Rev. Arthur Callis, said to me, Will you print our school list right from the very beginning till now?

Certainly, said I, as soon as I had sent him a ball which he could not get up, and so could attend to the matter; Certainly; where is your list?

Oh, says he, we have not got one; you must make it!!!

Now it is very easy to make a list of boys when you have got them all standing in a row before you; you grim with Greek and grammar; they book in hand, ball at heart, bounding like the ball they go bounding after, pursuing the ball, pursued by the book and the cane. But when the school term is over and they have gone home for a few months in order to get a little less cane, a little less book and a little more ball; more than that, when school days are over and they are gone out into the world to do the work for which cane and book and ball have fitted them; more even than that, when that work has been done, well done or ill done as the case may be, and life is over and they lie here or there or you know not where, with only a stone (if that) to tell their name and date; more even than that, when a century or two has passed over that stone, and time, weather, traffick, church restoration, organ, one thing or another, has worn or wiped or blotted it out, so that you cannot read what was written upon it; when all that has come about, then it is rather late in the day for the headmaster to come up and say in a headmasterly tone of voice, Make me a list of them. He should have said it before. Elizabethan boys should have been listed in the days of Queen Elizabeth; Queen Anne's boys should have been listed in the days of Queen Anne; and so on. They should not all have been left unlisted till the latter days of Queen Victoria.

However, thinking that I need not do it at once, but that I might put him off first with one excuse and then with another, and that perhaps in the meantime the end of the world might come and I might get off altogether, I said I would do it.

Four or five years have gone by ; I have put him off first with one excuse and then with another, I can think of no more excuses, the end of the world does not come, and so nothing is left but for me to sit me down and do it.

Another year and a half has gone by, and now I have sat me down and done it, and here it is.

Before the long paper procession of boys begins to march, a few things may be pointed out.

I. THE ORDER OF THIS LIST.

It is in alphabetical order. We do not live and be caned and die in alphabetical order, and so Edwardian, Elizabethan, Jacobean, Georgian, Victorian, boys are all mixed up together. They meet on the same page who never met in the same game nor kicked each others shins under the same desk. Alphabetical order has its conveniences but it is not really the right order for a long school list. The right order is chronological, so that you can see at a glance who were at school together and who kicked who. My excuse for making the list alphabetical is that in some years so many boys are absent altogether, and I did not always know within a few years when some of them were there. The only thing chronological in this list is the arrangement of boys of the same surname. Christian names are not in alphabetical order.

II. THE IMPERFECTION OF THIS LIST.

It covers three hundred and fifty years. I calculate that the average number of boys at the school at any moment during that time would be about 90. If each boy stayed on an average three years, then the number of boys who have passed through the school between Edward VI and Edward VII will be rather more than 10,000. But in this list I have only got about 3650.

I do not blame myself for this imperfection. I believe I have scraped together as many names as possible, perhaps rather more. Perhaps some day there may be discovered in a garret some old school lists and admission books of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. And then this imperfection will be made less. But unless that happens I do not see how it will be possible to add many names to these which I have scraped together. A few elderly people may be found who could tell you that they have heard that their father or grandfather went to Bury school. I have met with some and cannot pretend to have met with all. A few family papers may exist, diaries or letters or accounts, which will show that this or that boy went to Bury school. I have got a few names from such sources and cannot pretend to have got them all. A few memoirs, diaries or autobiographies, may have been published which would add a few names. But I do not think that all those sources combined will ever add anything like fifty names; and for other sources I can think of none.

III. THE SOURCES OF THIS LIST.

As this list is not a copy of an official school list, because such a thing does not exist except for certain years, anybody may reasonably want to know what are the sources of it, and how much may they rely on its truthfulness. So I will point out exactly what the sources are, and how they can tell whence any particular name has been got. I will divide the sources into two classes: (A). The existing school lists. (B). Miscellaneous sources.

(A). These are the existing school lists.

(1). A school list in school order, not dated but evidently for the year 1650, as one can gather from the Governors who are named in it. It contains 34 boys, of whom 22 are Royalists and 12 are Foreigners. It gives surname and christian name, but no other particulars. I have printed it in the Appendix.

(2). A school list in school order for the year 1656, containing 86 boys. It gives full names with father's name and home. I have printed it in the Appendix.

(3). A school list made out at Midsummer 1713. It contains 95 names, bare surnames and nothing more, of whom 54 are Royalists and 41 are Foreigners. I have printed it in the Appendix.

(4). A MS. volume containing all the admissions to the school, year by year, from Midsummer 1730 to the end of 1753. It contains 473 names in full, with father's name and home. Of these, 137 are Royalists, 336 are Foreigners. I have printed it in the Appendix.

(5.) A volume containing a school list in school order for every year from 1817 to 1887 inclusive. These lists were made out at each Whitsuntide, and at first were entered yearly in the Governors' minute book. They contain bare surnames and nothing more. The lists for 1823 and 1824 are missing. This volume also contains a yearly list of admissions beginning in 1829. Only bare surnames are given. I have printed in the Appendix the annual lists from 1817 to 1828.

(B.) These are the miscellaneous sources from which I have scraped together boys' names.

From the earliest days it seems to have been the custom for old scholars to give books to the school library, sometimes on leaving, sometimes years afterwards. There is a fine manuscript catalogue of the books, with donors' names, begun by Dr. Leeds in 1673 and kept up till about 1750. Since then the catalogue has not been kept up though books continue to be given. From this catalogue and from the inscriptions in the books themselves I have got a certain number of boys' names, which I should not otherwise have had. Sometimes the donor is said to be "olim alumnus," but not always. When this is not stated one cannot be absolutely certain that he was one.

There are two large manuscript volumes containing the minutes of every meeting of Governors from 1589 to 1830. A few boys chance to be named in these volumes, but only a few.

In 1690 Dr. Leeds, headmaster 1663—1707, published a volume of which the translated title is, A method of teaching Greek. In the dedication he names 89 surnames of his old scholars, any of which surnames may represent more than one boy. Of these he puts 72 under Suffolk, 5 under York, 3 under Durham, 3 under Northumberland, and 6 have no county given them. His Suffolk seems to include Norfolk and adjoining counties. I have printed his list in the Appendix.

In 1719 Dr. Randall published a volume of Latin verse of which the translated title is, The names of some former scholars of the Royal Grammar School of Bury St. Edmunds set forth in verse. He was headmaster from 1707 to 1715, having before that been under master. After retiring from the headmastership he amused himself with producing this volume. I have found it very useful, though it would have been still more so had it been written in English prose and with less padding and stuffing.

A few names have been got from prize exercizes and examination lists ; from the list of old scholars who were or were not present at the Tercentenary Festival held in 1850 ; from a tombstone or two (e.g. Aldrich at Hessel), from a will or two, and from family knowledge and tradition.

The admission books of Cambridge colleges. The Cambridge University registrar, Mr. J. W. Clark, had very kindly promised to give me all the help he could. But unfortunately the matriculation lists in his custody say nothing about the school from which the matriculator has come, and so they were of no use. But in some of the colleges the admission book gives not only the father's name and home of the new-comer, but also the school from which he has new-come. Having asked at each college (except King's and Downing) whether their admission book mentioned the new-comer's school, I found that these colleges did so in very varying degrees : viz. Caius, John's, Trinity, Christ's, Sidney Sussex, Peterhouse, Magdalene, Emmanuel and Trinity Hall.

Caius College admission book is a splendid example of continued well-doing from first to last without a single moment of carelessness or falling away. From 1558 to 1900 they never fail to give the school and parentage of the new-comer. These admission books have been edited in three fine volumes by Dr. Venn, and when possible the young man's career has been traced to its end. I have got about 380 Bury boys from it, many of whom I should not otherwise have had. Many of Dr. Venn's notes I have taken without further enquiry. I have pointed out an occasional error, but certainly not with any intention of finding fault with a work to which I owe so much.

St. John's College admission books from 1630 to 1767 have also been printed. They give the schools regularly during that time, and the editors have followed many of the youths to the end of their lives. I owe much to their labours and have got about 140 Bury boys from the two published volumes. The bursar, Mr. R. F. Scott, kindly made it easy for me to go through the unprinted volumes from 1767 onwards. They are magnificent in bulk, binding, and intention, but within blank after blank, like good resolutions made and broken. One turned over page after page only to find headings that had never been filled in. Consequently I only got from them a few more names.

Trinity College admission books begin to give the new-comers' school a little before 1700, and are by way of doing so from then till now. But there are occasional fits of carelessness, and consequently of columns left blank. However, between 1680 and 1900 I got from them 156 Bury boys. I am much indebted to the Vice-Master, Mr. Aldis Wright, who not only looked them out for me, but helped me with some identifications.

Christ's College admission books begin to give the new-comer's school in 1622, and continue to do so from then till now with only a very occasional fit of carelessness. From them I have got about 140 Bury boys. In doing so I had the advantage of going through the summarized transcript of the original books made by the Master, Dr. Peile, and kindly placed by him at my disposal. He also gave me the benefit of his long labours in tracing their careers.

Sidney Sussex College admission books give the schools from about 1620 onwards. The Master, Dr. Smith, made it easy for me to go through them, and I found in them nearly 50 Bury boys.

Peterhouse admission books give the schools from about 1650 onwards, and from them I got about 40 Bury boys. My thanks are due to the Master, Dr. Ward, himself one of Bury's distinguished scholars, and to the librarian, Dr. Walker.

Magdalene College admission books begin to give the schools from about 1644, but have fits of carelessness and consequently blank columns. These were placed at my disposal by the Master, Dr. Donaldson, (whose uncle was one of Bury's most distinguished headmasters,) and Mr. A. G. Peskett, and from them I extracted 30 Bury boys.

Emmanuel College has only one admission book which gives the school. It runs from 1738 to 1767. The bursar, Mr. J. B. Peace, has kindly extracted 18 Bury boys from it and sent them to me.

Trinity Hall admission books occasionally give the school from 1780 onwards, but they are very irregular, and I only got a miserable 6 from them.

This is the result obtained from the college admission books put into a nutshell :—
 Caius 380. John's 140. Trin. 156. Christ's 140. Sidney Sussex 50. Peterhouse 40.
 Magdalene 30. Emman. 18. Trin. Hall 6. Total 960.

Some of these I should have got from the Bury school lists or from some other source, but a great many of them would never have been known to have been at Bury school had it not been for the entry in their college book. Had Pembroke College been one of those that entered its members' school it would have largely contributed to my list; for I am told that a large proportion of its members at one time came from Suffolk. When in my note on a boy I give the date of his admission to one of the above nine colleges, in almost every case the entry of his admission states that he came up from Bury school and is my authority for including him.

At Oxford, neither the University matriculation lists nor the college admission books say anything about the school.

IV. WHAT SHALL WE DO WITH OUR BOYS?

Not long ago Lord Rosebery was doing something or other that required a speech, and in the course of it he said that parents were now asking in great perplexity, What shall we do with our boys? He never sat next to a lady at dinner without her asking, What shall I do with my boys?

I have lately had to ask a good many parents, What have you done with your boys? I have asked it directly, if they were living in the latter days of Queen Victoria, and indirectly, through tombstones and pedigrees, if they were living in the days of Queen Elizabeth or Queen Anne. Here in this volume we have about eight thousand parents, scattered over three centuries, telling us what they did with their boys. They have done all sorts of things with them. They have kept them at home and they have packed them off beyond sea. They have banked 'em, barracked 'em, barred 'em, camped 'em, churched 'em, clerked 'em, countered 'em, courted 'em, doctored 'em, farmed 'em, shipped 'em, shopped 'em, and I don't know what else besides. Sometimes untimely death has taken the matter out of their hands and settled it against their wishes in its own rude way. They have only agreed in this one thing, viz., in first sending them to be caned at Bury school. And for that object boys have come from all parts. They have come from within the five gates of Bury, and they have come through those gates from the world outside. They came through those gates when those gates were yet standing, closed at sunset and not opened till sunrise, the keys safely lodged under the chief alderman's pillow; and they came through them, as we go through them now, when they are but a name, always open, as open between sunset and sunrise as they are between sunrise and sunset.* They have come in great numbers from the manor houses, rectory houses and farm houses of Suffolk and the adjacent counties, and they have come in smaller numbers from Lincolnshire, Yorkshire, Northumberland, Herefordshire and elsewhere. I don't think there is a single county from which they have not come. They have come also from the West Indies, the East Indies, and other parts beyond seas.

And having come, and having survived the painful operation for which they came, what next? Some quickly ran up the ladder that was set before them, and seated on the topmost rung smiled on the world below as judges, bishops, governors, heads of this or of that, or whatever might be the highest post to which their ladder led. Those are the few. Others remained grovelling on the ground. Adhesit pavimento. Those also are the few. The great multitude will be found at various stages between the foot and the top.

* In one of the volumes of this Green Book series, viz. Journals of Hon. William Hervey, we have an instance of the great inconvenience caused by arriving at a gated town in Holland after the gates had been closed and the keys placed for the night in the custody of the burgher-master. That was in 1773. P. 242.

V. AN ANALYSIS.

I cannot give a complete analysis of all the boys who have been to Bury school, and of what they did, because I have only got the names of about half. And I cannot give a complete analysis of that half, because of many of them I know nothing more than their bare surname. So I will merely set down a few headings, and gather together under those headings such names as I have noticed to belong to them. I shall only set down such headings as will have a few names belonging to them, as otherwise this preface will contain the whole list over again. The heading D. N. B. (Dictionary of National Biography) will contain many of those who have distinguished themselves in one way or another; but of course biographical dictionaries do not contain all the virtue or all the talents that there have been. I shall set down any boy to whom I have given a separate number, whether a certainty or not, but I shall not set down any one who is merely in an N.B.

First, it will be as well to show how many boys belong to each of the four centuries which my list touches. Excluding all the boys who are merely suggested in an N.B., I believe there are 3630 in the main list to whom I have given a number, and 24 more in Additions, making a total of 3654. They are distributed over the four different centuries thus :—

From the opening of the school in 1550 to 1600	64
From 1700 to 1800	914
From 1800 to 1900	1996

ROYALTY.

Under this heading I can only put Arthur Beckwith, without knowing exactly how good his title is to be there. (See p. 23 and Additions p. 444.) I can hardly include William Chambers Young, whose adventurous life brought him into relation-ship with King George of Tonga.

HUGUENOTS.

These are descendants of Huguenots, and are by no means the least interesting or the least distinguished of Bury scholars. Some of the earlier ones may have had a lively traditional knowledge of the wrongs which sent them to England. One of them is called by the headmaster "Gallicus puer," and I suppose had not lost his French accent. (See Dusseau 167, and Leheup 66.)

CHIEF ALDERMEN AND MAYORS OF BURY.

More than twenty years ago the late Rev. Francis Haslewood, rector of St. Matthew's, Ipswich, had a copy made of all the tombstone inscriptions in Bury churches and churchyard. The six manuscript volumes containing them came into my possession about a year ago, and have been of the greatest use to me in making the notes on the Bury town boys. As a rule, when I give a tombstone inscription I have made my own copy of it, if it was within a bicycleable ride of fifty miles or so. But in such a large churchyard as that of Bury it would have been impossible to find any stone that one wanted. I am therefore most grateful to Mr. Haslewood's enterprize.

These lists are very imperfect, but they must suffice. The judges, colonial governors, scholars and others should have been added.

VI. THE UNCERTAINTIES.

The school lists being so very imperfect there were bound to be a certain number of uncertainties, i.e. boys who were probable scholars but could not be proven. And I had to ask myself, What shall I do with the uncertainties? Should I ignore them, or should I put them into a separate list, or should I put them in with the certainties? Not having decided at starting what to do with them I find I have acted according to the humour of the moment; and as one cannot be in exactly the same humour every day for a year and a half, I find I have not treated them all alike. Some have been ignored, some have been smuggled into a N.B., some have been entered with a letter instead of a number, some have a number as if they were certainties. I have also set down (with a number) a very few boys whom I happened to come across as born or educated at Bury, though not at the Grammar school. But I think I have always made it clear that the uncertainties, even though numbered, are uncertainties, and that the non-Grammar school boys were NOT at the Grammar school. I now think it would have been simpler if I had put down every boy that I came across as connected with Bury, and then called the book a Bury Boyography.

VII. HOUSES IN BURY.

In my notes on the Royalists or Town boys I have very occasionally shown or tried to show in what street and house they dwelt. This might well have been done much more fully. The successive owners of houses ought to be known. Every town ought to have its history written, and that history ought to be written street by street and house by house. Every street should form a chapter, and every house in that street a section in that chapter. It ought to be shown exactly who have been the successive owners and occupiers of each house from its beginning. Often the only people who can show it are its owners who have the title deeds; but though they can they don't. The old rule used to be that every man should sweep away the snow from his own doorstep. It would be a very good rule if every man were also required to make out the history of his own house. Of course before the snow can be swept away it must have fallen ; and before the house can have its history made out it must have stood. The snow will generally fall when we begin to look for summer ; and in a walled and gated town like Bury, practically every house within those walls and gates has stood, and has a history and a long line of owners and occupiers.

And here I must digress for a moment to protest against the newspapers calling a particular house in Bury "the manor house." A manor house is not a mere fancy name, but it is the name of one particular kind of house and of no other. And to call that a manor house which is not and never was a manor house is just as absurd as to call that a church or an inn which never was one. To call a particular house in Bury the manor house, when it isn't and never was one, is just as absurd as it would be to call it St. James' church or the Angel Hotel. This calling of houses what they aren't is a falsification of history, and should be protested against, whether done at Bury, Horringer or anywhere else. A very bad case of this has lately arisen in Horringer. A house built in the nineteenth century, which has never for a single instant belonged to the lord of the manor, has been called Horringer manor. Can absurdity go further ?

VIII. THE ORIGINAL SCHOOL LISTS.

I have pointed out in Section III what original school lists there are in existence. Of course I have made full use of them in my list, but I found it impossible to distinguish there between what they said (when they said anything) and what I added. I have therefore printed them all down to 1828 by themselves and put them in an Appendix, where they will speak with the force of original and contemporary documents, which does not mean that they always speak right. I have left off at 1828 because in that year begins an annual list of admissions, and also because it is the last year of Dr. Malkin, the ablest and (in one sense) the most successful of all the headmasters that Bury has had, who more than anyone else attracted scholars to the school, and raised alike its numbers and its reputation.

The list for 1656 was printed in the Tercentenary volume in 1850, but a good many of the names were mis-read, I presume by Dr. Donaldson, eminent scholar though he was. When one finds a headmaster making a mistake, that part of the boy which may be left in one feels the same sort of satisfaction as a weasel might feel if it came upon a head game-keeper caught in a trap in his own wood.

The list of admissions from 1730 to 1753 was printed in the Burian a few years ago. But finding some mistakes in it also I have made a fresh copy, thinking it better to make your own mistakes than to copy other people's. That admission book has its own original mistakes besides the mistakes of modern copyists. I have pointed out those mistakes when I have found them out. They generally consist in giving the father a wrong christian name.

IX. MY THANKS.

My best thanks are due to a great many people, both to old scholars and kinsfolk of old scholars, and to others besides ; but I can only express those thanks generally. Roughly speaking I have nearly two thousand boys who were at school before 1800, and about two thousand who have been at school since 1800. These latter two thousand have been much more troublesome than the former. There were all sorts of ways of finding out about the former which did not exist for finding out about the latter. Having nothing but the bare surnames of the latter it was obviously impossible for me to sit down and spin out of my head who they were, and whence they came and whither they went. I could only give this information after that they or their kinsfolk had first given it to me. I have written about a thousand letters of inquiry and nearly every one has been answered. Three or four silly people in Bury itself, including two lawyers, refused information and are therefore excepted. But to the other nine hundred and ninety my best thanks are given. Mr. Samuel Steel, who came to school eighty years ago ; the Rev. John White, fifty-four years rector of Chevington ; the Rev. Frederick Young, forty-eight years rector of South Milford ; these had all given me valuable help within a few months of finishing their long lives. If I mention any by name it will be the Rev. Kenelm Smith of Ely, and Mr. John B. Tooke Hales of Norwich, both of them old scholars who have made a point of keeping sight of their school-fellows, and who have given themselves endless trouble to help me. My debt to the authorities of some of the Cambridge colleges I have already acknowledged in Section III.

X. WHAT STILL REMAINS TO BE DONE.

This volume does not exhaust what might and should be written. Apart from the individual boys who have come here to be caned, there is the school history, its ups and downs, its changes and chances, through three hundred and fifty years. There is much to be made out about that from State Papers in the Record Office, from the very complete minutes of the Governors' meetings from 1590 onwards, and from many other sources. There are the Headmasters who deserve their biographies. There are the Governors of the school, of whom a complete list from Queen Elizabeth to Queen Victoria can be made out from the minute books, showing the magnates of the town, both natives and incomers. There are the books in the school library with their inscriptions, which go back to the reign of Edward VI and are a valuable part of the school inheritance. There is the subsidiary school held for many years in the churchyard, whose list of boys and masters could be made out, I think, from the minute books. And there are many other matters which deserve to be recorded. In making out this list of boys I think I have done much the most troublesome part of the work. Perhaps someone else will do the rest, which could be done without troubling the good nature of one man or calling out the ill nature of another.

In this volume I have only concerned myself with the past which is clean gone. But if this list of former scholars should chance to be the means of bringing to the school any who are still screaming in their cradles and perambulators, or toddling and tumbling on nursery floors, whose parents have scarcely yet begun to ask, What shall we do with them ; if in due time (when they have done screaming) it should chance to bring them to reap the great present advantages which Bury school enjoys, to inherit a portion of its reputation and in their turn to add to that reputation ; then I shall hail the result though I did not intend it.

HEADMASTERS.

Though this volume professes only to deal with the boys, yet it is necessary to give the succession of Headmasters, as their headmastership is sometimes the only date that can be given to a boy. This rough list will meet the present requirements. I have not made out the exact dates of the two first. High Masters used to be their title.

EXPLANATIONS.

Bury school dates from August 1550.

Royalist is the term now in use to denote a boy living at home in Bury. I have used it of 17th century town boys, but I do not think the term was in use as early as that. They were then "Foundation Scholars" and "of this town."

Foreigners is the term used now and from the beginning to denote boys from outside the town. Mr. Becher seems to have tried to introduce the Eton term "Oppidans," but it did not catch on.

Trinity (or any other) college in my notes always means Cambridge unless Oxford is stated.

When the date of admission to a Cambridge college is given, it may nearly always be assumed that the admission-entry in the college book states that the admittee has come from Bury school.

The date of admission is not necessarily the date of going up to the University. They were sometimes admitted a year or two before they went up.

When I only give the date of B.A. degree it does not follow that the graduate did not proceed to M.A. Dates being dry things I have given as few as I could. What I have not given can be easily found out.

Days of the month are purposely omitted in dates.

Mothers and wives have been purposely excluded all through, though a few have managed to get in.

Boys of the same surname are put in chronological order, brothers being always kept together.

The year of coming and leaving is given to the 19th century boys as well as I can make it out. It may sometimes be a little wrong.

The numbering of boys begins afresh with each letter of the alphabet.

34. ALDRICH or ALDRIDGE ——. This boy, a Foreigner, is in school lists from 1819 to 1826 inclusive, working his way from 1st form to the 6th. Only in the last year is his name spelt Aldridge, which makes an uncertainty as to which it was. Possibly he is John Cobbold Aldrich, son of John Aldrich of Stowmarket, who matric. at Oxford, Lincoln Coll., in May 1825 aged 18, was Perpetual Curate of St. Lawrence, Ipswich, and died Aug. 1874.

39. ALEXANDER Joseph. Bapt. at Horringer July 1693. Son of Joseph Alexander, rector of Ickworth. Six years at Bury under Randall. Adm. to Caius Coll. July 1714 aged 18. LL.B. 1719. Buried at Ickworth June 1733, where was a flat stone. (Wrongly identified by Dr. Venn).

40. ALEXANDER Joseph. Son of Joseph Alexander. Born at Bury St. Edmunds. At school there under Randall. Adm. to Christ's Coll. Jan. 1715. B.A. 1718. This Joseph and the preceding one were both undergraduates at Cambridge at the same time, and were both the sons of Joseph and Frances. Probably they were second cousins. This one (and not the other as stated in Venn's Caius Coll.) must be the rector of Stonham parva and Wortham, Suff.
41. ALEXANDER ——. There are three Alexanders with no christian names in the Bury school list for 1713, all Royalists. The two Josephs, 39 and 40, must be two of them, and the third I cannot identify. Perhaps he is the John of Emmanuel Coll. B.A. 1721.

Buried at Great Whelnetham. Tablet in the church. His daughter Jane married James Merest, a clerk in the House of Lords, and their descendants lived in Bury and went to the Grammar school. 91. BATTELEY Thomas. Sixth son of Rev. John Batteley, No. 82. Adm. to Bury school 1739. Royalist. As he is not in the Horringer register I imagine he was born c. 1728, when Mr. Batteley had left Horringer for Bury in order that his boys might be Royalists.

104. BEAUMONT Michael. Of Suffolk. Educated at the public school of Bury St. Edmunds. Adm. to Peterhouse May 1678 in his 17th year. Fellow. M.A. 1685. The Beaumont pedigree in Musket's S.M.F., II. 331, shows that this must be the third son of John Beaumont of Bildeston. He was baptised Oct. 1660. Afterwards described as of Huntingdon, clerk.

112. BEETON George. Son of George Beeton of Bury St. Edmunds, who died June 1795 aged 34. Mentioned in the Tercent. vol. as an old scholar unable to attend. He was a wine merchant in Bury. Died July 1862 aged 72. Buried in the cemetery at Bury.

133. BENNING William. Son of Ambrose Benning of Triplow, Cambs. Adm. to Bury school Feb. 1736. Foreigner. There was a William, son of William Bening of Triplow, Esq., admitted to Magdalene Coll. from Bishops Stortford school in June 1743 aged 18. This may be the Bury boy, the father's name being wrongly entered in the Magdalene admission book, or it may be a cousin of exactly the same age. There would be nothing strange in his going from one school to the other, and only the last one being entered in the college admission book. The Magdalene man was afterwards Fellow of Peterhouse.
134. BENSON James. Son of John Benson of Hackney, Midd. Adm. to Bury school July 1734. Foreigner. To Christchurch, Oxford, July 1739 aged 17. D.C.L. 1754.

140. BENTLEY Richard. There were two Richard Bentleys, first cousins. One was son of Dr. Bentley, Master of Trin. Coll., the other was nephew. Both were Fellows of Trinity, the son B.A. 1723, the nephew B.A. 1725. The nephew was Horace Walpole's correspondent, wrote plays, and died Oct. 1782. He is included in a list of distinguished Bury scholars made by Dr. Donaldson and printed in the Tercentenary volume. Dr. Donaldson may have had some good reason for including him, so I do not like to exclude him. But he is a very doubtful Bury boy. There is no school list for his time, and the Trin. Coll. admission book gives Wakefield as his school. If either of them were at Bury it is more likely to have been the son; for Bury and Cambridge are not far apart, and Dr. Kinsman the then head master was greatly esteemed by Dr. Bentley. So says Richard Cumberland in his Memoirs, who was himself a Bury boy and grandson to Dr. Bentley.

141. BENTON William. Son of Edward Benton, Esq., of Sheer lane, London. Adm. to Bury school Jan. 1748. Foreigner.

N.B.—There is a tombstone in Bury churchyard to James Buckell Berkeley, who died Sept. 1853 aged 35 years, his wife and daughter joining him in 1854. This may be an elder brother. In the directory for 1844 Mrs. M. E. Berkley is set down at 114 Northgate street. This might be their mother.

145. BERKELEY Rowland Thomas Mortimer. Son of G. A. Berkeley of Clapham Common, wine merchant. At Bury school Jan. 1883—86. Foreigner. Came from Marlboro school. Adm. to Caius Coll. Oct. 1886. Lincoln's Inn 1892. Now a barrister in London.

147. BERNARD Thomas. Born at Earls Coln, Essex. Son of Thomas Bernard, clerk. Bred at Bury under Kinsman. Adm. to John's April 1742 aged 18. B.A. 1745.

N.B.—I have accidentally separated this boy from his brother, No. 41, who is entered under a different form of spelling. I do not feel sure that they are not really the same boy, the christian name being entered wrong in the St. John's Coll. book, or (more likely) in the Bury Admission book. There is only one brother entered in the Bury book.

B. with errors.

193. BLOMFIELD Frederick William. Born 1792. Third son of Charles Blomfield. Died Feb. 1806 aged 13. Tombstone in Bury churchyard. I have no proof of his having been at the Grammar school. He may not have got beyond his father's school.
194. BLOMFIELD James. Born 1794. Fourth son of Charles Blomfield. Mentioned in the Tercentary vol. as an old scholar. Emmanuel Coll. B.D. 1829. Assistant master at Bury Grammar school in 1828. Then he carried on his father's school in Bury till 1838. Rector of Launton, Oxford, 1838—42. Rector of Orsett, Essex, 1842—. Died at Orsett. He married Anna, daughter of Dr. John Smith of Bury.

195. BLOMFIELD George Becher. Born at Bury St. Edmunds 1801. Youngest son of Charles Blomfield. At Bury under Malkin. Adm. to Trin. Coll. June 1819 aged 17. Adm. to Christ's Oct. 1821 aged 18. M.A. 1827. Rector of Tattenhall 1826—34 and Preb. of Chester. Rector of Stevenage 1834—74. The different statements as to his age do not agree together.

N.B.—Charles Blomfield, the father of these five boys, is likely to have been a Grammar school boy himself, as his father kept a school in Bury before him. He was elected chief Alderman of Bury in 1808, 1815, 1828. In April 1829 he was appointed a Governor of the Grammar school, having just given up his own school to his son James. He died Sept. 1831 aged 68, and has a tombstone in Bury churchyard. A tablet has lately been set up on his house at the junction of Looms lane and Lower Baxter street, to mark the birth place of his distinguished son.

196. BLOMFIELD Frederick George. Born April 1823. Eldest son of the Bishop of London, No. 191. At Bury school 1830—33. Foreigner. Thence to Eton. Matric. at Oxford, Balliol Coll., May 1841 aged 18. Rector of St. Andrew Undershaft 1853—79. Died at Ilfracombe Feb. 1879. Buried at Helme, Yorks. I cannot quite prove this identification, but it is extremely likely.
197. BLOMFIELD Henry John. Born 1825. Second son of the Bishop of London. At Bury school 1836—38. Foreigner. Entered the navy in 1840. Was on the Thunderer at St. Jean d' Acre in 1840. Lieut. of the Imperieuse in the Russian war in 1854. Captain in 1861. Retired 1870. Full admiral in 1887. Died in London June 1900 aged 74.
198. BLOMFIELD James Charles. Eldest son of Rev. James Blomfield, No. 194. At Bury school 1830—40. Sixth form. Royalist. Matric. at Oxford, Exeter Coll., Feb. 1840 aged 18. Rector of Launton, co. Oxford, 1850—. Still there in 1892.
199. BLOMFIELD George John. Born Nov. 1822. Second son of Rev. James Blomfield, No. 194. Was at Charterhouse. Matric. at Oxford, Exeter Coll., May 1841 aged 18. Married Isabella, daughter of Bishop Blomfield. Vicar of Dartford 1857—68. Rector of Aldington, Kent, 1868—1900. Died 1900. Only four of the five sons of Rev. James Blomfield appear to have come to Bury school, and possibly this is the one who did not, as he went to Charterhouse in 1832.

200. BLOMFIELD Charles. Third son of Rev. James Blomfield, No. 194. At Bury school 1833—38. Royalist. Went into the Indian army and died in India a captain. An officer of great promise.
201. BLOMFIELD Edward. Fourth son of Rev. James Blomfield, No. 194. At Bury school 1835—38. Royalist. Became a Major General in the Indian Native Cavalry.
202. BLOMFIELD Arthur. Fifth son of Rev. James Blomfield, No. 194. At Bury school 1836—38. Royalist. Matric. at Oxford, Exeter Coll., June 1846 aged 19. Rector of Beverston, Glouc., 1884—. Still there in 1892.

N.B.—There are five Blomfields in the school list for 1838, but only one, a sixth form boy, in 1839, 1840, and none in 1841—43. But in 1844 one appears at the top of fifth form, and in 1845, 1846, he is in sixth form. As he does not appear in the list of admissions, I imagine he must be one of the boys who left in 1838, and that he came back after a temporary absence, and so did not need admission; perhaps No. 202, whose going to Oxford agrees with the date of this boy's leaving Bury.

203. BLUNT ——. At Bury school 1836—38. Foreigner.
204. BOBY Charles George. Son of George Bobby of Bury St. Edmunds. At Bury school 1864—68. Royalist. Now living at Felixstowe.
205. BOBY John William. Son of George Bobby of Bury St. Edmunds. At Bury school 1867—72. Royalist. Now in business in Bury.
206. BOBY Charles George Morgan. Eldest son of Charles George Bobby of Bury St. Edmunds. At Bury school 1890—95. Is now farming in Canada.
207. BOBY Donald Morgan. Second son of Charles George Bobby. At Bury school 1890—95. Now in business at Bury.
208. BOHUN Edmund. Born March 1645 at Ringsfield, Suff. Only son of Baxter Bohun. Adm. to Queen's Coll. July 1663. Did not graduate, being driven from Cambridge by the plague. Inherited Westhall, Suff. Was licenser of the press for five months in 1690. Appointed Chief Justice of South Carolina May 1698. Died there Oct. 1699. Buried at Charlestown. His autobiography was printed at Beccles in 1853, but it only begins when he is 32 years old. In his life time he published several political and other works. This boy is not quite a certainty. The editor of his autobiography "suspects" for one or two reasons that he may have gone to the Bury Grammar school, and the reasons are almost proof of it.

*209. BOHUN —. This boy was at Bury school 1831—32. The name is written Bohn, but I imagine that Bohun is meant. He must be one of the Browne Bohuns of Beccles. John Francis Browne Bohun, born 1766, was rector of Depden forty years, and died 1836. The boy might be either his grandson or his son by a second marriage.

210. BOILEAU Thomas Ebenezer John. Born Dec. 1796. Eldest son of Thomas Boileau of Calcutta. Died Feb. 1855. I cannot say for certain that this boy was at Bury school, as there is no list for his time.

211. BOILEAU Simeon John. Born Nov. 1799. Second son of Thomas Boileau of Calcutta. At St. Paul's school, Midd., under Heath. Adm. to Trin. Coll. June 1818 aged 19. B.A. 1823. Of Lincoln's Inn. Died June 1863.

The Trin. Coll. admission book only mentions St. Paul's school, but he must have been at the Bury Grammar school before that. In 1832 he was a Liberal candidate for Bury, but retired before the polling. A published Tory account of the election says that his claims were founded on the fact of his having once resided in the town and having been educated at the Grammar school; but that as so many persons had resided in the town and had been educated at the Grammar school, this did not seem to be a very special recommendation.

212. BOILEAU John Peter. Born at Calcutta Jan. 1803. Third son of Thomas Boileau of Calcutta. Died at Bury St. Edmunds Feb. 1816. Tombstone in Somerton (Suffolk) churchyard, which says he was nephew of Dr. Maddy, rector of Somerton. I have no actual proof that he was a Grammar school boy, but it is more than probable that he was and that he died at school.

213. BOILEAU John Theophilus. Born May 1805. Fourth son of Thomas Boileau of Calcutta. In Bury school lists 1817—18 as Foreigner, 1819 as Royalist. Went out to India. In Bengal Engineers. Became Major-General. Died Nov. 1886.

214. BOILEAU Alexander Henry Edmondstone. Born Feb. 1807. Fifth son of Thomas Boileau of Calcutta. In Bury school lists 1817—18 as Foreigner, 1819—22 as Royalist. Sixth form. Went out to India. In Bengal Engineers. Became General. Died June 1862.

N.B.—Thomas Boileau, the father of these five boys, was the grandson of a Huguenot refugee. His brother, John Peter, was the father of Sir John Boileau who was baroneted at the coronation of Queen Victoria. Both brothers found employment in India. Thomas was married at Calcutta in March 1796 to Leah, daughter of Col. Jessop of Albany, N.Y., an American loyalist; and died June 1806. His widow seems to have settled in Bury in 1819, as till then the boys were Foreigners. Only the two youngest are in the school lists. It is not clear how Dr. Maddy was their uncle. Perhaps he was great uncle.

215. BOLDERO Henry. Born at Hull. Son of Henry Boldero of Dordrecht, merchant. In the Bury school list for 1656. Adm. to Christ's March 1657 aged 15. Apparently he roved from college to college, being B.A. Queen's 1660, M.A. Jesus 1664. In 1670 he was of Whaddon, Cambs., clerk.
216. BOLDERO John. Born at Ixworth, Suff. Son of Simon Boldero. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Christ's Aug. 1691 aged 17. M.A. 1699. Fellow of Christ's. Rector of Clipston and Dingley, Northants., nearly 40 years. Died May 1751 aged 77. Monument in Ixworth church.
217. BOLDERO John. Son of Simon Boldero, rector of Woolpit and vicar of Great Barton. In the Bury school list for 1713. In 1715 the Governors of Bury school allowed him an exhibition of £6 odd for four years or till B.A. Christ's Coll. B.A. 1718. Succeeded his father as rector of Woolpit in 1723. Died Oct. 1753.

219. BOLDERO John. Born 1756. Son of John Boldero, rector of Ampton, No. 218. Elected to Hewer exhibition in May 1776. Adm. to St. John's Coll. June 1774. He succeeded his father as rector of Ampton, and was buried there in 1796.

221. BOLDERO ——. He is in the 2nd form in 1822. Royalist. Lists for 1823, 1824, are missing. He is not in the 1825 list.

222. BOLTON Augustus Charles Hope. Born at Shimpling, Suff., Jan. 1825. Son of Miles Cooper Bolton, rector of Shimpling. At Bury school 1841—43. Sixth form. Foreigner. Adm. to Christ's May 1843. Rector of Shimpling 1865—96.

252. BRADBURY Dudley. Trin. Coll. B.A. 1666. Instituted to the rectory of Moulton in Feb. 1677. Still there in the Poll book for 1727. He gave a book to the school library in 1672, which is my only reason for including him.
253. BRADBURY Wentworth. Born at Mildenhall. Son of Thomas Bradbury. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Christ's Dec. 1699 aged 16. M.A. 1707. In the Suffolk Poll book for 1727 he is at Mildenhall, clerk. In 1674 Mr. Bradbury, I suppose his father, pays hearth tax for a house of four hearths in Mildenhall.

254. BRADSTREET —. He is in the undated school list (c. 1650) as a Foreigner. Probably William, son of Samuel Bradstreet, rector of Troston, Suff., bapt. at Troston July 1642. I don't know whether he is the William Bradstreet who pays hearth tax for a house with two hearths at Wickham Market in 1674.
255. BRADSTREET Samuel. Bapt. at Troston Jan. 1644. Son of Samuel Bradstreet, rector of Troston. He is in the school list for 1656. Queen's Coll. B.A. 1663. He may be the Samuel Bradstreet who in 1674 is charged for an empty house with two hearths at Combs near Stowmarket.

269. BREWSTER James. Son of James Brewster of Otton Belchamp, Essex. Adm. to Bury school Jan. 1741. Foreigner.
- N.B.—There is a tombstone in Otton Belchamp churchyard to James Brewster the father, who died May 1770 aged 67. Also to a younger brother, Waldegrave Brewster, who may have been a Bury school boy, and who died May 1781 aged 46.
270. BRIDGE John. Son of John Bridge of Barking, Suff. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Trin. Coll. May 1703 aged 15. M.A. 1710.
271. BRIDGE Thomas. Of Cambridge. Adm. to Peterhouse from Bury school Dec. 1777 aged 21. Did not graduate.
272. BRIDGE ——. In the Bury school list for 1820 only. Royalist. In Bury churchyard is a tombstone to Mrs. Phoebe Bridge, daughter of Capt. Francis Grose the antiquary, and widow of Major Bridge of the 117th foot. She died Nov. 1842, having lived for some years at 18 Whiting street. This boy may be her son.
273. BRIDGEMAN Richard. Only son of Robert Bridgeman of Swaffham Bulbeck. Adm. to Bury school Aug. 1730. Foreigner. Adm. to St. John's Coll. June 1736 aged 19. As the John's admission book only gives Ely as his school, perhaps he did not stay at Bury long. Rector of Barnardiston and Shimpling, Suff., 1764—66. Died June 1766.
274. BRIDGEMAN ——. I get this boy's name from a list of speakers on Speech-day, July 4, 1815. Also from an examination list for 1815.
275. BRIDGMAN ——. In the Bury school lists for 1818—22. Royalist.

 278. BRIDGMAN ——. In the Bury school lists for 1825—27. Royalist.
 279. BRIDGMAN ——. In the Bury school lists 1829—32. Royalist.

N.B.—Who these last five Royalists are I cannot say. Probably sons of John Bridgman, who was then living in Bury. I don't know whether he was the Mr. Bridgman who in and about 1826 was an assistant master.

280. BRIDGMAN John. Son of John Bridgman, who kept the Bell at Bury, and afterwards succeeded his father, Thomas Bridgman, at the Angel. In Bury school lists 1851—55. Royalist. Attended horse races and died early.
 281. BRIDON Thomas. Son of Ambrose Bridon of Bury St. Edmunds, mediæ fortunæ. At Bury under Wilson. Adm. to Caius Coll. April 1602 aged 16. His father was a glover. There was no head master named Wilson, and so I suppose this boy is NOT a Grammar school boy.
 282. BRYDON Charles. Son of Henry Brydon. In March 1654 the Governors allowed him £5 a year upon his admission to a college in the University, to begin when any of the exhibitions already granted should cease.
 283. BRIGHT Walter. Son of Thomas Bright of Bury St. Edmunds, alderman. Two years at Bury under Coote. Adm. to Caius Coll. April 1599 aged 16. Buried at St. Mary's, Bury St. Edmunds, Dec. 1624. (See "Brights of Suffolk" p. 67.)
 284. BRIGHT Thomas. Son of Thomas Bright of Pakenham. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Christ's Coll. April 1692 aged 17. Married Mary Grigson of Forncett, Norf. Died April 1727. Buried in Thurston church.

N.B.—There were four consecutive Thomas Brights of Nether hall in Pakenham and Thurston. No. 1 died in 1661. No. 2 in 1713. No. 3 in 1727. No. 4 in 1736. I think there is no doubt that No. 3 is my No. 284 and No. 4 is my No. 285. In "The Brights of Suffolk" No. 3 is said to have been baptized at Heigham, his mother's home, in 1660. But that must be wrong. That Thomas must have died in infancy, and this Thomas must be a much younger brother born in 1674 or 1675. In consequence of this mistake this Thomas at his marriage and at his death is set down to be about fifteen years older than he was. With some difficulty I resist the temptation to include several more of this family, who I feel sure came to Bury school though I have no proof of it.

285. BRIGHT Thomas. Son of Thomas Bright of Pakenham, No. 284. Nine years at Bury under Kinsman. Adm. to Caius Coll. April 1733 aged 19. Died Dec. 1736 aged 23. Buried at Thurston. With him this branch of the Brights died out. (See "Brights of Suffolk," p. 221).
286. BRIGHT ——. In Bury school lists 1826—27. Foreigner.
287. BRIGHTALL Henry. Son of Robert Brightall of Bury St. Edmunds, tailor. Six years at Bury under Dickenson. Adm. to Caius Coll. April 1635 aged 18. Curate of Rougham. Rector of Beyton. His will proved in 1661.
288. BRINGLOE Porter. Son of John Bringloe of Wood Rising, attorney. One and a half year at Bury under Kinsman. Caius Coll. B.A. 1739. Fellow. Rector of Bratton Fleming, Devon. Died 1780.
289. BRINGLOE Stafford. Son of John Bringloe of Wood Rising, Norf., attorney. Adm. to Bury school Nov. 1730. Foreigner.
290. BRINKLEY John. Born at Bury St. Edmunds. Son of John Brinkley. At school there under Leeds. In June 1705 the Governors of Bury school allowed him an exhibition of £6 odd a year. Adm. to Christ's Jan. 1703 aged 18. M.A. 1717. Curate of Brockley, Suff., 1709. Rector of Middleton, Essex, three years. Rector of Stanningfield twenty-eight years. Minister of St. James', Bury, forty-three years. Died June 1751 aged 66. Tombstone in St. James' church.
291. BRINKLEY John. Born at Bury St. Edmunds. Son of William Brinkley, attorney. Adm. to Bury school April 1736. Adm. to John's Jan. 1746 aged 19. His University career was a short one. One evening in March 1746 James Ashton, an undergraduate of St. John's, was found dead in his room. Suspicion fell upon John Brinkley, and he was tried for murder. He was acquitted, but not allowed to remain in college. Dr. Kinsman, head master of Bury school, attended the trial and bore witness to his character. A full account is printed in "St. John's Admissions," Part III.
292. BRITAYNE John. Son of John Britayne of Hadleigh, clothier. Three years at Bury under Ward. Adm. to Caius Coll. Aug. 1633 aged 15. Not mentioned in his father's will dated July 1636.

N.B.—Ward was at this time master of Thetford school, so that it looks as if either Bury should be Thetford or Ward should be Dickenson.

293. BRITTON ——. He is in the Bury school list for 1713. Foreigner. This is probably Thomas, son of Thomas and Katharine Britton, baptized at Little Welnetham Nov. 1704, and buried there Oct. 1741 aged 36. He has a stone in the church.

N.B.—I do not know whether Thomas Britton, the father of this boy, is the Mr. Britton who about 1690 was teaching at Kennet, and about 1705 was teaching at Needham Market.

294. BROCKET William. Son of William Bocket in Christ's Hospital, London. Adm. to Bury school Aug. 1733. Foreigner.

N.B.—Lawrence Brockett, Cambridge Professor of Modern History in 1762, is included amongst eminent Bury scholars in the Tercentenary volume. But the entry of his admission to Trin. Coll. in June 1743 says that he came from a school at Scorton in Yorkshire. It looks as if Dr. Donaldson had confounded him with this William Brockett. I therefore do not include Lawrence.

295. BROME James. Born at Cambridge. Son of William Brome. At Newark under Leeds, and Bury. In March 1666 the Governors of Bury school allowed him an exhibition of £5 a year. Adm. to Christ's July 1666. M.A., 1677. Dr. Leeds appears to have brought this boy with him when he came from Newark to Bury in 1663.

296. BROME John. Born at Woodbridge. Eldest son of Rev. John Brome. Adm. to Bury school Oct. 1731. Foreigner. Adm. to John's June 1735 aged 20. B.A. 1738. Had the curacies of Nedging and Hollesley, Suff. His grandfather, Edmund Brome, was for a short time master of the Woodbridge school, rector of Woodbridge for fifty-three years, and rector of Great and Little Bealings.

297. BROME Charles John. Born at Sturston, Suff. Son of William Brome D.D., of Pulham. Adm. to Bury school Jan. 1738. Adm. to John's Nov. 1743 aged 17. He died at Cambridge in Dec. 1747 of small pox, while still an undergraduate. In the entry of his admission to Bury school he is called simply Charles; in the John's college book he is Charles John. His father William, who had the livings of Pulham, Sturston, Oakley and Eye, was the poet who helped Pope in his translations.

300. BROOKE John. He is in Dr. Donaldson's list of eminent scholars in the Tercentenary volume. He would have been at Bury school about 1790. Jesus Coll. B.A. 1795. Wrangler. Fellow and tutor. Vicar of Elmstead, Essex, and Whittlesford, Cambs., two college livings.
301. BROOKE Isaac. Bapt. at Horringer July 1795. Son of Isaac Brooke of Little Horringer Hall farm. Mentioned in the Tercentary vol. among the old scholars present. Lived at Ipswich. Died there c. 1860.

305. BROWNE William. Adm. to Bury school 1692. Foreigner. (Min. Book p. 252).
306. BROWN ——. He is in the Bury school list for 1713. Royalist. Probably John Brown, maltster, father of No. 309, and son of John Brown who was thrice chief Alderman of Bury and died in April 1730 aged 78.
307. BROWNE Francis. Born in London. Son of Francis Browne D.D. At Bury under Kinsman. Adm. to John's, Camb., Oct. 1733 aged 18. To Trin. Coll., Oxford, Jan. 1735 aged 19. B.A. 1738.

311. BROWN ——. At Bury school 1829—30. First form. Foreigner. Among the old scholars unable to attend the Tercentenary festival in 1850 was Mr. G. F. Brown. He must either be this boy or else some other boy whose name I have not got, and who left the school before 1817, when the annual lists begin.
312. BROWNE Robert Spink. Born at Fornham All Saints. Son of John Robert Browne. At Bury school 1847—48. Foreigner. He went to Australia, joined the Government Survey for telegraph to Northern territory, and is supposed to have been killed in the Bush.

320. BROWNING Edward Campbell. Second son of Henry Browning, who rented successively Ampton and Hengrave halls in Suffolk. At Bury school 1849—53. Sixth form. Foreigner. 321. BROWNING Hugh Edmund. Third son of Henry Browning. At Bury school 1846—53. Foreigner. From Bury to Sandhurst, whence he joined the Scots Greys. Retired 1870. Bought Clapham Park near Bedford. Master of the Oakley Hunt. Died Dec. 1905.
322. BROWNSMITH John. Born at Pakenham. Son of John Brownsmith, rector of Pakenham 1696—1722. Bred at Bury under Kinsman. Adm. to John's Jan. 1717 aged 18. B.A. 1720. Dr. Randall speaks of him as "de gente minori," but worthy of equal honour with the great. Probably his father was the John Brownsmith who was master of the school at Lavenham from 1720—32. The hearth tax return shows three householders of this name at Lavenham in 1674.
323. BRUNDISH Thomas. Bapt. at Great Welnetham Nov. 1688. Son of John Brundish, rector there. Seven years at Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Caius Coll. Oct. 1706 aged 18. Dr. Venn has wrongly set him down as rector of Great Welnetham. He certainly was not. Whether he was rector of Chelsworth and Wyverstone, as there stated, I do not know. He probably is the Thomas Brundish buried at Great Welnetham in Aug. 1725.
324. BRUNDISH John. Bapt. at Great Welnetham Nov. 1690. Son of John Brundish, rector there. Corpus Coll. B.A. 1712. Caius Coll. M.A. 1719. Had some livings in Norfolk. Married Jane Jelliand. Died 1750. I have no actual proof that this John Brundish was at Bury school, but it is practically certain.
325. BRUNDISH Benjamin. Bapt. at Great Welnetham July 1695. Son of John Brundish, rector there. Seven years at Bury under Randall. He is in the Bury school list for 1713. Adm. to Caius Coll. Aug. 1713 aged 17. According to Dr. Venn, rector of Wyverstone; died 1739.
326. BRUNDISH John Jelliand. Born at Northwold, Norf. Son of Rev. John Brundish of Bury St. Edmunds. Grandson of No. 324. Seven years at Bury under Garnham. Elected to Hewer exhibition Feb. 1770. Adm. to Caius

Coll. July 1768 aged 17. Sen. Wrangler. Smith's Prize. Senior Classical Medallist. Dean. Master of Perse school. Priest 1780. Died in college Feb. 1786. His wonderful success at the University has brought him into the D. N. B., which omits to say from what school he came up.

N.B.—John Brundish, the father of this boy and of No. 327, was rector of Little Cressingham from 1747 to 1786; but in the entry of John Jelliand's admission to Caius Coll. he is described as "of Bury St. Edmunds." Eighteenth century clergymen are not always to be found in their parishes.

327. BRUNDISH Benjamin. Born at Northwold. Son of John Brundish, rector of Little Cressingham. Eight years at Bury under Garnham and Wright. Elected to Hewer exhibition May 1773. Adm. to Caius Coll. June 1770 aged 16. Fellow. Died in college June 1779.

328. BRYANT ——. In Bury school lists 1822—25. Foreigner.

329. BRYANT ——. In Bury school lists 1825—26. Foreigner.

330. BUCHANAN ——. In Bury school lists 1817—21. Foreigner. Simon Buchanan, who died May 1811 aged 77, and has a tombstone in St. Mary's church at Bury, may be the grandfather of this boy.

331. BUCK John. Eldest son of William Buck of Bury St. Edmunds. Died Dec. 1839 aged 64. Tombstone in Bury churchyard.

332. BUCK Samuel. Born Feb. 1778. Second son of William Buck. Occupied Hawstead hall farm. Died Dec. 31, 1852. Tombstone in Bury churchyard.

333. BUCK William. Son (probably third) of William Buck. Lived at Fornham All Saints. Died March 1838 aged 53. Tombstone in Bury churchyard.

N.B.—I have no authority for including Nos. 331, 332, 333. They are only probabilities.

334. BUCK Robert. Born Nov. 1787. Son (probably fourth) of William Buck of Bury St. Edmunds. Is mentioned in the Tercent. vol. among the old scholars present. Occupied Nowton hall farm for many years. Died there March 1860. Tombstone in the Bury churchyard.

N.B.—The same tombstone has the name of William Buck, the father of these four boys, who died May 1819 aged 72.

335. BUCKBERD William. He gave a book in 1565, and may or may not have been an old scholar. He could not have been a very old one, as the school itself was then only fifteen years old.

336. BUCKENHAM Thomas. Son of John Buckenham of Rishangles M.D. Four years under Hall and Dickenson. No place is mentioned in the Caius Coll. Admission book, but Dickenson probably means the then head master of Bury school. Adm. to Caius Coll. April 1629 aged 16. Fellow. Studied medicine at Leyden. Afterwards practised at Bury. Died Nov. 1682. Buried at St. James', Bury.

Richard Kidder, Bishop of Bath and Wells, who was killed in the great storm of 1703, tells us in his Autobiography that on the same day in 1658, during the Commonwealth, he was ordained deacon and priest by Bishop Brownrigg in Dr. Buckenham's house at Bury. I have not made out where this house was. The only clue to it that I know of is this. At that time Thomas Hervey living with his father at Hengrave was courting Isabella May living with her relatives in and round Bury. The courtship was a secret one, because her parents with the usual worldliness of parents forbade it, wanting some one with a larger estate. On Oct. 15, 1652, he writes to her saying that yesterday he came from Hengrave to Bury to see her, but when he got as far as Dr. Buckenham's at about 4 p.m., he met her sister, Lady Duncombe, who said she was not at home. So he turned back. Probably she was staying at Sir John Duncombe's, and the discovery of his house would help to the discovery of Dr. Buckenham's. As Thomas Hervey was coming in from Hengrave it looks as if he met Lady Duncombe in Northgate street, so that Dr. Buckenham's house was one of the fine houses which adorn that street.

337. BUCKLE ma. In Bury school lists 1821 as Foreigner, 1822 as Royalist.

338. BUCKLE mi. In Bury school lists 1822—26. Royalist.

339. BUCKLE min. In Bury school lists 1822—26. Royalist.

N.B.—Mr. F. and Mr. S. Buckle are in the Tercentary vol. among old scholars unable to attend, and are probably two of these three boys. The Poll book for 1832 shows a Mr. James Buckle in Northgate street, who might be their father.

340. BULKELY Samuel. Son of Samuel Bulkely of Lincoln's Inn. Adm. to Bury school April 1745. Foreigner. Clare Coll. M.A. 1756.

341. BULL Henry. He is in the undated school list (c. 1650) as a foundation scholar, i.e. Royalist. Probably a son of Thomas Bull, who died Feb. 1682 aged 74, and has a stone in St. James' churchyard.
342. BULL John. Born at Bury St. Edmunds. Son of Henry Bull, shoemaker. Bred at Bury over four years. Adm. to John's Jan. 1669 aged 17. M.A. 1676. His next door neighbour in the St. John's Admission book is Titus Oates. In 1676 William Stewkley was nominated minister of St. Mary's church at Bury. John Bull opposed him and got a majority of one in the Town Council. The Bishop of Norwich refused to accept him because he was not yet in priest's orders. John Bull continued to assert his claim till Charles II. interfered and ordered the Corporation to accept Stewkley, which they did. (Tymms.) In May 1677 he was appointed minister at St. James' church at Bury. In Oct. 1695 the Corporation ordered that he should either reside within the borough and officiate or else be discharged. In May 1703 they removed him for non-residence. That is the last I can see of him.
343. BULL ——. In the Bury school list for 1713. Foreigner.
344. BULL Seth. Son of Seth Bull who kept a school at Ely. In the Bury school lists for 1817, 1818, 1819, all the time in 6th form. Foreigner. Died July 1840 aged 39 from a fall from his horse. Tombstone on the north side of Ely cathedral.

N.B.—Three tombstones at Ely record these three names :

Seth Bull died Nov. 1792 aged 62.

Seth Bull died Sept. 1828 aged 70.

Seth Bull died July 1840 aged 39.

345. BULLEN Henry St. John. Born 1773. Son of Henry Bullen of Bury St. Edmunds. At Bury school under Becher. Elected to Hewer exhibition Feb. 1791. Adm. to Trin. Coll. Nov. 1790 aged 17. B.A. 1795. Won a goblet at Cambridge, an oration prize. Then became an assistant master at Bury Grammar school. In 1802 elected head master of Leicester school. Rector of Quarrington, Lincolnshire, 1801. Tuddenham 1805—17. Dunton, Bucks., 1817—39. Wrestlingworth, Beds., 1821. Died 1839. Buried at Dunton.

In 1797 he brought out, Rudiments of English Grammar for the use of schools. Printed at Bury by P. Gedge. Dedicated in fifty lines of verse "To all the Rising Progeny." He also published other educational works.

- N.B.—A third son, William Bullock, afterwards William Hall of Six Mile Bottom, does not seem to have come to the Grammar school. This school was kept by Mr. Priest. Then to a school kept by the curate of Mildenhall. Then to Westminster. Then into the army. Succeeded his uncle, No. 356, in 1820 as seventh baronet. He did not graduate and probably died young. But he has been confused in the Jermyn and Davy MSS. with another Gamaliel of the next generation, and so made to live for a hundred and five years. Dr. Venn says there has been a confusion of dates. It is more than that. It is a confusion of persons. Two persons, uncle and nephew, have been rolled out into one.

N.B.—Robert Carss the father was a draper, and was taken into partnership by his father-in-law, John Spink the banker. Spink and Carss' bank failed in 1796. The premises have since been successively occupied by the Suffolk and Essex bank, Oakes and Bevan, and the Capital and Counties. Robert Carss died May 1827 aged 76, and has a stone in Little Whelnetham churchyard.

41. CARTER Thomas. Born 1610. Scholar of John's 1626—29.

N.B.—In the East Anglian Miscellany, Nos. 73 and 86, there is some account of a Carter of Stanton, a large wool merchant, who was murdered about the middle of the eighteenth century. One of his sons was Dr. Anthony Carter of Stanton. This murdered man (supposing him to have been murdered) was probably a son of this boy, and probably also a Grammar school boy himself.

Took the name of Case-Morewood. Died at Alfreton June 1825 aged 78. Buried at Alfreton.

N.B.—There are two portraits of him now at Alfreton hall which represent a smart good looking man. There are also a large number of drawings by Bunbury the caricaturist, with whom he might have had a school friendship at Bury as well as a home friendship at Mildenhall. See Henry William BUNBURY, No. 357.

58. CASE Philip James. Son of Henry Case of Mildenhall, solicitor, by his second wife. Settled in Bury as an attorney before 1790. Registrar of Archdeaconry of Sudbury. During the election in Dec. 1832 a mob broke his windows at 87, Whiting street. He fired a gun, and of course a woman was hit. He was tried at the Assizes, but acquitted. He is in Bury poll-books and directories till 1847 inclusive, but not in 1852. I do not see his name in the churchyard. I have no proof of his having been at Bury school, but he is a high probability.

62. CASE Philip James. Fourth son of Philip James Case, No. 58. Became Lieut. R. N. in Nov. 1826. Died at Hamburgh June 1831 aged 33.
N.B.—I cannot prove him as a Bury school boy, as he can hardly be the Case in fifth form in the school list for 1817.
63. CASE Edward. Fifth son (I believe, unless a cousin,) of Philip James Case, No. 58. He is in the school list 1817. Fifth form. Royalist. N.B.—Sir John Castleton of Sturston, second baronet, gave a book to the school library in 1698; but as the Caius Coll. admission book gives Eye and Botesdale as his schools, I do not include him.
67. CATER ——. At Bury school 1828—31. Foreigner. In the list of admissions it is Cater. In the annual school lists it is Kater. Perhaps a son of Rev. Thomas Cator, vicar of Woodbastwich 1821—36.

68. CAUDELL Henry. Son of William Caudell, lanarius (woollen draper). Born at Hopton, Norf. Four years at Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Sid. Suss. Coll. Sept. 1706 aged 17. B.A. 1710.

73. CHALLIS John. Born c. 1674. Son of John Challis of Worlington. Died June 1750 aged 76. Tombstone in Worlington church. I have no authority for including this boy, but he is probable. His brother was at the school and several of his mother's family.

N.B.—John Challis, the father of Nos. 73 and 74, died Feb. 1697 aged 49. He has a stone in Worlington church. I imagine him to be a brother of No. 71, and probably a Grammar school boy himself.

74. CHALLIS Martin. Son of John Challis of Warrington [Worlington] Suff., mercer. Five years at Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Caius Coll. April 1700 aged 17. Rector of Hillington, Norf., 1728—1757, and Ashwicken, Norf., 1716—1757. Died 1757. His mother was Ann Folkes of Rushbrooke, whence he got his name Martin and his parish Hillington.

This is dated Sept. 27, 1742. Simon Clarke is described in the apology as a young man of about 19 years, an only son, well educated at Bury school, intended to follow his business, and then to be sent to London for further improvement, and likely to enjoy a handsome fortune. N.B.—Robert Cordell, father of these six boys, was the mortgagee of Melford hall, which he bought of the Rivers family in 1649. Baronetted in 1660. Died c. 1680. Buried in St. Lawrence church, London. Besides the two eldest sons who come into the Bury school list he had four more who most probably were at Bury school, though there is no list of their day to prove it. I have therefore included them as high probabilities.

269. CORLES ——. At Bury school 1832—35. Foreigner.

N.B.—Harry Corles, son of William Corles, was born at Killarney, co. Kerry, educated at Worcester under John Simpson. Adm. to Trin. Coll. June 1824 aged 17. B.A. 1830. He then came as assistant master to Bury school, and stayed over twenty years. Then from 1852 to 1885 rector of Langham, Suff. Then he resigned and came to live in Bury, 9, Northgate street, where he died in Dec. 1897. Buried at Langham. I imagine that the two boys were his brothers, as they came to school just after his appointment to the mastership.

270. CORNWALLIS Charles. Born 1674. Eldest son of Charles, third Lord Cornwallis. Served in Flanders under William III. M.P. for Eye 1695—98. Succeeded his father as fourth baron April 1698. Was Lord Lieut. of Suffolk and held other offices. Died Jan. 1722 aged 47. Buried at Culford.

N.B.—I must explain my reasons for including him, as he is not in any school list. Dr. Leeds in the preface of one of his educational works, 1690, mentions Cornwallis among his pupils from Suffolk. Dr. Randall in his Latin and poetical (both Latin and poetry equally vile) list of old scholars mentions Cornwallis as formerly adorning this home of Apollo. He then goes on to specify him who survives and takes care for the safety of king and people. This seems to mean that several of the name were at the school, and the survivor seems to be the then head of the family. I infer from the lines that this lord Cornwallis did not send his sons there. But his three brothers, William, James, and John, might have been there, and a whole host of uncles. But I will not include more than this Charles, who I think is a certainty.

271. CORRANCE Clement. Son of John Corrance of Rendlesham. Matric. at Oxford May 1702. Adm. to Inner Temple June 1703. Married in Oct. 1705 Mary, daughter of Sir Robert Davers, 2nd baronet. Bought Rougham hall from his father in law, who went to live at the adjoining Rushbrook hall. M.P. for Orford 1708—22. Died March 1724. Buried at Rougham.

N.B.—I include this boy on the authority of Dr. Randall. He devotes sixteen lines to “vir bonus et sapiens Currantius,” apparently an astute and crafty man. He gives him no christian name, but the date agrees with Clement; and the fact which he mentions that “connubialis amor” as well as “villula proxima” united him to Davers leaves no room for doubt as to who is meant.

272. CORRANCE John. Eldest son of Clement Corrance of Rougham, No. 271. Succeeded to Rougham on the death of his father in 1724. Died 1742, leaving an only daughter who died in 1747.

N.B.—I have no definite authority for including this boy. But brought up at Rougham, it is extremely likely that he went to the school to which his father and younger brother certainly went.

273. CORRANCE Robert. Born at Rougham. Second son of Clement Corrance, gent., No. 271. At Bury under Kinsman. Adm. to John's Dec. 1733 aged 18. B.A. 1737. Ordained Feb. 1738 and licensed to curacy of Alexton, co. Leicester.

282. COVEL William. Bapt. at Horringer July 1627. Eldest son of William Covell. Probably served in the civil war, as he is afterwards called Capt. Covell. As Col. Blagge of Little Horringer hall raised a regiment, he very likely had a company in it. Afterwards was steward of the Ickworth estate; also of Hengrave estate. Died April 1707 aged 79, having survived all his sons. Tombstone in Horringer churchyard.
- N.B.—I have no authority for including this boy, but he is a high probability.
283. COVEL Thomas. Bapt. at Horringer July 1634. Second son of William Covell. Was probably steward of the Ickworth estate before his brother William. At any rate he made a survey and map of it in 1665. He married Judith Blagge, sister of Col. Blagge of Little Horringer hall, who was with Charles II. at Worcester and Boscobel. He died Aug. 1715 aged 81. Tombstone in Horringer church.

N.B.—I have no authority for including this boy, but he is a high probability.

284. COVEL John. Bapt. at Horringer April 1638. Third and youngest son of William Covel. At Bury under Stephens. Adm. to Christ's March 1654 aged 16. An exhibition of £5 a year allowed him by the Governors of Bury school was relinquished by him in 1659. Fellow of Christ's Coll. Chaplain at Constantinople and the Hague. Master of Christ's Coll. 1688—1722. He published a folio vol. on the Greek church. His journals and MSS. are in the British Museum. Dr. Randall devotes forty lines to him. Died Dec. 1722. Buried in his college chapel. In D. N. B.

N.B.—I have only authority for including one of these three brothers, but the other two are more than probable. William, their father, belonged to an old Horringer family. Bapt. there Dec. 1599. Buried there Nov. 1661. He, like two of his sons, was a land surveyor. There still exists a map of the Crofts estate at Little Saxham beautifully drawn by him in 1638. Very likely he too was a Bury school boy. The Covel estate is that now known as Horringer house, owned and occupied by Mr. Lainson.

285. COVEL John. According to Christ's Coll. admission book, born at Lastingham in East Harling. Bapt. at Horringer March 1663. Eldest surviving son of William Covel, No. 282. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Christ's Coll. May 1679 aged 16. Did not graduate. Elected Town clerk of Bury Jan. 1689. Died May 1694. Buried at Horringer.
286. COVEL Thomas. Bapt. at Horringer Dec. 1666. Second surviving son of William Covel, No. 282. Died Dec. 1693. Buried at Horringer. I have no authority for including this boy.
287. COVEL Richard. Bapt. at Horringer Nov. 1671. Third surviving son of William Covel, No. 282. Died May 1691. Buried at Horringer. I have no authority for including this boy.
288. COWLING Peter Lancelot. Bapt. Oct. 1790. Son of Peter Cowling of Fen Stanton, Hunts. At Bury under Becher. Adm. to St. John's April 1808. B.A. 1812. Rector of Long Stow 1821—. Became blind. Died Jan. 1848 aged 57. Buried at Fen Stanton.

N.B.—Curiously he was succeeded at Billingford by Rev. Augustus Cooper, apparently of another family. See COOPER.

290. COX John. Rector of Risby. Buried at Risby Sept. 1680 aged 59. He gave a book to the school library in 1668, which is my only authority for including him.
291. COX Wilfrid Cyril. Son of Rev. Sir G. W. Cox, baronet, of Nowton, Suff. At Bury school May to July 1879.
292. COX Edward Edmund Machell. Born at Hazlewood. Eldest son of Rev. J. Charles Cox, rector of Barton le street. At Bury school 1880—85. Foreigner. Now curate of Clay Cross, Derbyshire.

N.B.—The Rev. J. Charles Cox, LL.D. F.S.A. father of these two boys, is the author of numerous works relating to the churches and antiquities of Derbyshire.

294. CRABBE George. Born at Pucklechurch, Wilts., 1819. Son of Rev. George Crabbe, vicar of Bradfield, and grandson of George Crabbe the poet. At Bury school 1835—38. Foreigner. Adm. to Queen's Coll. 296. CRADOCK John. Son of John Cradock, rector of Barrow, Suff. He is in the Bury school list for 1656. In Oct. 1662, he being then at Emmanuel Coll., the Governors of Bury school having received a good testimony of him and been informed of his necessities, allowed him an exhibition of £5 a year. B.A. 1664. In 1676 he gave a book to the school library, being then described as rector of Rickinghall.

N.B.—John Cranfield, the father, died June 1734 aged 49, and has a tombstone in Bury churchyard.
299. CRASKE Robert. He is in the undated school list (c. 1650) as a foundation scholar, i.e. Royalist.
300. CRASKE John. Of Barton, Suff. Son of Thomas Craske, farmer. Bred at Bury St. Edmunds. Adm. to John's Sept. 1671 aged 16. B.A. 1675.
301. CRASKE John. Son (I think) of William Craske, who was Alderman of Bury in 1712. Town clerk of Bury for 25 years. Died Jan. 1717 aged 55 years. Tombstone in Bury churchyard. I have no certain authority for including him.
302. CRASKE John. Son of John Craske, Town clerk, No. 301. Died Oct. 1715 aged 21. Tombstone in Bury churchyard.
N.B.—Dr. Randall, in the poetical list of scholars published 1719, speaks generally of the Craskes among other old scholars:
Hic Craski, at Crassi potius, si copia fandi,
Sed notat insignes nomen utrumque viros.
And then he refers to one in particular lately snatched away. That must be either the Town clerk or his son who comes next, and is my only authority for including them.
303. CRASKE Thomas. Born at Weeting, Norfolk. Son of Thomas Craske of Bury St. Edmunds M.D. Three years at Bury. Adm. to Caius Coll. July 1687 aged 17. M.D. 1700. Fellow. Greek and Hebrew Lecturer. Practised medicine at Cambridge. Died at Bury St. Edmunds 1718.
304. CRASKE Henry. Son of William Craske of Bury St. Edmunds, brewer. Eight years at Bury under Leeds and Randall. In May 1712 the Governors of Bury school allowed him an exhibition of £6 odd a year till B.A. Adm. to Caius Coll. July 1710 aged 17. Chaplain to Lord Bristol. Held livings of Anwick and Brauncewell in co. Lincoln., Denham and Shotley in Suff., Fordham in Essex. Preacher at St. James', Bury St. Edmunds, 1723—1743. Died Sept. 1743. Tombstone in St. James' church.

N.B.—William Craske the brewer, father of this boy, must, I think, be brother of the town clerk, No. 301. William, their father, died June 1715 aged 75. Probably both Williams were at the Grammar school, though I have not included them.

305. CRASKE Walter. Born May 1735. Son of Rev. Henry Craske, No. 304. Adm. to Bury school Sept. 1742. Royalist. In Oct. 1752 the Governors of Bury school allowed him an exhibition of £12 a year for four years or till he became B.A., he being then at Jesus Coll. This is puzzling, as according to the Grad. Cant. he had become B.A. in 1750. Minister of St. Mary's, Bury, 1757—90. Rector of Bradfield Combust 1768—90. Rector of Stowlangtoft 1775—90. Died May 1790 aged 55. 310. CREED Henry. Son of John Stevens Creed. Elected to Dean Sudbury exhibition Aug. 1817. In Bury school list 1817, 6th form. Royalist. Corpus Christi Coll. B.A. 1821. Rector of Mellis, Suff., 1837—61. Died Oct. 1861 aged 62. Tombstone at Mellis.

N.B.—John Stevens Creed, father of these two boys, died Sept. 1829 aged 74, and has a tombstone in Bury churchyard.

311. CREFFIELD Edward. Son of Edward Creffield, clerk. Born at Polstead, Suffolk. At Bury under Kinsman. Adm. to John's Feb. 1729 aged 17. B.A. 1732. D.D. from Oxford 1764. Rector of Bildeston 1758—82. Died at Bildeston April 1782.
312. CREMER Francis Woodson. Son of John E. Cremer of Sparham, Norfolk. At Bury school 1894—96. Now in Gurney's Bank at Norwich.
313. CREMER George Windham. Son of John E. Cremer of Sparham. At Bury school 1894—1900. Now farming at Sparham.
314. CRESSONER or CRESNER Thomas. Son of Thomas Cresner of Bury St. Edmunds, druggist. At Bury under Stevens. Adm. to John's Feb. 1650 aged 16. In April 1652 the Governors of Bury school granted him £5 a year towards his maintenance at the University. In the Bury minute book the name is written Cresnall.
315. CRESSONER or CRESNER Drue. Born at Bury St. Edmunds. Son of Thomas Cresner, chemist. He is in the Bury school list for 1656. Adm. to Christ's Coll. March 1658 aged 16. In April 1658 the Governors of Bury school granted to him "now fitt for Cambridge" £5 for one year. In Oct. 1662 it was ordered to be paid till last Michaelmas notwithstanding his commencement of B.A. "He is now a Fellow of Trinity." This must be an error, for he was a fellow of Pembroke. B.A. 1661. D.D. 1680. His tombstone in Soham church says that he was fifteen years fellow of Pembroke, thirty-nine years vicar of Soham, seventeen years canon of Ely. Died Feb. 1717 aged 79.
- N.B.—Many more of this name and family, Cambridge graduates, might be included, but having no proof of their being Bury school boys I omit them.
316. CREW John. Son of Sibell Crew. In Jan. 1642 the Governors allowed him forty shillings towards the setting forth of him to Cambridge. In March 1645 the Governors ordered the payment of the exhibition to cease. (Minute book.) He is probably the father of the next boy, No. 317.
317. CREW John. Son of John Crew of Bury St. Edmunds. Eight years at Bury under Stevens. In March 1666 the Governors of Bury school allowed him an exhibition of £5 a year. Adm. to Caius Coll. April 1666 aged 17. Curate of Rougham. Under master of Rochester school. Minor canon of Rochester. Vicar of Hartlip 1677—1704. Buried in Rochester cathedral 1704.

318. CRICK Thomas. Born April 1801. Eldest son of Rev. Thomas Crick, rector of Little Thurlow. Was at Norwich school under Valpy, and after his father's death he was at Felsted under Squire. B.A. 1823. Fellow and tutor, and President of St. John's Coll. Public Orator 1836. Rector of Little Thurlow for 23 years, and rector of Staplehurst 28 years. Died at Staplehurst June 1876. Tombstone in Thurlow churchyard.

N.B.—In the Tercentenary vol. Dr. Donaldson includes him in his list of eminent Bury scholars. But the family assure me that he never went to Bury school. So I do NOT include him.

319. CRICK Henry William. Born June 1803. Second son of Rev. Thomas Crick, rector of Little Thurlow. At Bury school 1819—20. Foreigner. Scholar of Jesus Coll. B.A. 1826. Took orders. Died at Little Thurlow Lodge Sept. 1855. Tombstone in Little Thurlow churchyard.
320. CRICK Frederick Charles. Born Feb. 1805. Third son of Rev. T. Crick, rector of Little Thurlow. At Bury school 1819—22. Foreigner. Adm. to St. John's June 1826 aged 21. Succeeded his brother Thomas as rector of Little Thurlow in 1876. Died there April 1885. Tombstone in Little Thurlow churchyard.

N.B.—Thomas Crick, the father of the three preceding boys, son of Thomas Crick, was vicar of Mildenhall and thirty-two years rector of Little Thurlow. He died April 1813 aged 67. Tombstone in Little Thurlow churchyard.

321. CRICK Fred. William. Born 1852. Eldest son of Rev. Henry William Crick, No. 319. At Bury school 1860—70. Royalist, his father being dead and his mother living in Bury. Capt. in 1870, three brothers being then in sixth form. Pembroke Coll. B.A. 1874. Formerly Head master of Huntingdon Grammar school. Now rector of Lytton Cheney, Dorset.
322. CRICK John Henry. Born 1853. Second son of Rev. Henry William Crick, No. 319. At Bury school 1861—72. Sixth form. Royalist. St. Catherine's Coll. B.A. 1876. Now rector of St. John's, Inverness.
323. CRICK Philip. Born 1855. Third son of Rev. Henry William Crick, No. 319. At Bury school 1863—74. Royalist. Captain of School 1874. Pembroke Coll. B.A. 1878. Took Orders. Has been assistant master at various colleges. Now carries on a school at St. Ronan's at Worthing.

324. CRIPPS Richard. Son of Robert Cripps, rector of Flempton. Adm. to Caius Coll. June 1593 aged 16.

N.B.—Robert Cripps was rector of Flempton 1571—97, during which time it was consolidated with Hengrave.

325. CRISPE John. A merchant. Died Oct. 1695 aged 75. Tombstone in St. James' church at Bury. He gave a book to the school library in 1682, which is my only authority for including him.

326. CRISSELL John. Born at Cavendish, Suffolk. Son of Samuel Crissell, woollen draper. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to John's April 1701 aged 17. B.A. 1704. Lived at Long Melford. Died Sept. 1723 aged 40. Tombstone in Melford church.

327. CROFTS John. Eldest son of Anthony Crofts of Willesdon, Midd., armiger. Educated at Eton. Adm. to Christ's Coll. Dec. 1649 aged 16. Was of West Stow, Suff., which he directed by his will to be sold after his death. Baronetted March 1661. Died at West Stow Nov. 1664. Buried there. NOT a Grammar school boy that I know of.

328. CROFTS William. Second son of Anthony Crofts of Willesdon and West Stow. His father hoped he would be a lawyer or a merchant. But he was a soldier, and attained the rank of major. M.P. for Bury 1685—88. Succeeded his cousin, Lord Crofts, in 1677 at Little Saxham. Died Jan. 1695. Tombstone at Little Saxham. I have no authority for including him.

329. CROFTS Anthony. Third son of Anthony Crofts. He is in the school list for 1656. Over two years there under Stevens. Adm. to John's June 1658 aged 17. Did not graduate. His father had expressed a wish that he would become a lawyer or merchant. I don't know what he did do. Died Feb. 1714 aged 72. Tombstone in West Stow church.

N.B.—Anthony Crofts, the father of these three boys, was the second son of Sir John Crofts. He succeeded his father at West Stow in 1628, while his elder brother, Henry, succeeded to Little Saxham. He appears to have lived at Willesden, his wife's home, more than at West Stow. That accounts for his eldest son John going to Eton instead of Bury. Where the second son went to I cannot say. But the third was certainly at Bury. Anthony died Oct. 1657 aged 63, and was buried at West Stow.

330. CROFTS Anthony. Bapt. at Little Saxham Aug. 1684. Second but eldest surviving son of William Crofts, No. 328. Married his cousin, Elizabeth Gipps of Little Horringer hall. Succeeded his father at Little Saxham. Died June 1725. Buried at Little Saxham.

N.B.—I must explain on what authority I include him. Dr. Randall devotes twelve lines to two boys, Crofts and Gipps, cousins, between whom there was no strife except who should excell in virtue. The Crofts that Dr. Randall knew at school must have been one of the generation to which this Anthony belonged. If it is not him, it must be his younger brother Charles, who was born at Little Saxham June 1690, became a barrister of Lincoln's Inn, and was buried at Saxham April 1737.

331. CROFT ——. Son of John Croft of Bury St. Edmunds, land surveyor. At Bury school 1851—58. Royalist. Died early.

N.B.—I believe this boy's name was Henry. His father, John Croft, was borough surveyor, and died May 1877 aged 68. He was buried in the cemetery, which was planned by him and first used in 1855.

332. CROMPTON ——. He is in the undated school list (c. 1650) as a Foreigner. Probably he is the Charles Crompton mentioned by Roger North in the Life of his brother Francis, and supposed to have been a natural son of Sir Henry North of Mildenhall, who brought him up. "A wilder character of a man never was known; but withal he had some extraordinary talents, as industry for example. If he fancied to write out a book, he would sit at it as a hen upon her nest, and deliver it with scarce a sully or blot in it." He died early before he had time to finish running through his estate in Yorkshire.

333. CROMPTON Charles. Son of Sir Robert Crompton, knight, Co. Midd. At Bury under Stevens. Adm. to John's Aug. 1662 aged 16. Did not graduate.

N.B.—His grandfather married Frances Crofts of Little Saxham, and she married (2) Edmund Poley of Badley, all of which helped to bring him to Bury.

334. CRONSHEY Robert. Born at Shimpling. Son of John Cronshey, agricola. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to John's March 1683 aged 17. B.A. 1686.

N.B.—This boy's father must be Mr. Cranshawe [sic] who paid hearth tax for four hearths at Shimpling in 1674.

335. CROPLEY William. Born 1635. Son of Thomas Cropley of Shelland, Suff. He is in the undated school list (c. 1650) as Foreigner. Lived at Thetford. Died at Haughley park May 1717 aged 82. Buried at Shelland. Tablet in the church.

N.B.—The 1650 list gives no christian names, but I do not think there can be any doubt as to who this boy is. His father's tombstone in Shelland church has a fine inscription.

336. CROPLEY Harbord. Born at Kilverstone. Son of William Cropley, No. 335, by his second wife, Catherine Harbord. Six years at Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Caius Coll. May 1694 aged 18. Fellow. Hebrew lecturer. Dean. Inherited his uncle's estate at Gunton and took the name of Harbord in 1711. M.P. for Norfolk 1728. Died Jan. 1742.

N.B.—Dr. Randall alludes to his change of name :—

Cujus adoptivo nomine crescit honos.

337. CROPLEY William. Son of William Cropley of Bury St. Edmunds. Adm. to Bury school July 1749. Royalist. Perhaps of Clare Coll., B.A. 1758.
338. CROPLEY Edward Hatch. Eldest son of Edward Cropley of Whitchford [?], Cambs., agricola. Two years at Bury under Malkin. Adm. to Sid. Suss. Coll. Jan. 1820. Adm. to Trin. Coll. Feb. 1822 aged 20. B.A. 1825. M.A. 1828.
339. CROSSMAN Samuel. Son of Samuel Crossman, rector of Bradfield St. George. Adm. to Pembroke Coll. Jan. 1641. B.D. 1660. In May 1641 the Governors of Bury school granted him 50 shillings as a reward for the good . . . (?) he had performed in this school. In 1651 he was pastor of the Congregational church at Sudbury, and in that capacity was invited to attend the Savoy Conference in 1661. He was also in 1651 incumbent of the neighbouring parish of Little Henny, from which he was ejected in 1662 after the passing of the Act of Uniformity. He afterwards conformed, and in July 1683 became dean of Bristol. Died Feb. 1684 aged 59. Buried in Bristol Cathedral. Some of his poems and sermons have been published. In D. N. B.

N.B.—Samuel Crossman, father of this boy, was rector of Bradfield St. George from 1623, and of Bradfield St. Clare from 1644, succeeding here the ejected Paul Gosnold. The pendulum swung, and he in his turn appears to have been ejected in 1661.

A third successive Samuel Crossman, son of No. 339, was admitted to Pembroke Coll. Dec. 1660 aged 14. B.A. 1666. M.A. 1670. Afterwards of Gray's Inn. He and also his brother James, who was admitted to Pembroke Coll. but did not graduate, may have been at Bury school, but I have no proof of it.

340. CROWNFIELD Cornelius. A printer at Cambridge. He gave books to the school library in 1724, 1725. I have no other reason for including him, so he is doubtful. He is described in the catalogue as "celeberrimæ Academiæ Cantabrigiænsis typographus." One of the books he gave was "An account of the present Greek Church" by John Covel, who was an old Bury boy.

In one of the volumes of this series I have printed the diary of John Hervey, Earl of Bristol, with extracts from his book of expenses. On Feb. 11, 1725, he enters the payment of £31 .. 7 .. 6 to Mr. Cornelius Crownfield by order of Rev. William Geekie, being the quarterly bills due at Cambridge for his son Charles. Charles Hervey had lately left Bury school and gone up to Queen's Coll., Cambridge, where Rev. William Geekie was his tutor. But what Cornelius Crownfield had to do with it I cant imagine.

341. CUBITT ——. In Bury school list for 1825. Sixth form. Foreigner. I believe a son of —— Cubitt, who was a partner in Cubitt and Gall of Bury St. Edmunds, chemists. But no Cubitt was living in Bury at this time.
342. CULLUM Dudley. Born at Badmondesfield in Wickhambrook Sept. 1657. Eldest son of Sir Thomas Cullum of Hawstead, second baronet. Bred at Bury. Adm. to John's Coll. Sept. 1675 aged 18. Did not graduate. Succeeded his father as third baronet in Oct. 1680. M.P. for Suffolk 1702. A great horticulturist. Also musician. His school bills are still at Hardwick, which by leave of Mr. Gery Milner-Gibson-Cullum I print elsewhere. Died s.p. Sept. 1720. Buried at Hawstead. In D. N. B.
343. CULLUM Thomas. Born at Hawstead April 1662. Second son of Sir Thomas Cullum. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Christ's June 1679. Did not graduate. Died Dec. 1700 aged 38. Tombstone in Hawstead church. "Dec. 22, Sunday. My good friend and old acquaintance Mr. Thomas Cullum died of a second apopletical fitt." (Diary of John Hervey.)
344. CULLUM John. Born at Hawstead June 1733. Eldest son of Sir John Cullum of Hardwick, fifth baronet. Adm. to Bury school June 1740.

Foreigner. In Jan. 1752 the Governors allowed him an exhibition of £12 a year for four years or till B.A. He was then at Catharine's Coll. B.A. 1756. Fellow. Rector of Hawstead 1762—85. Also vicar of Great Thurlow. Scholar, antiquarian, and man of science. Published a history of Hawstead. Succeeded his father as sixth baronet in 1774. Died s.p. Oct. 1785 aged 52. Buried at Hawstead. In D. N. B.

345. CULLUM Jasper. Born Oct. 1740 at Hardwick. Second son of Sir John Cullum, fifth baronet. Adm. to Bury school March 1752. Royalist. Died May 1756 aged 15 years, 7 months. Tablet in Hawstead church.

N.B.—This boy comes to school after his younger brother Thomas Gery, probably on account of delicate health. Both are Royalists, as their father had not yet succeeded to the baronetcy, and was living in Bury.

346. CULLUM Thomas Gery. Born Nov. 1741. Third son of Sir John Cullum, fifth baronet. Adm. to Bury school June 1750. Royalist. Afterwards at Charterhouse. Practiced as a surgeon at Bury. Chief alderman 1781, 1790, 1794. Bath king-at-arms 1771—1800. Botanist and antiquarian. Succeeded his brother as seventh baronet in 1785. Died Sept. 1831. Buried at Hawstead. In D. N. B.

347. CULLUM Henry. Born June 1746. Fourth son of Sir John Cullum, fifth baronet. Died at sea in 1773 on his way to the East Indies. I have no proof of his having been at the Grammar school, but as he was born at Bury, and as his four brothers all went to it, it is not unreasonable to suppose that he did too.

N.B.—The fifth son, Francis Jacob, born Aug. 1747, I do not include, as he died when only about 10 years old.

348. CULLUM James. Born Nov. 1754. Sixth and youngest son of Sir John Cullum, fifth baronet. At Bury under Garnham. Adm. to Christ's June 1773 aged 18. B.A. 1777. Rector of Nacton. Vicar of Great Thurlow. Died Sept. 1835. Buried at Chelsworth.

349. CULLUM Thomas Gery. Born at Bury Oct. 1777. Eldest surviving son of Sir Thomas Gery Cullum, seventh baronet, No. 346. Attended the Tercent. festival in 1850 as an old scholar. Pembroke Coll. B.A. 1799. Became a clergyman. Rector of Knoddishall 1801. Chaplain to the Duke of Sussex. Succeeded his father as eighth baronet in 1831. Died Jan. 1855, when the baronetcy became extinct. Buried at Hawstead.

350. CULLUM John Palmer. Born at Bury May 1783. Younger son of Sir Thomas Gery Cullum, No. 346. Succeeded his father as Bath king-at-arms 1800. Chief Alderman of Bury 1829. Died s.p. Aug. 1829 aged 47. Tombstone in Hawstead churchyard. I have no authority for including this boy, but he is very probable.

38. DAUBENEY Edmund Seymour. Son of Edmund Thomas Daubeney, rector of Market Weston, Suff. At Bury school April to Oct. 1885. Foreigner. Clare Coll. B.A. Now rector of Brancaster, Norf.

N.B.—He gave a book to the Bury school library in 1728. This is not proof positive that he had been at the school, but makes it probable, especially as he was brought up at Rougham, and we know that some of his brothers were there.

41. DAVERS Thomas. Born c. 1689. Third son of Sir Robert Davers, second baronet. Went into the navy. Became an admiral in 1744. Possessed Little Horringer hall. Sent out to Jamaica in command of a squadron, and died there Sept. 1746 or 1747 aged 57. A monument to him in St. Andrew's church there.

N.B.—My reason for including him among Bury scholars is the same as that for including his brother Robert.

42. DAVERS Henry. Born at Rougham Sept. 1695. Fifth son of Sir Robert Davers, second bart. He was one of several boys who died of small pox while at the Grammar school in 1711, as Dr. Randall's poem tells us. Died July 1711. Buried at Rushbrook.

In 1763 he was presented to the rectories of Stowlangtoft and Little Whelnetham. 48. DAVERS Thomas. Son of Admiral Thomas Davers of Little Horringer hall, No. 41. Adm. to Bury school July 1736. Foreigner. He built a fort on the Thames near Blackwall called Davers' Folly. He led an unhappy life and died by his own hand in 1767.

Buried in St. Barnabas church, Addison road, Kensington.

N.B.—At the time of his being at Bury school his father was dean of Chester. In 1814 he had married Marianne Mapletoft, whose family had been to Bury school long before. See MAPLETOFT. The dean of Chester became bishop of Peterborough in 1839, and died there in April 1864.

65. DAYJELL ——. This name is plainly written in the school list for 1822, second form. Foreigner. It might be a mis-reading of Dayrell, or a mis-hearing of Edgell.
66. DAYRELL ——.
67. DAYRELL ——. Dr. Randall mentions two brothers of this name in his time, 1707—15, or perhaps before his headmastership.

His father, Philip Deck, was postmaster, publisher and bookseller, at Bury. An old engraving shows the shop, now pulled down, abutting on and at right angles to the Norman Tower. Probably I should have many other Decks in my list, but there is no authority for including them.

N.B.—I have no actual proof that these are the two Desborough boys in the Bury school lists, but it is all but certain. The name is not a common one, and many boys were coming to Bury from that neighbourhood at this time.

96. D'EWES Simonds. Born at Chardstock, Dorset., Dec. 1602. Eldest son of Paul D'Ewes of Milden and Stowlangtoft, Suff. After having been at schools at Lavenham, at Wambrook and in London, he says "I mediated with my dear mother by my earnest letters to be removed to Bury school, where was a very able teacher, a wholesome air, and my father's house not much above five miles from it." At Bury 1616—18. Adm. to St. John's Coll. May 1618. A very industrious antiquarian and a Puritan. M.P. for Sudbury 1640—48. Made a baronet July 1641. Died April 1650 aged 48. Buried at Stowlangtoft. In D. N. B.

N.B.—His Autobiography was published in 1845. He tells us that in Dec. 1632 he hired part of a house in Bury, and was there till the end of June 1633. Much of his time was occupied in copying manuscripts in the registry of the Archdeaconry of Sudbury. The house was in St. Mary's parish and near St. Mary's church, which fixes it as either in Crown street or on Honey hill. If in Crown street, it might be the house belonging to the Batteleys (see BATTELEY), now St. Mary's Church Institute. If on Honey hill, it might have been Sir William Hervey's house, now foolishly called Manor house, which it isn't, wasn't, and never could be. He says, "Most happy we were during our continuance here in the weekly sermons and almost frequent converse of Mr. Edward Calamy, the preacher of that parish; and this indeed was one of the chief motives that drew us thither to partake of his painful and pious preaching." P. 82.

97. D'EWES Richard. Born at Stowlangtoft Oct. 1615. Younger son of Paul D'Ewes. At Bury school 1628—31. Then to St. Catherine's Coll. "My only brother, Richard D'Ewes, was now at school at Bury St. Edmunds with Mr. John Dickenson, an excellent and mild teacher, with whom I had myself gone to school in the years 1617 and 1618." Autobiog. In Dec. 1642 he was a Lieut.-Col. and quartered at Reading. I believe he was eventually killed at Reading in the course of the Civil War.
98. D'EWES Willoughby. Born c. 1650. Only surviving son of Sir Simonds D'Ewes, No. 96. Succeeded his father as second baronet very soon after he was born. Died June 1685 aged 34.

N.B.—Dr. Randall in his enumeration of old scholars mentions "Deworum proles fortissima," and describes him as a very warlike man, cutting for himself a way with his sword. I presume that this must mean Jermyn.
102. D'EWES Willoughby. Younger son of Sir Simonds D'Ewes, No. 99. A book was given to the school library in 1711 by Jermyn D'Ewes "cum fratre Willoughby D'Ewes Colleg. nuper Reginal. alumno." He was already dead, having died in 1710 aged 19.

122. DISTER John. He gave a book in 1573, and may or may not have been an old scholar. The only other instance of this name that I have met with is Mr. Dister who paid hearth tax for four hearths at Glemsford in 1674.

128. DOBITO ——. He is only in the school list for 1819.
- N.B.—In Wood Ditton churchyard is a tombstone with these names, the last of which would fit this boy :—

- William son of Jeffery Dobito died Nov. 1865 aged 59.
- In Kirtling churchyard lies George Dobito of Croyley Grove, Lidgate. Born Jan. 1812. Died Jan. 1871. The date would also fit him. But his name is among those who attended the Tercentenary festival without the asterisk that marks an old scholar.

Died Nov. 1889. Buried at Shrewsbury.
14. EDGEELL Alfred. Son of Captain Harry Edgell, Royal Fusileers. At Bury school 1881—89. Royalist. Was in the London and County Bank. Now living at Ryde, Isle of Wight.
15. EDMUNDS Edmund Bromwich. Born at Rugby Nov. 1849. Son of Edmund Edmunds, ironmonger. Adm. to Rugby Feb. 1863. At Bury school 1866—68. Sixth form. Foreigner. Adm. to John's Coll. May 1868. Did not graduate. Died at Cairo 1874.
16. EDWARDS ——. This boy is in the Bury school list for 1713. Foreigner. He might be John Progers Herbert Edwards, or a younger brother. Their father, John Edwards, married Mary, daughter of Edward Proger of West Stow. If the eldest, he succeeded his aunt Lady Fowke at West Stow in 1752, and was buried there in May 1758. See West Stow vol. of this series.
17. EDWARDS William. Son of William Edwards of Troston, gent. Four years at Bury under Kinsman. Adm. to Caius Coll. May 1725 aged 18. Rector of Finningham, Suff., 1730—89. Died there in 1789 aged 84.
18. EDWARDS Edward Freeman. Born 1818. Eldest son of Rev. John Edwards, headmaster. At Bury school 1828—37. Sixth form. Royalist. To Trin. Coll., but did not graduate. Became a major in the 71st Foot. Died in India May 1850.

N.B.—I am not sure whether he stayed as long as till 1837. It is almost impossible to disentangle the six boys of the same name.

19. EDWARDS Henry. Born 1819. Second son of Rev. J. Edwards, headmaster. It is very doubtful if this boy was ever at Bury school. He is believed to have been at school at Richmond, Yorks., and died there when about 17 years old.
20. EDWARDS John George. Born at Warboys, Hunts. Third and youngest son of Rev. J. Edwards, headmaster. At Bury school 1830—41. Several years in 6th form. Royalist. Adm. to Trin. Coll. May 1841 aged 19. B.A. 1845. Was vicar of Pittington near Durham. Died Oct. 1862. Buried at Pittington.

N.B.—The Rev. John Edwards, father of these three boys, had been second master of Richmond school, then assistant master at Harrow, and then in 1828 was appointed headmaster of Bury school. This he resigned in 1841 on being appointed to a Greek professorship and canonry at Durham. His father, Rev. Edward Edwards, had been headmaster of Huntingdon school.

21. EDWARDS Henry William Bartholomew. Eldest son of Rev. John Edwards of Hardingham hall, Norfolk. Adm. to Bury school 1830 or 1832. Foreigner. Trin. Coll. B.A. 1843. Now living at Hardingham hall.

N.B.—There appears to have been two Foreigners named Edwards admitted in 1830, and two more in 1832. Besides them there are the two Royalists, sons of the headmaster. It is impossible to disentangle them or say when they left. At least three got into sixth form.

22. EDWARDS Herbert. Second son of Rev. John Edwards of Hardingham hall. Adm. to Bury school 1830 or 1832. Foreigner. Emman. Coll. B.A. 1846. Afterwards went into the army.

27. ELDRED John. Son and heir of John Eldred of Knightsbridge, Midd. Succeeded to the Great Saxham estate in 1671. Died March 1724 aged 59. Buried at Great Saxham.

N.B.—In the dedication of a volume published in 1690 Dr. Leeds includes Eldred among the scholars whom Suffolk sent to Bury school. If that mean Eldred of Great Saxham, as it probably does, this must be the boy.

28. ELDRED John. Born Aug. 1691. Son of John Eldred of Great Saxham, No. 27. Succeeded his father in 1724. Died March 1746. Buried at Great Saxham.

N.B.—Dr. Randall enumerating in 1719 old scholars mentions Eldred, and says he does not know whether he is following the arms of Mars or of Pallas, but he is worthy of either camp. Neither Leeds nor Randall give christian names, but this must be the boy.

29. ELDRED John. Son of John Eldred of Bury St. Edmunds, peruke maker. Adm. to Bury school June 1743. Royalist.

30. ELLIOT William. Son of a poor minister. In March 1650 the Governors of Bury school allowed him £4 for one year for his maintenance at Cambridge. In April 1651 £5. More in March 1654 for the expences of his commencement. In Dec. 1655 appointed usher of Bury school. In June 1660 he resigned. I think he must be the William Elliot who was rector of West Stow 1660—62, and of Fornham All Saints 1663—1705. Died Oct. 1705 aged 72. Tombstone in Fornham All Saints churchyard.

31. ELLIOT or ELYOTT Edmund. Born in London. Son of Thomas Elliot of London, medicus. Adm. to Bury school 1732. Foreigner. Adm. to John's July 1741 aged 17. B.A. 1744. In 1748 he was curate of Newmarket.

35. ELLIOT Richard Cowper. Son of George Elliot of Bury St. Edmunds. Adm. to Bury school Sept. 1746. Royalist. Died June 1779. Tombstone in Bury churchyard.

N.B.—George Elliot, the father of these four boys, died Feb. 1750 aged 48, and has a tombstone in Bury churchyard.

36. ELLIS John. Eldest son of Thomas Ellis of Cotton, Suffolk, gent. Four years at Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Caius Coll. April 1692 aged 17. Died Aug. 1696 aged 22. Buried at St. James', Bury St. Edmunds. Apparently from his tombstone his father was a medical man, and he was a medical student.

37. ELLIS ——. Son of Dr. Ellis. At Bury school 1859—60. Foreigner.

38. ELVEN William. Son of Cornelius Elven of Bury St. Edmunds, tanner. In Bury school lists 1819—22. Royalist. Died June 1824 aged 15. Tombstone in Bury churchyard.

N.B.—As the school list gives no christian name I cannot prove this identification, but it is highly probable. An elder brother, Cornelius, was fifty years pastor of the Baptist church in Bury, died Aug. 1873 aged 76, and lies in the cemetery. If at the school, he would have left it before the regular lists begin. Cornelius, the father, died Jan. 1834 aged 63, and has a stone in Bury churchyard.

39. ENOX ——. In Bury school lists for 1822. Fourth form. Foreigner.

40. ENSOR Thomas. Son of Thomas Ensor. In Bury school list for 1825. Sixth form. Foreigner. Went to America. Buried at Long Melford.

N.B.—Thomas Ensor, father of this boy, died Nov. 1862 aged 80, and has a tombstone in Bildeston churchyard.

41. ERITH Lionel Edward Patrick. Son of William Edward Erith of Beyton, schoolmaster. At Bury school 1898—1904. County Council scholar. Jesus Coll. B.A. First class Theol. Trip.

42. ERRINGTON Henry Joshua. Fifth and youngest son of George Henry Errington, at one time of Westerfield, Suffolk, at this time (1830) of The Casina, Colchester. At Bury school 1830—34. Foreigner. Matric. at Oxford, Worcester Coll., May 1838 aged 22. Did not graduate. Died at Yatton, Som., Nov. 1899. Buried at Congresbury. Family papers include a letter from the Bury master saying that he had gone off they knew not where, and asking whether he had gone home.

43. ETHERIDGE Robert. Elected to Hewer exhibition Jan. 1765, being then at Benet Coll. B.A. 1768. Rector of Clenchwarton, Norfolk, Dec. 1768—1804, and of North Wootton 1780—1804.
44. ETHERIDGE ——. At Bury school 1832—34. Foreigner.
45. ETHERIDGE John Hebgin. Bapt. March 1832. Son of John Drosier Etheridge of Stoke Ferry, Norfolk, wine merchant. At Bury St. Edmunds and Rossall. Adm. to Caius Coll. March 1851. Vicar of St. Mary's, Gorleston. Died Oct. 1882.

N.B.—I doubt whether this is a Grammar school boy, as I do not see the name in the school lists. He may have been at Lockwood's or elsewhere in Bury.

46. ETOUGH Daniel Oliver. Second son of Richard Etough, rector of Croxton, co. Leic., and Claydon, Suffolk, D.D. At Bury school 1832—35. Foreigner. Matric. at Oxford, Lincoln Coll., May 1838 aged 19. Did not graduate, but is in the clergy list from 1844 till 1867, generally without cure.

N.B.—There being no christian name in the school list I cannot be sure that I have rightly identified this boy. It might be a brother.

47. EUSTACE John Thomas. Born March 1825. Second son by second wife of Sir William Cornwallis Eustace, Col. of 60th Rifles, Lieut.-General, C.B., Knight of Hanover. At Bury school 1833—35. Foreigner. Ensign in 60th Rifles; exchanged into the Buffs (3rd Reg.); left the army, and during the Crimean war was Colonel of a regiment of Bashi Bazouks. About 1857 went to Cape Colony, was for several years M.P. for Capetown and took a prominent part in public affairs. Was a civil commissioner for Namaqualand and Mossel Bay. Now living at Mossel Bay, Cape Colony.

EYRE. See AYRE.

1. FAIRCLOUGH John. Son of Samuel Fairclough, minister of Kedington. One year at Bury under Mr. Leigh ; two years at Dedham. Adm. to Caius Coll. May 1651 aged 17. B.A. 1655. M.D. 1661. Dr. Venn says he practised as a physician in London. I should have thought that he was rector of Kennet, father of Nos. 2 and 3, but I have not gone into the matter and so will not dispute it.

N.B.—Samuel Fairclough, the father of this boy, was a nonconforming divine, and was rector of Kedington 1629—62, when he refused to take the oath and went out. He died at Stowmarket Dec. 1677 aged 84. In D. N. B.

4. FAIRCLOUGH —. This is one of two Faircloughs (written Faircloth) in the Bury school list for 1713. Foreigner. I presume a son of Richard, rector of Kennet, No. 2. Perhaps William of Clare Coll., B.A. 1719.
 5. FAIRCLOUGH John. Son of Richard Fairclough of Kennet, No. 2. This must be the other of the two Faircloughs in the Bury school list for 1713, as is proved by the Trin. Coll. admission book. Adm. to Trin. Coll. March 1717 aged 17. B.A. 1720.
 6. FAIRCLOUGH Samuel. Baptized at Lidgate July 1707. Son of Samuel Fairclough, rector of Lidgate, No. 3. Seven years at Bury under Kinsman. Adm. to Caius Coll. Feb. 1727 aged 18. Succeeded his father as rector of Little Bradley, Suff., in 1740.

He travelled in Spain during the Carlist war 1835—1837. In 1838 he published his reminiscences of it, defending De Lacy Evans and the British legion.
 12. FAULKNER Henry. Elder son of Rev. Henry Buckberry Faulkner of Long Melford. In Bury school list for 1833 only. Very low down. Foreigner. In 1840 he was in the royal navy. Retired early. Died aged about 40.

13. FAULKNER George Edward. Second son of Rev. Henry Buckberry Faulkner. At Bury school 1842—45. Sixth form. Foreigner. Matric. at Oxford, Brasenose Coll., May 1845 aged 17. Was curate at Hartest to Rev. Charles Borton. Died aged about 45.

N.B.—The father of these two boys, who was unbeneficed, died at Long Melford July 1873 aged 77.

14. FAWCETT ——. At Bury school in 1827—28. Foreigner.

18. FENTON ——. In Bury school lists 1818—22. Two years in sixth form. Foreigner. In 1822 becomes Royalist.

19. FENTON ——. At Bury school 1835—37. Royalist.

N.B.—Possibly this boy and the next were sons of William Fenton, Southgate street, maltster and corn merchant, who is in the Bury directories and poll books 1832—63.

20. FENTON ——. At Bury school 1847—48. Royalist.
21. FENWICK Cuthbert. Born at Stamfordham. Son of Ralph Fenwick. Was at Morpeth school. Adm. to Christ's Coll. April 1687. Fellow. Rector of Morpeth 1691—1745. Died 1745. This is a doubtful Bury boy. I include him because he gave a book to the school library in 1694. He is described in the catalogue as "rector ecclesiæ Corsdopitensis," that is Corbridge.
22. FERGUSON John Hutcheson. Son of J. H. Fergusson of Trochraigue, Ayrshire. At Bury school 1826—30. Five years in 6th form. Captain two years. Foreigner. Adm. to Trin. Coll. May 1831. B.A. 1835. The Trin. Coll. admission book gives no information as to his school or parentage.
23. FERGUSON Jacob William. Born at Edinburgh. Son of J. H. Fergusson of Trochraigue. Six years at Bury 1826—32, three years at Harrow. Adm.

to Caius Coll. Nov. 1835 aged 19. Called to the bar 1846. Writer in periodicals. Died at Richmond, Surrey, June 1867.

24. FERGUSSON James. At Bury school 1831—35. Sixth form. Foreigner. I presume this is a brother of Nos. 22 and 23.

N.B.—The school careers of Nos. 22 and 23 are remarkable. No. 22 came and went straight into sixth form, and there being no higher form he remained there five years. No. 23 started in third form, caught his brother up who could not move higher, and they were both in sixth form together. After three years in sixth form he went for another three years to Harrow. No. 24 was apparently the dunce of the family, as he was only in sixth form one year.

25. FERNANDEZ Philip Hosken. Born at Madras 1854. Eldest son of Thomas Francis Fernandez M.D. At Bury school 1861—62. Boarder. At Winchester Coll. 1865—72. Matric. at Oxford, Trin. Coll., Oct. 1873 aged 19. B.A. 1877. Assistant master at Uppingham 1882. Now an assistant master at the Cathedral school, Hereford.

26. FIELDING William. Dr. Leeds enumerating his old pupils in a volume published in 1690 includes "Fielding from Suffolk." This may mean one boy or more, and it must mean the son or sons of George Fielding of Euston, second son of William Fielding, Earl of Denbigh. This George was created Earl of Desmond and died 1665 aged 48, being buried at Euston. As all his five sons probably came to Bury school I will enumerate them, though I can only be sure of John, the youngest.

The eldest was William, born before 1640, and therefore not under Leeds. Succeeded his father as second earl of Desmond, and his uncle as third earl of Denbigh. Died Aug. 1685.

27. FIELDING George. Born c. 1642. Second son of George Fielding. Married Elizabeth, daughter of Sir John Lee of Bury St. Edmunds (see LEE), and is himself described as "of Bury St. Edmunds." His wife died Oct. 1700 aged 55, and has a tombstone in Bury churchyard.
28. FIELDING Charles. Born c. 1645. Third son of George Fielding. Was a colonel in the King's Guards. Died at Dublin April 1722.
29. FIELDING Basil. Fourth son of George Fielding.

30. FIELDING John. Born c. 1650. Fifth and youngest son of George Fielding. Became a canon of Salisbury, and chaplain to William III. Died 1697. Buried at Salisbury.

N.B.—Dr. Randall makes it tolerably certain that this John Fielding was at Bury school, when he sings :—

Hic teneris annis studuit Denbeia proles,
Res sacra quem notum fecerat, alta domus.

Salisbury spire must be the alta domus. I can find no other Fielding whom sacred things made famous.

Henry Fielding the novelist was grandson of this canon of Salisbury.

31. FIELDING William. Born c. 1665. Younger son of William, third Earl of Denbigh, No. 26. In 1715 appointed a clerk comptroller of the green cloth. Married Lady Diana Newport, widow of Thomas Howard of Ashted, Surrey. Died Sept. 1723.

N.B.—Dr. Randall devotes sixteen lines to him and his wife. The allusions to her name Diana and to Ashted make it certain that he refers to this William when he sings :—

Inclyte tuque minor fratrum Wilhelme, beatum
Quem populi reddit gratia, regis amor.

I do not include his elder brother Basil, who died in 1717, because Dr. Randall, writing in 1719, brings him in only to say that he went to Eton :—

Heu ! comes exstinctus juvenilia tempora duxit
Vestro olim (memini), dulcis Etona, sinu.

But of course it is possible that he came to Bury first.

32. FILBY ——. At Bury school 1834—35. Royalist. There appear to have been two widow ladies of this name residing in Bury at about this time.
33. FINCH ——. At Bury school 1820—22. Foreigner.
34. FIRMIN Thomas. Bapt. at Hawkedon July 1660. Younger son of Rev. John Firmin, rector of Stanstead. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Christ's June 1679 aged 18. B.A. 1682. Rector of Sudbourn and Orford.

36. FIRMINGER Walter Kelly. Son of Rev. Thomas A. C. Firminger of Edmonton. At Bury school 1882—86. Foreigner. B.A. Oxford. Now a chaplain in Bengal.
37. FIRTH William Wilkinson Dibb. Son of — Firth of Bury St. Edmunds, scripture reader. At Bury school 1865—75. Royalist. Captain of the school. St. John's Coll. B.A. 1879. Now vicar of Christchurch, Patricoft, Manchester.
38. FISCHER Eugene. Son of J. Fischer of London, theatrical agent. At Bury school 1898—1900. Came from Westminster school.
39. FISHER —. In his list of old scholars Dr. Randall mentions Fisher, a lawyer (consultor legum), who deserves a place with the highest. I don't know whether this is Samuel Fisher who died June 1727 aged 79, or Samuel Fisher who died Oct. 1738 aged 57, or William Fisher of London, who is in the Suffolk poll book for 1727 under Bury.
40. FISHER —. He is in the Bury school list for 1713. Royalist.
41. FISHER William. Son of Mrs. Fisher of St. Mary's, Bury St. Edmunds. Adm. to Bury school July 1742. Royalist.
 N.B.—Samuel Fisher of Bury St. Edmunds died Oct. 1738 aged 57. His widow lived on in St. Mary's parish and died May 1766 aged 66. Of three daughters Ann died 1742 aged 16, Mary died 1741 aged 14, Elizabeth, sole heiress, married Thomas De Grey (see DE GREY). If William was their brother, he must have died before her marriage in 1746. But he may have been a son of the unknown Fisher of 1713.
42. FISHER William. Of Norfolk. At Bury St. Edmunds under Becher. Adm. to St. John's Coll. May 1805. Did not graduate.
43. FISHER —. In Bury school lists 1828—33. Foreigner.
 N.B.—This boy or No. 44 must be the Mr. R. Fisher who was among the old scholars unable to attend the festival in 1850.
44. FISHER —. In Bury school lists 1828—33. Royalist.
45. FISHER Charles John. Eldest son of Rev. Charles Fisher, rector of Ovington cum Tilbury. At Bury school 1833—37. Foreigner. Jesus Coll. B.A. 1841. Rector of Ovington cum Tilbury, Essex, 1843—98. Died March 1898 aged 80. He was among the old scholars unable to attend the festival in 1850.

46. FISHER Thomas Field. Born in Cambridge 1850. Son of Thomas Hall Fisher of Cambridge, banker, by second wife. At Bury school 1862—67. Boarder. Adm. to Caius Coll. Oct. 1869. Manager of the White Horse brewery, Hammersmith. Father and director of the Field-Fisher quartette troupe in 1898. Died in London 1906.
47. FISKE William. Bapt. at Rattlesden Sept. 1638. Eldest son of John Fiske of Clopton hall, armiger. He is in the Bury school list for 1656. Died at Stiffkey, Norfolk, Jan. 1670 aged 32. Tombstone in Stiffkey church.
48. FISKE James. Fifth son of John Fiske of Clopton hall. He gave a book to the Bury school library in 1673. Corpus Coll. B.A. 1672. Rector of Whepstead, Suffolk, for 33 years, 1678—1711. Buried there Sept. 1711.
N.B.—John Fiske, father of these two boys, was Lieut.-Col. of the Suffolk auxiliaries under Fairfax at the siege of Colchester. Clopton hall had been bought by William Fiske, his father.
49. FISKE Thomas. Born at Hinderclay. Son of Zachary Fiske. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to John's March 1687 aged 16. B.A. 1690.
N.B.—The father of this boy must be the Zachariah son of Robert of Norton, who is mentioned at p. 94 of the Fiske Papers. At p. 132, 172, this boy is (I think wrongly) identified with the rector of Shimpling Thorne, who was the son of Zachariah, rector of Cockfield. He will not quite fit him, being seven years older.
50. FISKE Robert. Son of Robert Fiske of Norton, Suffolk, grazier. Eight years at Bury under Kinsman. Adm. to Caius Coll. April 1731 aged 17. Seventeenth wrangler. Vicar of Wendens Ambo, Essex, for 42 years, 1741—1783. Died July 1783 aged 69. Buried at Wendens.

N.B.—His father, grandfather, great grandfather, and great great grandfather were all rectors of Shimpling in Suffolk.

53. FISKE Charles Neville. Born Oct. 1811. Third son of Rev. Thomas Fiske, rector of Shimpling. At Bury school 1820—22. Foreigner. Went into the army. Died Nov. 1856.

N.B.—I cannot prove this identification, but it is most probable.

54. FISKE Richard Zachariah. Born June 1816. Fourth son of Rev. Thomas Fiske, rector of Shimpling. At Bury school 1825—30. Sixth form. Foreigner. Lived at Boulogne. Died Jan. 1894.

N.B.—The identification of No. 52 can be proved. Nos. 53 and 54 appear to be his brothers, but I cannot prove it. Thomas, second son, born Feb. 1808, went into the navy and died June 1849. As only three of the four seem to be in the school lists I left him out, as being the least likely to have come. The history of the numerous Fiske family has been written with great fulness by Mr. Henry Fiske.

55. FISKE Robert. Born March 1818. Only son of Rev. Robert Fiske, rector of Elmdon, Essex. At Bury school under Edwards 1828—36. Three years in 6th form. Foreigner. 58. FITCH Thomas William. Born at Drinkstone Aug. 1849. Eldest son of Thomas Elsegood Fitch of Drinkstone, afterwards of Newton by Sudbury. At Bury school 1864—66. Sixth form. Boarder. Corpus Coll. N.B.—In the school lists for 1817—19 there are three Fitzroys, apparently brothers. I can only identify with certainty No. 69. As there were five brothers I enter them all, not knowing which two to leave out. Only three may have come to Bury school, or two more may have been in the lists for 1815, 1816, which do not exist. The father was Lieut.-Gen. Fitzroy, sixth son of first Lord Southampton; born Dec. 1773; died May 1837. The boys home was at Kempston near Swaffham.

70. FITZTHOMAS ma. In Bury school list for 1817. Foreigner.

N.B.—My only reason for including him is that he gave a book to the school library in 1721. He was succeeded at Groton by Edward Flasby, who died Oct. 1742, and was buried at Groton. The two rectors were probably cousins, Edward being a son of Francis.

74. FLASBY Joseph. Born at Groton, Suffolk. Only son of Rev. John Flasby, rector of Groton, No. 73. At Bury St. Edmund's school. Adm. to John's March 1727 aged 17. B.A. 1730. Adm. to Middle Temple Jan. 1731. Died June 1731. Buried at Groton.

78. FLEMING David. Trin. Coll. B.A. 1706. Fellow. He gave a book to the school library in 1745, being described in Dr. Leeds' library catalogue as rector of Bixley, Norfolk. This is my only authority for including him. He was also rector of Framlingham-Earl. Died 1747.
79. FLETCHER William. Born at Tharston, Norf. Eldest son of Thomas Fletcher. Four years at Bury under Dickinson. Adm. to Christ's Coll. April 1638 aged 16.

82. FLETCHER Anthony. Ninth and youngest son of Thomas Fletcher of Bury St. Edmunds, serjeant at law. He is in the Bury school list for 1656.
- N.B.—Blomfield gives the inscription on a monument in Croxton church to Thomas Fletcher, one of the Readers of Lincoln's Inn, who married Frances Wood of Tharston, and had 9 sons and 7 daughters. The sons were William, Thomas, Bartholomew, Robert, John, Charles, Thomas, Henry, Anthony. He died Feb. 1656. Of these sons we have here the eldest, third, fifth and ninth. Probably they all came.
83. FLOWER John Henry. Born in Australia 1850. Son of — Flower. (See Additions.) At Bury school 1865—68. Boarder. Articled to Messrs. Taylor, solicitors at Norwich, 1869—74. Returned to Australia 1875. Now a solicitor at Brisbane.

N.B.—Son of Thomas Foley by the third of his five wives.

86. FOLKES Martin. Born at Rushbrooke Aug. 1640. Eldest son of Martin Folkes of Rushbrooke, steward of the Rushbrooke estate. He is in the Bury school list for 1656. A barrister of Gray's Inn. Attorney General to Queen Catherine of Braganza. Married Dorothy Hovell of Hillington, and was the father of Sir Martin Folkes the antiquary. Died Feb. 1706.
87. FOLKES Edward. Bapt. at Rushbrooke Jan. 1642. Second son of Martin Folkes. He is in the Bury school list for 1656. Buried at Rushbrooke Feb. 1690.
88. FOLKES Simon. Born at Rushbrooke April 1652. Third son of Martin Folkes. There is no list for his time, but it is highly probable that he went to Bury school. I think he went out to the Barbadoes.
89. FOLKES Thomas. Bapt. at Rushbrooke May 1654. Fourth son of Martin Folkes. There is no school list for his time, but as two of his brothers certainly went, and as he was living just outside Bury, and as later on he gave a book to the school library, he may be considered a certainty. Became a lawyer in Bury. In or about 1704 he bought an estate in Great Barton. There he died and was buried Dec. 1730. His only surviving child, Elizabeth, was the second wife of Sir Thomas Hanmer, speaker of the House of Commons, and carried Great Barton with her.
 N.B.—I presume that Thomas Folkes is the Folkesius to whom Dr. Randall devotes six complimentary lines.
90. FORBES Thomas. Son of Thomas Forbes of Antigua. Adm. to Bury school April 1746. Foreigner.
91. FORBES Alister Gordon. At Bury school 1887—89. Foreigner. Selwyn Coll., Camb. Ordained priest 1895. Now at Pietersburg, Transvaal.

N.B.—In the Bury admission book he and his father are called Punter; in the Cambridge books it is Pulter, which is probably right.

96. FORESTER Richard. Son of Punter Forester of Bradfield, Herts. Adm. to Bury school June 1735. Foreigner. Pembroke Coll. B.A. 1747. Fellow.
97. FORTE Nathaniel. Born at Tenby Aug. 1841. Son of Nathaniel Forte. At Bury school 1853—57. Foreigner. Was a captain in 9th and 52nd Light Infantry and Norfolk Militia. Now living at Clifton, Bristol.

105. FOWKE Henry Villiers. Eldest son of Captain George Fowke R.N. of Sible Hedingham. Died Feb. 1810 aged 11. Buried in the churchyard at Bury.

N.B.—I cannot say for certain that this was a Grammar school boy, but it is extremely probable. His father, afterwards Admiral, died April 1832 aged 64; buried at Sible Hedingham, where also lie two brothers of this boy.

106. FOX Daniel. Son of Thomas Fox of Bury St. Edmunds, “vespillionis.” He is in the Bury school list for 1656.

N.B.—Vespilio seems to mean a night watchman. Apparently Thomas Fox was also parish clerk at St. Mary’s. In Jan. 1659 the Guildhall Feoffees ordered that Thomas Fox and Richard Haddock, parish clerks, are approved to be parish clerks and to have forty shillings a year a piece. (Tymms.)

107. FOX Samuel. Son of Thomas Fox of Bury, “vespillionis.” In the Bury school list for 1656. I suppose he is the Samuel Fox who is occupying a house in Bury in 1674. It has only one hearth, and he has a certificate of poverty which exempts him from paying the tax on it.

108. FOYSTER Herbert John. Son of Rev. Henry Brereton Foyster, rector of St. Clement’s, Hastings. At Bury school 1885—89. Foreigner. Now, since 1900, vicar of Briningham, Norfolk.

110. FRANCIS Hugh Albert. Born Feb. 1867. Second son of John Francis of Badwell Ash. At Bury school 1879—85. Foreigner. Now headmaster of Dorchester Grammar school.

N.B.—Mr. John Francis, father of these two boys, now living at Bury, played cricket for the county of Suffolk from 1855 to 1885.

111. FRANCKLIN ——. In Bury school lists 1825—26. Foreigner.

N.B.—George Fairfax Francklin, second son of Rev. Fairfax Francklin, rector of Attleborough, was born June 1813, died July 1871. Frederick Fairfax Francklin, third son, was born Sept. 1817, died Jan. 1864. They have tombstones in Attleborough churchyard, and will fit this boy and the next one respectively, which is all I can say.

112. FRANCKLYN ——. In Bury school lists 1828—31. Foreigner.
N.B.—This boy's name is always spelt differently to that of No. 111, which may be an accident or which may show that he was of a different family. In and about 1832 Henry Francklyn was occupying St. Edmunds Hill otherwise The Mount, whose son this boy may be.
113. FREEMAN Robert. He is in the undated school list (c. 1650) as a foundation scholar, i.e. Royalist.

N.B.—Some difficulty was found in giving a christian name to this boy. But after with help from the family it had been decided that it must be Edward, a book was found given by Edward in 1835, which confirmed us.

124. FRERE Henry Temple. Born Nov. 1821. Third son of Temple Frere, No. 121. At Bury school 1830—38. Sixth form. Foreigner. Corpus Christi Coll. B.A. 1845. Rector of Burston, Norfolk, 1854. Died there Nov. 1890. Buried at Roydon.

- N.B.—There must have been more of this generation who came to the school, as Dr. Randall speaks of them in the plural.

129. FRESTON Richard. Son of William Freston deceased, of Mendham. Adm. to Bury school June 1740. Foreigner.

N.B.—William Freston, father of these four boys, and probably a Grammar school boy himself, died Oct. 1739 aged 51. His son Coke, No. 126, in 1746 put up a monument to him in Mendham church.

130. FREWER William. Born Aug. 1812. Son of William Frewer of Bury St. Edmunds, plumber. At Bury school 1821—25. Royalist. Carried on his father's business in Bury. Died Sept. 1883. Buried in the cemetery at Bury.

N.B.—I strongly suspect that this boy is a son of No. 131, and that Thornham in the Caius book is a mistake for Fornham.

133. FROST John. Born at Langham. Son of John Frost, rector of Fakenham, Suffolk. One year at Bury under Stevens. Adm. to John's Feb. 1642 aged 16.

134. FROST Thomas. Born at Langham. Son of John Frost, rector of Fakenham. Three years at Bury under Stevens. Adm. to Caius Coll. April 1643 aged 15. Adm. to John's July 1643 aged 16. The Caius book gives him three years at Bury, the John's book only two.

135. FROST James. Son of John Frost, rector of Fakenham. He is in the undated school list (c. 1650) as Foreigner. Five years at Bury under Stevens. Adm. to John's Nov. 1652 aged 15. M.A. 1660. Rector of Langham.

136. FROST Thomas. Born at Cowledge (Coolinge), Suffolk. Son of Thomas Frost. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Christ's Coll. April 1670 aged 18. B.A. 1673.

N.B.—Thomas, father of this boy, may be the boy No. 134. I am not sure whether he is the Thomas LL.D. who is father of No. 137. That Thomas was LL.D. 1665 from Trin. Hall. They may be the same.

137. FROST John. Of Tacolneston, Norfolk. Son of Thomas Frost LL.D. Bred at Bury. Adm. to John's Sept. 1671 aged 15.

N.B.—In his list of eminent Burians Dr. Donaldson has included Lionel Gatford, the father. But I think he confused him with his son, so I do not include him. He was a native of Sussex; Jesus Coll; vicar of St. Clement, Cambridge, 1631; Rector of Dennington, Suffolk, 1637; a good deal knocked about in Cromwell's time; and died of the plague in 1665.

Adm. to St. Cath. Coll., but did not graduate. Was some years in Australia. Returned to England. Died at Layer Breton, Essex, Nov. 1904.

62. GIPPS Richard. Bapt. at Horringer June 1646. Eldest son of Richard Gipps of Little Horringer hall. Knighted in 1676 when Charles II came to Little Saxham. Married in Westminster Abbey Nov. 1676 to Elizabeth Poley of Badley. Succeeded his father at Horringer Feb. 1664. Died Sept. 1681. Buried at Horringer.

N.B.—Only a high probability.

63. GIPPS John. Bapt. at Horringer Aug. 1647. Second son of Richard Gipps.

N.B.—He is only a high probability.

64. GIPPS Thomas. Bapt. at Horringer March 1650. Third son of Richard Gipps. At Bury under Stephens and Leeds. Adm. to Christ's Coll. June 1667 aged 16. Did not graduate.

65. GIPPS George. Bapt. at Horringer June 1652. Fourth son of Richard Gipps. Buried at Horringer March 1682.

N.B.—Of the four sons of Richard Gipps of Horringer, only one in the absence of school lists could be a certainty, and he is a certainty, because he went to Christ's Coll. which said what school he had come from. That makes it almost certain that the other three are certainties too, brought up as they were within a rifle shot of Bury. I have therefore included them.

66. GIPPS Sulyard. Bapt. at Horringer March 1660. Son of Valentine Gipps. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Christ's April 1677 aged 17. Did not graduate. Buried at Horringer June 1680.

67. GIPPS Richard. Bapt. at Horringer Dec. 1677. Only son of Sir Richard Gipps, No. 62. Inherited Badley from his mother. Went into the army and became a major. "A brave officer, but was basely discharged upon party pique." So says Sir Richard Gipps of Welnetham, No. 68, who I do not think was related to him. Went to live at Badley, and probably died there.

This boy would have been only a high probability but for Dr. Randall, who has converted him into a certainty. He makes two allusions to him. In the one he couples him with Crofts, cognatus uterque, and devotes twelve lines to them, saying there was no strife between them except as to which should excell in virtue. In the other passage he speaks of him as one who when a boy had delighted in battles and trumpets; and who had returned safe "ab extremis Gadibus" when the French fleet fell a prey to the English. This must refer to the expedition against Cadiz under Admiral Rooke and the Duke of Ormond in 1702, when the French and Spanish fleet coming from the West Indies was destroyed, and treasure to the value of about £1,000,000 taken.—Having finished the Gipps' of Horringer I now go to the Gipps' of Whelnetham, neighbours, contemporaries, and alike having Richard for their head name, but I believe not akin. The two Sir Richards, No. 62 and No. 68, must not be confounded.

68. GIPPS Richard. Bapt. at Great Whelnetham Sept. 1659. Eldest son of John Gipps. Seven years at Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Caius Coll Sept. 1675 aged 16. Gray's Inn 1676. Knighted 1682. Author of a manuscript work in the British Museum on Suffolk families, which was printed by the Suff. Arch. Inst. in Vol. VIII. of their Proceedings. Died Dec. 1708. Buried at Great Whelnetham. In D. N. B.
69. GIPPS John. Bapt. at Great Whelnetham Nov. 1662. Second son of John Gipps. Four years at Bury under Walker, three years at the public school there under Leeds. Adm. to Caius Coll. July 1676 aged 14. LL.B. 1682. Fellow. Rector of Brockley 1686—90. A Nonjuror. As he refused to take the oath of allegiance to King William III he had to go; but whither he went and when he died I have not found out.
70. GIPPS Richard. Bapt. at Great Whelnetham Aug. 1692. Eldest son of Sir Richard Gipps, No. 68. He is only a high probability.
71. GIPPS John Giles. Baptized at Great Whelnetham Oct. 1693. Second son of Sir Richard Gipps, No. 68. Four years at Bury under Reynolds and Randall. Adm. to Caius Coll. Dec. 1711 aged 18. Rector of Brockley 1726—34; Chevington 1727—34. Died 1734.
72. GIRDLESTONE Charles Stuart. Only son of Thomas Girdlestone, M.D. Nine years at Yarmouth school, three at Bury under Malkin. Adm. to Caius Coll. April 1816 aged 17. Ornithologist and fisherman. Died 1831 aged 33.
N.B.—Thomas Girdlestone, father of this boy, was an army doctor, who afterwards practised at Yarmouth for nearly forty years. He wrote a book to prove that Gen. Charles Lee was Junius. It contains a caricature portrait of Lee from a drawing by Barham Rushbrooke. Both Lee and Rushbrooke were Bury school boys.
73. GIRLING Nicholas. Born at Bury St. Edmunds. Son of Nicholas Girling. At school there under Leeds. Adm. to Christ's Feb. 1694 aged 17. Did not graduate.
74. GIRLING William. Born Nov. 1825. Only son of Rev. William Girling, rector of Scarning. At Bury school 1836—43. Foreigner. Adm. to Trin. Coll. June 1843. B.A. 1848. Died Nov. 1859. Buried at Scarning.

75. GIRLING Walter. Son of Barry Girling of East Dereham. One year at Bury under Donaldson 1845—46. Sixth form. Adm. to Caius Coll. May 1847. Rector of Little Bittering, Norfolk, 1879—1904. Died 1904.
76. GIRTON ——. Son of William Girton of Bury St. Edmunds, attorney's clerk. At Bury school 1847—48. Royalist.
77. GITTUS Edward George. Son of Frederick Gittus of West Row, Mildenhall, farmer. At Bury school 1894—96. Now farming at home.
78. GLASCOCK ——. Dr. Leeds in 1690 mentions Glascock among his pupils from Suffolk. By Suffolk he seems to mean eastern counties, and this boy may have come from Essex.
79. GLEMHAM ——. Dr. Leeds includes this name among Bury boys of his time from Suffolk. He does not say how many or which. Between 1663 and 1690 would be their date at school. Probably the father of No. 80 would be one, viz., Thomas, eldest son of Sir Sackville Glemham. He was M.P. for Orford 1680—95. Died at Glemham 1704. He had brothers, but they are too uncertain to be included.
80. GLEMHAM Thomas. Born near Ipswich. Only son of Thomas Glemham of Little Glemham, No. 79. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Christ's Feb. 1704 aged 17. Did not graduate. Became a captain of Dragoons. Died in 1711 at Valladolid. Dr. Randall couples him with Vincent, and devotes sixteen unilluminating lines to them. I gather that he was killed in battle.
81. GLOVER John. In May 1624 the Governors agreed that John Glover, now a scholar of this school, should have his yearly allowance of £3 increased to one of £6 to provide for his maintenance at Cambridge until he shall be better able to provide for himself. He is also to have twenty shillings towards a gown.
82. GOAT Edward. Son of Edward Goat of Botesdale, attorney. Five years at Bury. Adm. to Caius Coll. Dec. 1683. Did not graduate. Middle Temple Dec. 1686.
83. GOAT Edward. Son of Edward Goat late of Brent Ely, Suffolk. Adm. to Bury school Jan. 1748. Foreigner. Went into the army. Col. of West Suffolk Militia. Died at Ipswich May 1803 aged 63.

N.B.—His mother was sister of Thomas Barnardiston, No. 45. She died Feb. 1804 aged 95. A portrait at Brent Eleigh, supposed to be of this boy, is reproduced in Farrer's Suffolk Portraits. It would have been taken at about the time when he came to Bury school.

84. GODDARD Thomas. Son of Thomas Goddard of Bury St. Edmunds. Adm. to Bury school Aug. 1736. Royalist.

N.B.—A tombstone in Bury churchyard records the death of Thomas Goddard in Sept. 1791 aged 102. This must be the boy's father.

85. GODDARD Bertram Edward. Son of John Goddard of Longton hall, Staffs. At Bury school 1882—88. Foreigner.

86. GODDARD Percy Alfred. Third son of Ambrose Goddard of Wells, Norfolk, afterwards of Dereham. At Bury school 1894—95. Now in the South African Constabulary at Krugersdorp.

6. HADDOCK Roland. Sixth and youngest son of John Haddock of Bury. Went to school first at Beyton, then in 1839 to Christ's Hospital at Hertford, then to Newgate street. Left it in 1846 aged 15, having only gone home for holydays once a year. Then at Bury Grammar school 1847—48. Royalist. In business at Ipswich and Bishop Stortford 1848—56. With Messrs. Foster, fine art auctioneers of Pall Mall, 1856—66. Partner in Blake & Haddock of Croydon, auctioneers, 1866—96. Now retired and living at Hitchin.

N.B.—The hearth tax return for 1674 shows several Haddocks then living in Bury under various forms of spelling, Headach, Heducke etc. The space of time between them and these five boys is bridged over by Amy Haddock, who died June 1825 aged 95, and has a tombstone in Bury churchyard. With one end of her career she touches the hearth tax payers; with the other end of it she touches these five boys, two of whom are still living. So Charles II and Edward VII are brought together.

7. HADDOCK George John. Born at Bury St. Edmunds Nov. 1842. Only son of John Haddock, No. 2. At Bury school 1852—57. Royalist. Was a chemist at Brighton. Died Sept. 1879. Buried at Brighton.

Vicar of Parham and Hacheston. Preacher at St. James', Bury St. Edmunds, 1818—45. Died March 1847 aged 56. Buried at St. James', Bury.

17. HAGGITT Arthur. Third son of Rev. George John Haggitt, No. 13. At Bury school 1843—48. Sixth form. Royalist. Student at the Bar. Died Nov. 1852 aged 20 years. Buried in St. James' church at Bury.
18. HAGGITT Charles. Son of Henry Haggitt of Little Whelnetham, No. 16. At Bury school 1874—75. Boarder. Now in New Zealand.
19. HAGREEN ——. Son of James Hagreen, furrier and straw hat maker in Abbeygate street. At Bury school 1826—29. Royalist.
 N.B.—I think this must be James Thomas Hagreen, who apparently settled at Cambridge, and whose son, Charles Sedley Hagreen, was born there 1844, went to Perse school, and was admitted to Trin. Coll. April 1864.
20. HALDANE James Robert Alexander Chinnery. Born August 1842 at Hatcham, Surrey. Only son of Alexander Haldane, proprietor of The Record. At Bury school 1857—61. Sixth form. Foreigner. Adm. to Trin. 24. HALES Robert Turner Born Sept. 1853. Second son of John Hales of Holt. At Bury school 1865—69. Boarder. Now M.D. and surgeon at Holt.
25. HALFHYDE ——. Dr. Randall mentions a boy of this name, but does not help one to identify him. Edmund Halfhyde, B.A. 1704, Fellow of Catherine's Coll., afterwards rector of Coton and Girton, would fit the date.
26. HALL William. Son of William Hall of Risby, gent. Two years at Bury under Dickinson. Adm. to Caius Coll. Feb. 1623 aged 17. Dr. Venn identifies him as minister of Hevingham, Norfolk, who was buried there May 1659. But possibly he is the William Hall who was buried at Risby early in 1678. A Mr. Hall is occupying a house at Risby with six hearths in 1674.
27. HALL Nathaniel. Born in London. Son of William Hall. At Bury under Stephens. Adm. to Christ's April 1659 aged 16. Did not graduate. I presume he is the son of No. 26.
28. HALL Nathaniel. Son of Master Hall de Lacfiell, clericus. He is in the Bury school list for 1656. He is probably the same boy as No. 27, but he may be a country cousin, and so I give him a separate number.
29. HALL William. Son of William Hall of Lackford, clerk. He is in the school list for 1656.
 N.B.—Nos. 27 and 28 may be the same boy, and Nos. 28 and 29 are certainly brothers, perhaps sons of No. 26. Did they come from Laxfield or Lackford? Under No. 28 it is Lacfiell, which is equal to Laxfield; under No. 29 it is Lackford. The argument for the one seems about equal to that for the other. For Laxfield, there is the fact that one or more of the North family were coming to Bury school from Laxfield at about this time. For Lackford, there is the fact of its adjoining Risby. There was no rector of Lackford named Hall.
30. HALL Henry. Born at Castle Camps, Cambs. Son of Thomas Hall, clerk. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to John's Coll. Jan. 1692 aged 16. Apparently migrated to Peterhouse. B.A. 1697.

31. HALL Joseph. Born at Castle Camps. Son of Thomas Hall, clerk. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to John's Oct. 1696 aged 16. Did not graduate.

N.B.—In Dr. Donaldson's Tercentenary address he gives some account of a correspondence in 1695 between Dr. Leeds and Mr. Hall of Linton, father of two boys at the school, on the duty of obeying the government of William III. As Linton is close to Castle Camps, I imagine the father of these boys was the correspondent. The original letters were in 1850 in Mr. Dawson Turner's collection.

32. HALL ——. He is in the Bury school list for 1713. Foreigner.
33. HALL ——. He is in the Bury school list for 1713. Royalist.
34. HALL Melmoth. Born at Horringer April 1811. Eldest son of Charles Hill Hall of Horringer. At Bury school 1820—26. Royalist.
35. HALL Sydney. Bapt. at Horringer May 1813. Second son of Charles Hill Hall of Horringer. At Bury school 1821—25. Royalist.

N.B.—At some time before 1813 Mrs. Margaret Hall, widow of William Hall of Jamaica, settled in Bury. She remained there till her death on Dec. 30th, 1842, aged 90. Her tombstone is in Bury churchyard. The same stone contains the name of Dr. Malkin's youngest son, Charles, the two families being very intimate. Her younger son, Charles Hill Hall, after retiring from the army, bought the house in Horringer now known as Horringer House, from which Covels in the seventeenth century, and Munbees in the eighteenth, had come to Bury school. (See COVEL, MUNBEE.) Nos. 34 and 35 are his sons. His third and youngest son, Charles Browning Hall, did not come to Bury school.

Mrs. Hall's eldest daughter, Sophia, had been married to John Bridgman, collector of the customs in the Isle of St. Lucia. She died in Dec. 1812, and the children seem to have been sent to their grandmother, Mrs. Hall, in Bury. I now feel pretty sure that some of the Bridgmans whom I left blank at p. 41, 42, were sons of the collector of customs at St. Lucia. Nos. 274, 275, 276, might have been. One of John Bridgman's daughters married William Whitehorne of Jamaica, which brought two Whitehornes to the school. So that the coming of Mrs. Margaret Hall to Bury brought quite a company of West Indian boys.

36. HALL ——. At Bury school 1835—38. Foreigner.

37. HALL Gilbert Henry Affleck. Bapt. at Dalham Jan. 1843 by his grandfather Rev. Sir Robert Affleck. Son of Rev. Thomas Francis Hall, vicar of Hatfield Broad Oak. At Bury school 1858—61. Foreigner. (See Additions.)

39. HALLWARD Nathaniel William. Son of John Hallward, rector of Assington, Suffolk. Matric. at Oxford, Worcester Coll., 1814 aged 16. Rector of Milden, Suffolk, 1827—82. Chaplain at Caen 1842—47. Died Oct. 1884. He is mentioned among the old scholars unable to attend the festival in 1850.
40. HAMILTON John William. Born at Ipswich. Son of William Hamilton. In school lists 1817, 1818. Sixth form. Foreigner. Elected to Hewer exhibition May 1818. Adm. to Trin. Coll. June 1817 aged 17. B.A. 1822. M.A. 1825.

There is a memoir in D. N. B. of Robert Hamilton M.D., born at Coleraine in Ireland 1748, settled at Ipswich in 1784, became totally blind in 1795, died at Ipswich May 1830 aged 81. He had a nephew William Hamilton, M.D., who practiced at Bury and died there Sept. 1808 aged 35. I imagine that this boy is a son of that William Hamilton.
41. HAMILTON ——. At Bury school 1831—35. Foreigner.
42. HAMILTON mi. At Bury school 1833—36. Foreigner.
43. HAMILTON min. At Bury school 1833—36. Foreigner. These three boys may be sons of Francis George Hamilton, who is in the Bury directory for 1839 as manager of the Suffolk and Essex bank.
44. HAMMOND John. Second son of Francis Hammond, yeoman. Born at Lavenham and educated there five years; then two and a half years at Bury under Dr. Stevens. Adm. to Sid. Suss. Coll. March 1663 aged 17. B.A. 1666.
45. HAMMOND William. Son of Thomas Hammond of Bury St. Edmunds, apothecary. In June 1683 the Governors of Bury school allowed him an exhibition. Adm. to Peterhouse Dec. 1682 aged 15. M.A. 1690. In Sept. 1687 he was chosen usher of Bury school at £30 a year. Died Aug. 1690. Tombstone in Bury churchyard.

46. HAMMOND Philip Knight. Son of Philip Hammond of Boxted, Suffolk. Bapt. there Oct. 1718. Three years at Bury under Kinsman. Adm. to Caius Coll. Sept. 1734 aged 16. Died Oct. 1758. Buried at Boxted.
47. HAMMOND William. Son of Philip Hammond of Boxted. Adm. to Bury school June 1730. Foreigner.
 N.B.—In Boxted church are the tombstones of the father and grandfather of these two boys; viz. Philip, died Aug. 1679 aged 46, and Philip, died Nov. 1735 aged 74.
48. HAMOND William. In Bury school lists 1825, 1826, 1827. Sixth form. Royalist. Elected to Dean Sudbury exhibition June 1828. I suppose he is the William Hamond of Jesus Coll., B.A. 1833.
49. HAMOND Ernest William. Son of W. B. Hamond of Pensthorpe, Norfolk. At Bury school 1894—1902. Queen's Coll. First class Oriental languages Tripos. Now curate at Crosthwaite near Keswick.

52. HANBURY Robert. He got a prize at Bury school in 1813.
53. HANBURY ——. Second captain of the school in 1817, 1818. Foreigner.
54. HANBURY David. Son of David (?) Hanbury, banker and brewer. In Bury school lists 1818—22. Foreigner. Married c. 1825 Louisa Emily Cobbold, sister of J. C. Cobbold, No. 174. Over six feet high and a great cricketer. Was a partner in Oakes' bank. Lived at Sudbury. Died suddenly at Hacheston c. 1837.

N.B.—In spite of family and other help I am not sure about these three boys. When Spink and Carss' bank in Bury failed in 1796, the Suffolk and Essex bank took on their premises in the Butter Market. Two of the partners were Charles and David Hanbury, and the three boys are probably sons of one or other of them. Charles lived for some years at Halstead and had eight sons. No. 54, whose initial was D, may or may not be the above David.

55. HANBURY Thomas Arthur. Born 1853. Son of Rev. Thomas Hanbury, rector of Church Langton, co. Leicester. At Bury school 1866—71. Boarder. Went to Canada sheep farming.

He inherited the Mildenhall estate through his mother from the North family. Great Barton came to him with his second wife, Elizabeth Folkes. Died at Mildenhall May 1746. Buried at Hanmer, co. Flint.
 N.B.—He gave books to the school library in 1701 etc. But his having been at Bury school is made quite certain by Dr. Randall, who devotes twelve lines to him.
 59. HANSLIP Robert. Son of Robert Hanslip deceased of Wangford, Suffolk. Adm. to Bury school Nov. 1739. Foreigner.
 N.B.—The Hearth Tax return shows this to be Wangford in Lackford Hundred.
 60. HANWORTH Herbert Hawthorne. Son of Captain E. Hanworth of Wymondham. At Bury school 1894—95. Was a clerk in Ecclesiastical Commission. Died about 1904.
- HARBORD. See CROPLEY.

73. HARMER Robert. Of Norfolk. Educated at the public school of Bury St. Edmunds. Adm. to Peterhouse May 1697 aged 16. B.A. 1700. Perhaps this is Robert Harmer, master of St. Giles Hospital at Norwich, who died in 1743 aged 64, and has a tombstone in the church of St. George of Colegate. The dates fit exactly.

74. HARMER William. Son of William Harmer of Swafeld, Norfolk, attorney. Three years at Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Caius Coll. Feb. 1702 aged 19. Died Sept. 1727.

N.B.—Probably Nos. 73 and 74 are brothers.

N.B.—The Harringtons were Bury musicians for at least three generations. In April 1813 Thomas Harrington, music and dancing master of Bury, and organist at St. James', died at Sudbury. In May 1813 his son, John Frederick Pogson Harrington, was appointed organist in his stead. He disappears between 1841 and 1844. Philip Harrington, teacher of music and organist at St. James', was his fifth son. Philip died Nov. 1862 aged 43, and lies in Bury cemetery. Another son, Lewis, died March 1834 aged 11 and lies in Bury churchyard. I don't think there is any doubt but what this Bury school boy is the eldest brother of Philip and Lewis. The younger brothers went to Blomfield's.

78. HARRIS George Hennington. Eldest son of George Hennington Harris of Grantchester, Cambs. At Bury school 1841—45. Sixth form. Foreigner. Matric. at Oxford, Exeter Coll., Nov. 1845 aged 19. B.A. 1849.

85. HARRISON Henry. At Bury school in 1813. (Minute book.) This is probably Henry, son of Rev. Henry Harrison, rector of Shimpling, Norfolk. Jesus Coll. B.A. 1818. Succeeded his father as rector of Shimpling. Was rector from 1821 to 1850.

N.B.—Henry, father of this boy, was son of Charles Harrison of Palgrave. Born at Palgrave Nov. 1757. Died at Bury St. Edmunds Aug. 1822. Buried at Palgrave.

86. HARRISON ——. At Bury school 1828—29. Foreigner.

N.B.—Mr. C. Harrison and Mr. P. Harrison are among old scholars unable to attend the festival in 1850. This boy may be one of them. The other must have left the school before 1817. I imagine they may have been of the Harrisons of Palgrave, Charles and Philip being both names in that family. (This number includes two boys.)

87. HARRISON Thomas Haynes. Born at Thorpe Morieux April 1829. Elder son of Rev. Thomas Harrison, rector of Thorpe. At Bury school 1839—43. Then to Winchester. Adm. to John's Coll. June 1847. N.B.—Two Samuel Heads have tombstones in the churchyard at Bury. One died April 1778, aged 57. The other died Nov. 1781 aged 55. Either of them would suit this boy. Probably he is the latter.

N.B.—As Pell Heigham was living in Bury and Town clerk thereof, one would have expected all his sons to have come to school there. But apparently only Henry, No. 140, did. The eldest, John, went to Norwich and Harrow. The third, George, went into the R.N., and perhaps had not time to. He was born at Bury Sept. 1770, became a lieutenant of The Royal George, and was killed by a cannon ball in Lord Howe's victory of June 1, 1794. He has a tablet in St. Mary's church at Bury.

He and his brother John, No. 154, jointly gave a book to the school library in 1680. Lived at Bury on Honey Hill, in the house now miscalled the Manor house, which had been left to him by his mother. Was a Governor of the Grammar school. Died Aug. 1773. Buried at Ickworth.
- N.B.—This is a possible but not a certain Grammar school boy. At any rate he went to some school in Bury for a short time. In Aug. 1721 his father writes from Ickworth to Lady Bristol at Bath, and says that Felly came home to see him yesterday, and having got a little cold and the evening being rainy he kept him there till Sunday, though Mr. Butts (B. No. 393) said this was to have been his repetition day. (Letter 613.)

William Hervey (B) had three sons, John, William, and Thomas. But as he was a good deal in London, and as there is reason for supposing that William went to Westminster school, they may all have gone there, and so I will not even letter them. John had no sons. William went from Westminster to Pembroke Coll., and died there of small pox while an undergraduate. Thomas lived at Bury in the so called Manor house, was a Governor of the school, and had two sons, both of whom he sent to be castigated there. See Nos. 154, 155.

- N.B.—These two boys evidently came to Bury school with their brother, George Christopher Hodgkinson, who succeeded Mr. Kempe as second master in 1843 and left in 1845 or 1846. He was afterwards Principal of York and Ripon Training College, and from 1855 to 1879 Headmaster of Louth Grammar school. He died c. 1880.

206. HOGGE ——. At Bury school 1835—39. Foreigner. The difference in spelling may be an accident or may show the boy to be of a different family to the others. The name was so spelt by a family at King's Lynn at that time and (I think) now.

207. HOLDEN John. Son of James Holden of Thurston, ingenuus. He is in the Bury school list for 1656.

N.B.—I imagine that this boy must be the same as No. 208, his father having shifted from Suffolk to Lincolnshire between 1656 and 1660.

Dr. Randall gives him fourteen lines.

N.B.—Lord Bristol records in his diary the death of both the father and grandfather of this boy :—

1698, Dec. 29, Thursday. My good friend Collonel Thomas Holland dyed there [at Bury].

1701, Jan. 19, Sunday. Sir John Holland dyed, near 100 years old.

It is very probable that Col. Holland was himself a Bury school boy, as old Sir John's house was at Icklingham with twelve hearths in it.

212. HOLMAN Mark. Son of Mark Holman of Doctors Commons. Adm. to Bury school Sept. 1732. Foreigner.

11. JACOB or JAMES. Dr. Randall devotes eight lines to a boy whom he addresses as "Jacobe." This must be a boy whose surname was either James or Jacob. If James, it might be a son of James Cane who became Cane James, and as he at one time resided at Bury, that is not unlikely. See CANE. Or if Jacob, it might be a Jacob of Bromley. Whoever he was, Jacob or James, I gather from Dr. Randall that he travelled in Italy and brought home "spolia ampla."

N.B.—James Kennedy, father of this boy, was M.P. for Tiverton 1832—1835, and afterwards British judge in the slave trade court at Havannah.

25. KENT Charles. Queen's Coll. LL.B. 1836. Ordained 1833 by Bishop of Norwich. Vicar of Ludford 1838—85, of Elton 1844—85, both in Herefordshire. Among old scholars unable to attend the festival in 1850 was the Rev. Charles Kent, and this is the only clergyman of that name that I can find living in 1850. Apparently he took his degree after being ordained. I imagine he was ordained rather late, and so may be the father of Nos. 26 and 27. But this is only a guess.
26. KENT ma. At Bury school 1835—38. Foreigner. I imagine that either this boy or the next one is the Lieut. Charles Kent who was among the old scholars present at the festival in 1850, and I imagine that both are sons of No. 25.
27. KENT mi. At Bury school 1835—38. Foreigner.

 N.B.—The interval between going up to Trin. Hall and taking his bachelor's degree is long, but I think he must be the LL.B. of 1780. Dr. Venn seems to have rolled this man and the father of No. 32 into one, and given that one all the livings of both. They are two different men.
32. KERRICH Thomas. Son of Thomas Kerrich, rector of Banham, Norfolk. Five years at Botesdale, two at Bury under Laurents. Elected to Hewer exhibition Feb. 1785. Adm. to Caius Coll. Aug. 1783 aged 17. Died in college Feb. 1786. Buried at St. Michael's, Cambridge.

N.B.—There appear to be three Kitcheners in the annual lists which begin in 1817. One leaves in 1818 at the top of fifth form; the next leaves in 1817 in second form; the next is there 1818—20 leaving in second form. If all four were there, as is probable, the eldest would have left before 1817, when there is no school list. They were Royalists, as their father was dead and their mother came to live in Bury, in an old house in Crown (?) street. She was born April 1772, and died June 1853. Her tombstone is in Bury churchyard.

64. KITCHENER William Orbell. Born at Bury St. Edmunds Sept. 1826. Eldest son of William Cripps Kitchener, No. 61. At Uppingham school. Adm. to St. John's Coll. May 1844. Did not graduate.  N.B.—These three boys were Royalists, because their father being dead their mother was living at Bury in Whiting street.
68. KITSON ——. Is in Bury school list 1822. Third form. Royalist. In the Bury poll book, 1832, there is G. F. Waldegrave Kitson, who plumped for Eagle. He lived in Guildhall street, and might be the father.
69. KNEVETT Henry. Son of John Knevelt of Gasthorpe, Norfolk, grazier. Eight years at Wyverstone under Steggall; one year at Bury under Garnham. Adm. to Caius Coll. July 1759 aged 17. Vicar of Stradbroke 1782—1822. Died Dec. 30, 1822, aged 81. Flat stone in Stradbroke church.

N.B. —Elizabeth Cobbold, mother of two boys on p. 77, viz. Nos. 172, 173, whose poems have brought her into the D. N. B., was a daughter of Robert Knipe of Manchester and Liverpool. Possibly the two families were connected.

73. KNOWLES William. Son of Mrs. Ursula Knowles of Bury St. Edmunds, widow. Adm. to Bury school April 1735. Royalist. Possibly a son of Bryan Reeve Knowles, a custom house officer, who died at Manningtree July 1733 aged 41.

74. KNOWLES Edward. Son of Edward Lloyd Knowles of Soham, Cambs., surgeon. At Bury school 1830—32. Sixth form. Foreigner. Practiced as a surgeon at Cambridge about forty years. Died there Aug. 1880. Buried in Christchurch churchyard, Cambridge.

N.B.—In the absence of christian names and family information I cannot be absolutely certain of this identification. Capt. Lacon had seven sons, but this one fits the date best. Capt. Lacon was eldest son of Sir Edmund Lacon, first baronet, by his second marriage, and was probably at Bury school himself. Sir Edmund Lacon's first wife was Eliza, daughter of Thomas Knowles D.D. of Bury St. Edmunds, rector of Ickworth and Chedburgh. So it is very probable that her only son, Edmund Knowles Lacon, afterwards second baronet, was also at Bury school. But I cannot include all the probabilities.

2. LACON Mortlock. Born Jan. 1817. Fourth son of Capt. John Mortlock Lacon. At Bury school 1827—30. Foreigner. Died unmarried 1865. He was among the old scholars unable to be present at the festival in 1850. That proves his identity with this boy.

4. LAKE Charles. Born at Dasset, co. Warwick. Fourth son of Richard Lake, vicar of Sparham, Norfolk. One year at Bury under Leeds, then at Charterhouse. Adm. to Sid. Suss. Coll. March 1705 aged 17. B.A. 1708.

Lived at Fakenham, Coney Weston, and for twelve years at Great Barton Place, which he inherited from an uncle. Died 1846. Tombstone in Great Barton churchyard.

his list of eminent scholars. His great uncle, Benjamin Lany, was also Master of Pembroke Coll. and Bishop of Peterborough, Lincoln, Ely.

23. LARGE James. Son of George Large of Barton Mills, Suffolk. Adm. to Bury school June 1730. Foreigner.
24. LATHAM John. Son of John Latham, clerk. Adm. to Bury school 1692. Foreigner. (Min. book, f. 252.) Pembroke Coll. B.A. 1698. N.B.—Peter Lathbury, father of this boy, was son of No. 27 ; succeeded his uncle, No. 26, as rector of Livermere in 1804 ; died Aug. 1820 aged 59, being buried at Livermere. He went to school at Woodbridge. The original Suffolk Lathbury was Peter, father of No. 25. He was brought from Middlesex to Suffolk and planted in West Stow rectory by Edward Proger, who had been a page to Charles I. He took root, and his descendants remained in Bury till quite the end of the 19th century.

29. LAWRENCE Ambrose. He is in the undated school list (c. 1650) as a foundation scholar, i.e. Royalist. The hearth tax return shows an Ambrose Lawrence living in St. Mary's parish in Bury in a house with two hearths; and another Ambrose Lawrence living at Holbrook with only one hearth and a certificate of poverty. That was in 1674.

34. LAWTON John. In Sept. 1787 the under master complained to the Governors that John Lawton was insolent to him. The Governors upheld the master and threatened Lawton with expulsion. That is all I know about him, except that I expect that he is the Lawton who figures in the engraving of the school play entitled, The offering to Charity.
35. LAWTON Edward Claydon. Eldest son of Rev. Joseph Thomas Lawton, rector of Elmswell. From Bury school to Clare Coll. B.A. 1822. Was curate at Walsham-le-Willows, his father being perpetual curate. Died Feb. 1854 aged 54. Mural tablet in Elmswell church.

N.B.—Edward and George were among the old scholars present at the Tercentenary festival.

Joseph Thomas Lawton, father of the seven, was an only and posthumous child. His mother, Mrs. Cecilia Lawton, lived for a time in Bury in a house (now pulled down) adjoining the Norman tower. He went to Westminster school in 1787. Rector of Elmswell 1810—63. Died March 1863 aged 89. Buried at Elmswell. Mrs. Cecilia Lawton died in 1813 aged 76, and was buried at Elmswell.

Became a lieutenant in the First or Royal Regiment of Foot. Resided many years at Normanston in Lowestoft. Died c. 1871 aged c. 74. Buried at Herringfleet.

N.B.—This is the only one of five brothers that I have authority to include, though probably they all came, and perhaps their father too. Their grandfather, Carteret Mussenden, became Carteret Leathes of Herringfleet, settled in Bury, was made a Governor of the Grammar school in 1767, died March 1780 aged 81, and has a tombstone in St. James' church at Bury.

One of his sons, George, became a major in the First or Royal Regiment of Foot, and then settled at Bury. He was made a Governor of the Grammar school in 1806, died Feb. 1818 aged 72, and has a tombstone in St. James' church. His five sons were :—

44. LEE Fitz-William. Second son of Sir John Lee, eques auratus. This boy is in the school list for 1656. He is there entered as Fitz-Lee Lee, which is certainly a mistake for Fitz-William Lee, as Sir John married Catherine Fitz-William. Buried at Richmond, Surrey, Sept. 1665, and entered in the Richmond register as Fitz-William Lee.
- N.B.—Sir John Lee, father of these two boys, lived for some years in Bury, was a Governor of the school and regularly attended the meetings from Oct. 1644 till his resignation in Aug. 1665. His house was in St. Mary's parish and had sixteen hearths. He died May 1673 and was buried in St. Andrew's Undershaft, London. Both his sons died before him.

Ad interim Chancellor of the Exchequer. Died April 1754. Buried at Hartwell. My only authority for this boy is Dr. Donaldson's list of eminent scholars. I don't know what his authority was. His first wife was Anne, daughter of John Goodwin of Bury St. Edmunds, which slightly supports him. In D. N. B.
46. LEE Charles. Born at Dernhall, Cheshire, 1731. Youngest son of Major-General Lee by his wife Isabella Bunbury. Adm. to Bury school June 1746.

Foreigner. Joined the 44th Reg. Served in the N. American war. Wounded at Ticonderoga in July 1758. Afterwards served in the Portuguese and Polish armies. Sympathized with America in the war of Independence and served under Washington. Taken prisoner by the British, but exchanged. Court martialled by the Americans and suspended for twelve months. Died at Philadelphia Oct. 1782 aged 51. Buried at Washington. In D. N. B.

47. LEE Herbert Henry. Born Oct. 1838. Son of Rev. Henry Thomas Lee, rector of Helhoughton cum Rainham St. Martin. At Bury school 1851—54. Sixth form. Foreigner. Went into the army. Is a Major General. Now living at The Mount, Dinas Powis, near Cardiff.
48. LEE John Robert. Born Feb. 1840. Son of Rev. Henry Thomas Lee. At Bury school 1854—55. Foreigner. Went into the army. Now living near Cardiff.
49. LEE Norman. Son of R. D. Lee of Maidenhead. At Bury school 1895—1900. Now in a London bank.
50. LEECH Charles Denton. Born in Bury St. Edmunds 1819. Elder son of Charles Denton Leech, solicitor. At Bury school 1828—35. Royalist. Solicitor in Bury. Mayor in 1873. Died Jan. 1907 aged 87. Born, lived and died at 30, Crown street.
N.B.—Charles Denton Leech, father of this boy and of No. 51, died May 1851 aged 61, and lies in Bury churchyard.
51. LEECH Henry Payne. Younger son of Charles Denton Leech. At Bury school 1832—36. Royalist. Was a surgeon at Kenninghall and Woolpit. Died at Ipswich July 1906 aged 81. Buried in the cemetery at Bury.
52. LEECH Charles Denton. Only son of Charles Denton Leech, No. 50. At Bury school 1865—71. Royalist. A solicitor in Bury St. Edmunds. Died in London July 1906.
53. LEECH Alick Charles. Fourth and youngest son of Henry Payne Leech, No. 51. At Bury school 1877—81. Foreigner. Cavendish Coll., Camb. B.A. 1887. Was a clergyman in Queensland, Australia, four years. Curate of St. John's, Bury St. Edmunds, 1903—04. Died at Bury St. Edmunds Feb. 1904. Buried in the cemetery.
54. LEEDS Samuel. Son of John Leeds of Wellingham, Norfolk, clerk. In April 1677 the Governors of Bury school allowed him an exhibition of £5 a year, he being then at Clare Coll. B.A. 1677. I believe he was headmaster of Beccles school, then of Botesdale school 1700—09, and then of Seckford Grammar school at Woodbridge 1709—27. Died March 1727. Buried at Woodbridge. He does not appear to have been a clergyman, though at that time schoolmasters generally were.

55. LEEDS Samuel. Eldest son of Edward Leeds, headmaster of Bury school. Queen's Coll. B.A. 1701. Fellow of Queen's. Rector of Little Saxham 1720—50. Died April 1750 aged 70. Buried at Little Saxham. A tablet on the outside of Little Saxham church says that he left £200 for foreign missions and made William Crofts his heir.

56. LEEDS Edward. Second son of Edward Leeds, headmaster of Bury school. Adm. to Peterhouse from the public school of Bury St. Edmund May 1700 aged 16. B.A. 1703. Usher at Bury school from Dec. 1707 to Sept. 1712. Had the livings of Hemingstone, Shottisham, Sutton and Ramsholt in Suffolk. Died 1765. Dr. Randall brings these two boys into his list:—Fratresque Leodibus orti, Quêis decus est tanti docta senecta patris.

N.B.—Edward Leeds, father of these two boys, was born at Tittleshall, Norfolk, son of Samuel Leeds, rector. He went to school there under Briggs, and was admitted to Christ's Coll. June 1642 aged 16. He became headmaster of Newark school, and in Sept. 1663 came from there to be headmaster of Bury school. He held the post till his death in Nov. 1707 aged 80. Buried at Ingham. He was succeeded by Dr. Randall, whose list of scholars in Latin verse I am often quoting.

57. LEEDS ——. In Bury school list 1817. Second form. Foreigner.
 58. LEEDS ——. In Bury school list 1817—19. Second form. Foreigner.
 59. LEEDS ——. In Bury school list 1820—21. First form. Foreigner.

N.B.—I imagine that these last three boys are descendents of the headmaster. His younger son, Edward, No. 56, had a son, Edward, a surgeon at Hemingstone, who died July 1786, aged 70, and was buried at Hemingstone. He is likely to have gone to the school whereat his father had been usher and his grandfather headmaster, but I have no authority to include him. A pedigree in the Jermyn MSS. gives him six sons living at Barham, Hemingstone and thereabouts. But none of them seem to have had a son, so that I do not know who these three are. Possibly the pedigree errs.

60. LEET Jenkin. Son of John Leet of Bury St. Edmunds, tailor. Adm. to Bury school Oct. 1740. Royalist.
61. LEGARD Thomas. Bapt. at Ganton, Yorks., June 1660. Second son of Sir John Legard, first baronet. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Christ's April 1677 aged 16. Did not graduate. Died unmarried. Will proved at York April 1688.
62. LEGARD William. Bapt. at York March 1663. Third son of Sir John Legard. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Christ's April 1677 aged 14. B.A. 1680. Vicar of Tardebigge, co. Worcester.
- N.B.—Dr. Leeds includes this name among his Yorkshire scholars, writing it Le Gard. The Christ's Coll. admission book shows that these two boys came; and very likely the eldest and youngest sons, John and Widdrington, came also.
63. LE GRICE John. Born at Bury St. Edmunds. Son of John Le Grice. At school there under Leeds. Adm. to Christ's Dec. 1700 aged 18. B.A. 1704. I presume that he is the John Le Grice who is at Bury in the poll book of 1727.
64. LE GRICE Charles. Born at Bury St. Edmunds. Son of Charles Le Grice, attorney. Grandson of No. 63. Uncle of No. 65. Educated privately by Mr. Steggolds. Adm. to John's July 1762 aged 19. B.A. 1766. Preacher at St. James' church at Bury 1778—92. Rector of Thwaite, Suffolk, 1775—1792. Rector of Wickhampton, Norfolk, 1785—92. Died April 1792 aged 50. Buried at Thwaite. NOT a Grammar school boy that I know of.
65. LE GRICE Henry. Born July 1800. Third son of John Le Grice of Bury St. Edmunds. Left Bury school before 1817, and therefore not in the lists. Was present at the festival in 1850 as an old scholar. Was a solicitor at Bury St. Edmunds. Died Nov. 1888 aged 88. Buried in the churchyard.

N.B.—His father, John Le Grice, was bapt. at St. James' at Bury Feb. 1745; died April 1835 aged 91, and has a tombstone in Bury churchyard. He was the son of Charles, whom I take to be the son of No. 63. There are many others of this family born in Bury in the eighteenth century whom I feel tempted to include. They are likely to have been at the Grammar school, but there is no authority for including them.

66. LEHEUP Thomas. Only son of Isaac Leheup of Gunthorpe, Norfolk. Adm. to Bury school July 1730. Foreigner. Died unmarried before his father Aug. 1745 aged 24. Buried at Gunthorpe.

N.B.—The grandfather of this boy was Thomas Leheup, a Huguenot who emigrated to England from Normandy after the revocation of the Edict of Nantes. He died Dec. 1736 aged 69, and was buried at Hessem. Dr. Randall addresses four lines to a certain French boy, who fleeing from school departed on account of badly written verses. In puerum quendam Gallicum, qui a schola fugiens decessit ob carmina foede scripta. This French boy was probably one of the many Huguenot refugees who were in England at that time, and who are still there now, but so anglicized that we no longer call them French. Possibly this runaway boy was a Leheup. If so I have not got him in my list. He must have been at the school somewhere between 1690 and 1715. Or he may be the boy Dusseau. See p. 122, No. 167.

67. LEHEUP Michael Peter. Born at Nacton, Suffolk. Son of Michael William Leheup of Hessem. Two years at Ipswich, three at Bury under Becher, three at Harrow under Drury. Adm. to Caius Coll. Jan. 1800 aged 17. Died in London Dec. 1837 aged 55. Tablet in Hessem church.

68. LEMAN Lister. Born at Alpheton. Son of John Leman. Four years at Bury. Adm. to Caius Coll. April 1639 aged 17.

69. LEMAN Edward. Son of Edward Leman of London, clothier. Adm. to Bury school Nov. 1732. Foreigner. Five years there under Kinsman. Adm. to Caius Coll. May 1737 aged 18. B.A. 1741.

70. LEMING John. Son of John Leming, rector of Flempton, Suffolk. At Bury under Stephens. Adm. to Christ's March 1660 aged 17. Migrated to Pembroke Coll. B.A. 1663.

N.B.—John Leming, the father, was rector of Flempton from 1631 to 1667. In the Ship-money return, 1640, he is called John Leman. So possibly Nos. 68, 69, 70, are all of one name and one family.

71. L'ESTRANGE Hamon. Bapt. at Pakenham April 1674. Son of Hamon L'Estrange by his second wife. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Christ's June 1692 aged 16. Did not graduate. Was a J.P. for sixty-five years. Author of several works, theological and legal, some of them published at Bury. Died at Bury Aug. 1767. Buried at Holm. In D. N. B.

72. L'ESTRANGE Nicholas. Born at Pakenham. Son of Hamon L'Estrange. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to John's May 1697 aged 16. Did not graduate.

N.B.—The L'Estranges of Pakenham lived at Barton Mere. One of these three is alluded to by Dr. Randall, who says he had a big heart in a small body. In the minute book, f. 252, a Le Strange, foreigner, is entered as admitted in 1692. That may be No. 72 or No. 73, or another one altogether whom I have not got.

73. L'ESTRANGE Lewkenor. Born at Gressenhall, Norfolk. Son of Roger L'Estrange of Hoe, Norfolk. Three years at Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Caius Coll. April 1697 aged 16. Fellow. Dean. Lecturer. Bursar. Barrister. Died in college Aug. 1719. Buried at St. Michael's, Cambridge.
74. LESTOURGEON Charles. Born at Edmonton, Middlesex. Son of Charles Lestourgeon. In Bury school lists 1819—22. Foreigner. Adm. to Trin. Coll. May 1824 aged 16. Wrangler. B.A. 1828. Was a surgeon at Cambridge.
75. LETTS Ernest Frederick. Fourth son of Thomas Letts of Sydenham, Kent. At Bury school 1860—62. Foreigner. St. Edmund Hall, Oxford, and Trin. Coll., Dublin. Precentor of Manchester Cathedral 1878—85. Rector of Newton Heath 1885—1904. Died 1904.
76. LEVERETT A. At Bury school 1874—75. Boarder.
77. LEWIN Francis Montague Spencer. Son of S. R. Lewin of Wimpole street, London. At Bury school 1882—85. Foreigner. Now a solicitor in Southampton street, London.
78. LEWIS John. Son of Rev. — Lewis of Benhall, Suff. Adm. to Bury school June 1738. Foreigner.
79. LEWIS Lewis Elwyn. Eldest son of Rev. Lewis Woodward Lewis, curate of St. Mary's, Bury St. Edmunds, and vicar of Leysdown, Kent. At Bury school 1869—70. Royalist. King's Coll. London. M.A. Oxford. Now rector of Finningley, Notts.
80. LEWKENOR Edward. Bapt. at Denham Feb. 1614. Only son of Edward Lewkenor of Denham. Educated at home under Mr. Sayning. Adm. to Christ's Coll. Nov. 1629 aged 15. Died of small pox Dec. 1634. Buried at Denham.

N.B.—He had two cousins (see GURNEY) at Bury school, but apparently was NOT there himself. His portrait, his beautiful marble effigy in Denham church, his funeral sermon, all that can be said of him and his fathers, behold, it is written in the Denham volume of this series.

81. LIGHTFOOT Robert. Son of Robert Lightfoot of Ely. Adm. to Bury school July 1736. Foreigner. Adm. to Trin. Coll. June 1745 aged 17. Died July 1748 aged 20. Tombstone in the Lady chapel of Ely Cathedral.

N.B.—Robert Lightfoot, the father, had died in 1730. He was land tax receiver for co. Cambridge and receiver general to the Corporation of Bedford Level.

85. LINDSAY John Maitland. Son of John Lindsay, rector of Monewden, Suffolk. At Bury school 1899—1900. Joined the 4th Norfolk militia.

86. LINGWOOD Robert Maulkin. In the Bury school list for 1825. Second form. Christ's Coll. B.A. 1836. Lived in Herefordshire, afterwards in Devonshire. Died at Cheltenham.

N.B.—I believe this boy and No. 87 were nephews of Robert Maulkin, wine merchant, who lived at Bury in the Horse Market, now called St. Mary's Square.

87. LINGWOOD Thomas John. At Bury school 1829—34. Three years in sixth form. Foreigner. Christ's Coll. B.A. 1838. Curate of Beverstone, Wonston, Bicester. Perp. Curate of St. Mary, Maidenhead, 1865—72. Was present at the festival in 1850 as an old scholar.

88. LLOYD ——. In school list for 1820 only. Fifth form. Foreigner.
89. LLOYD Henry Dyson. Fifth and youngest son of Edward Lloyd of Barham, Kent, and 13 Norfolk street, Park lane, London. At Bury school 1846—52. Four years in sixth form. Foreigner. Of Clare Coll. B.A. 1856. Now rector of Runnington, Somerset.
90. LLOYD O. J. H. C. Adm. to Bury school 1866. Boarder. This boy and No. 91 are in the admission lists, but not in any annual school list, so they could not have been at school more than a term or two. I believe they were nephews of Rev. Martin John Lloyd, then rector of Depden near Bury.
91. LLOYD R. C. Adm. to Bury school 1866. Boarder.
92. LOCH T. C. Mr. T. C. Loch is among the old scholars present at the festival in 1850. There is no such name in the school lists, so that either he left the school before 1817 or Loch is a misprint, and he may be the Lock of 1829.
93. LOCKE William. Born at Norwich. Son of William Locke. At Melford and Sudbury schools, and at Bury under Dickenson. Adm. to Christ's Aug. 1622 aged 16.
94. LOCK Peter. Son of Anthony Lock of Tibenham, Norfolk. Six years at Bury under Stevens. Adm. to John's Feb. 1654 aged 16.
N.B.—Anthony Lock was rector of Tibenham 1596—1641, perhaps grandfather of this boy.
95. LOCK ——. Dr. Leeds includes a boy of this name from Northumberland, whose date at the school must have been between 1663 and 1690.
96. LOCK ——. At Bury school 1829—31. Foreigner.
97. LOCKE Thomas William Spink. Born Dec. 25, 1829. Son of William Locke of Bury St. Edmunds, corn merchant. At Bury school 1844—45. Royalist. Student at Guy's Hospital. Chaplain to the Lord Mayor of London in 1844. Held various curacies. Curate in charge of Great Blakenham. Died about 1878. Buried at Great Blakenham.

N.B.—The Magdalene Coll. admission book gives Richmond, Yorks., as his school, where his eldest brother was assistant master. But he could not have been there long. I imagine he must be the boy in the Bury school lists 1817—20.

102. LOCKWOOD Charles Blomfield. Born Nov. 1805. Fourth and youngest son of Edward Lockwood. In Bury school lists 1817—22. Sixth form. Royalist. Adm. to John's Coll. July 1829. B.A. 1833. He carried on the Blomfield's school "at a large white house at the corner of Loom's lane" in Bury till 1851, and also was curate at St. James', Bury, and at Bardwell. In 1851 he moved to Ixworth and took pupils, continuing to be curate at Bardwell. Afterwards he had various curacies. Died Jan. 1, 1879 aged 74. Buried at Biggleswade.

N.B.—Edward Lockwood, father of these four boys, had a school in Bury in Mustow street. There he lived till he died, Feb. 1847 aged 80. His tombstone is in Bury churchyard. His son's school in Loom's lane was a continuation of Blomfield's school rather than of his father's school in Mustow street. I imagine that Edward Lockwood came to Bury from Yorkshire.

103. LOCKWOOD William. Only son of William Browne Lockwood, No. 100. I do not see his name in the school lists, but Mr. W. Lockwood is down among old scholars who were present at the festival in 1850. He went on the stage under the name of Neil Warner. His sister was the mother of Ouida, the novelist.
104. LOFFT Henry Capel. Born at Troston Nov. 1783. Eldest son of Capel Lofft of Troston. Became a lieut. in 48th Regiment. Fell at the battle of Albuera May 16, 1811, aged 27. Mural tablet in Troston church. I have no proof of his having been at Bury school.

N.B.—Capel Lofft, father of these two boys, was a miscellaneous writer of some note, a man of many accomplishments, and a liberal politician. He inherited Troston from his uncle, Robert Capell (see CAPELL), lived there thirty-five years, and then went abroad. Born Nov. 1751. Died abroad May 1824. Monument in Troston church.

LL.B. 1748. Vicar of Astwood, Bucks., 1752—97. Rector of North Crawley, Bucks., 1771—97. Died Dec. 1797 aged 73. Tombstone in Astwood church.
128. LUARD Thomas Garnham. Born May 1821. Second son of William Wright Luard of Witham, Essex, J.P. At Bury school 1835—38. Sixth form. Foreigner. Matric. at Oxford, Wadham Coll., Oct. 1839. Vicar of Stanstead Mountfichet, Essex, 1852—86. Died Jan. 1886.
129. LUCAS Edward or Edmund. He gave a book in 1573, and is described in the catalogue as "scholæ Buriensis olim alumnus." I imagine this must be Edmund, son of Henry Lucas of Bury St. Edmunds. Henry was the son of Thomas Lucas of Little Saxham, Solicitor-General to Henry VII. The names Edmund and Edward were often confounded. Edmund Lucas died in July 1575, and lies in St. Mary's church at Bury with twelve lines of poetry on his tombstone. His age is not given, but he must have been one of the earliest scholars.
130. LUCAS William. Born at Bury St. Edmunds. Eldest son of Clement Lucas. Three years at Bury under Wright. Adm. to Caius Coll. June 1597 aged 17. Succeeded his father at Horsecroft in Horringer in 1603. Had a ten years lawsuit with Bishop Bedell and was beat. Died Jan. 1640. Buried at Horringer.

131. LUCAS Thomas. Bapt. at Horringer March 1614. Eldest son of William Lucas, No. 130. Five years at Bury under Dickinson. Adm. to Caius Coll. May 1631 aged 17. Gray's Inn Nov. 1632. Died before his father Sept. 1637. Buried at Horringer.
132. LUCAS Gibson. Bapt. at Horringer March 1616. Second but eldest surviving son of William Lucas, No. 130. At Bury school five years under Dickinson. Adm. to Caius Coll. May 1631 aged 15. At first a Parliamentary and Presbyterian minister, then swung round and became a Royalist, D.D. etc. There is a portrait of him somewhere in scarlet robes. Succeeded his father at Horsecroft Jan. 1640. Died May 1698 aged 83. Buried at Horringer. He had about ten sons, who probably all came to Bury school; but I have no authority to include them.
133. LUCAS Richard Gay. Son of Gibson Lucas of Shipdam, Norfolk. Adm. to Bury school July 1735. Foreigner. Seven years there under Kinsman. Adm. to Caius Coll. 1743 aged 18. Lincoln's Inn 1745. Buried at East Bradenham, Norfolk, May 1750.
134. LUCAS George. Born at Bury St. Edmunds. Third son of Gibson Lucas of Yarmouth. At Bury school under Laurents. Adm. to Caius Coll. June 1785 aged 17. Tenth wrangler. Rector of Catfield and Billockby, Norfolk. Died at Catfield Aug. 1833 aged 65. Buried at Filby.
135. LUCAS Richard. Born at Bury St. Edmunds. Fourth son of Gibson Lucas of Yarmouth. Five years at Bury under Laurents. Adm. to Caius Coll. June 1786 aged 17. Fellow. Dean. Bursar. Rector of Oxburgh and Foulden, Norfolk. Died Dec. 1847.
136. LUCAS William. Fifth son of Gibson Lucas of Yarmouth. Born there. Eight years at Bury under Becher. Elected to Hewer exhibition March 1802. Adm. to Caius Coll. Aug. 1800 aged 16. B.A. 1805. Fellow. Rector of Burgh and Billockby, Norfolk. Preb. of Wells. Died in London Feb. 1859 aged 74.

N.B. —This boy was half brother to the third and fourth sons. The first and second sons, Charles, of Filby, and Gibson, rector of Filby, were probably both at Bury school, but there is no school list for their time, and Pembroke Coll. to which they went does not give school.

137. LUCAS ——. At Bury school 1829—33. Sixth form. Foreigner.

N.B.—I cannot identify this boy. As he came up with No. 138 they would seem to be brothers. But if William has been rightly identified, he can not be a brother. He is probably a first cousin, one of the several sons of Rev. Gibson Lucas, rector of Filby. Rev. Charles Lucas is among the old scholars who attended the festival in 1850. There were two of these at the time, but neither seems to fit the date of this boy.

138. LUCAS William Nelson. Eldest son of Rev. William Lucas, No. 136. At Bury school 1829—37. Sixth form. Foreigner. Matric. at Oxford, Trin. Coll., March 1838 aged 18. B.A. 1841. Succeeded his father as rector of Burgh. Died Dec. 1861.

N.B.—I am not quite certain of this identification. From the book which he gave to the school library his name appears to have been William ; and I can find no other William to fit as well as this one.

139. LUCAS Guy Thomas. Son of Thomas Lucas of Cambridge, surgeon. At Bedford school, and at Bury 1887—89. Foreigner. Adm. to Trin. Hall 1891.

140. LUCAS Richard Lancelot Woolmar. Son of ——— Lucas of Louth. At Bury school 1894—95. Now on the Stock Exchange in London.

141. LUCAS Harry Audley. Son of Robert Harry Lucas of Bury St. Edmunds, surgeon. At Bury school 1896—99. Thence to Haileybury. Now at Trin. Coll.

N.B.—The above thirteen boys of this name are all or nearly all of the same family, descending from the Solicitor General of Henry VII who built Little Saxham hall. It may be worth pointing out that its connection with Bury school has gone on in unbroken continuity from Queen Elizabeth to Queen Victoria. The first of them, No. 129, must have been there early in Queen Elizabeth's reign, if not before, and the last of them was there till 1899.

142. LUCIA Henry. Elder son of Thomas Francis Lucia, owner of the Bury Free Press. At Bury school 1858—61. Royalist. Died Oct. 1866 aged 21. Buried in the cemetery at Bury.

143. LUCIA Horace. Younger son of Thomas Francis Lucia. At Bury school 1862—64. Royalist. Afterwards at Framlingham school. Died at Crayford, Kent, Dec. 1890 aged 42. Buried at Crayford.

144. LUKIN ma. In Bury school list 1822. Fourth form. Foreigner.
145. LUKIN mi. In Bury school list 1822. Third form. Foreigner.
146. LUKIN min. In Bury school list 1822. First form. Foreigner.
147. LUNT William. Son of John Lunt of Bury St. Edmunds. Of Caius Coll. Sizar March 1558. Scholar 1559. B.A. 1561. Fellow and tutor 1562. There is nothing to show that this boy went to the Grammar school. If he did go he would be one of the very first scholars that the school had.
148. LUNT John. Son of John Lunt of Bury St. Edmunds, mediæ fortunæ. One year at Bury. Adm. to Caius Coll. Nov. 1562 aged 18.
149. LYNFORD Thomas. Son of Samuel Lynford. Born at Cambridge 1650. At Newark under Leeds, and at Bury. Adm. to Christ's July 1666 aged 16, optimæ spei juvenis. D.D. 1689. Rector of St. Edward, Lombard street; chaplain to William and Mary; canon of Westminster; archdeacon of Barnstaple. Died Aug. 1724. In D. N. B.
- N.B.—From the above entry in the Christ's Coll. admission book it would seem that Dr. Leeds had been headmaster at Newark, and when he came to Bury brought this promising pupil with him. Dr. Randall couples together Lynford and Clagett, and gives them four lines, than whom, he says, the pulpits had no greater men. He applies the epithet ingens to Lynford.
150. LYNN Thomas James. Born at Ufford Jan. 1, 1802. Eldest son of Captain Thomas Lynn, E.I.C. Died Aug. 1817 aged 15. Buried at Ufford. I have included this boy because it is possible that he is the Lynn in third form in the school list May 1817. But I am very doubtful whether that is him, and if he came to Bury he would be in the missing lists before 1817.
151. LYNN James. Born Aug. 1804. Second son of Captain Thomas Lynn, E.I.C. In Bury school lists 1817—18. Fifth form. Foreigner. Joined Royal Engineers. Served in Spain during the Carlist war 1835, where he was English commissioner with the royal forces under Espartero. Retired from the army as major. Became Lieut.-Col. Then lived with his sister, Miss Mary Emma Lynn, at Wickham Market. Died there Nov. 1878 aged 74. Tablet in church.
152. LYNN Charles. Born 1806. Third son of Captain Thomas Lynn, E.I.C. In Bury school lists 1818—22. Three years in sixth form. Foreigner. Died in London 1823. Buried in St. Peter's church, Cornhill.

153. LYNN Edward. Born 1808. Fourth son of Captain Thomas Lynn, E.I.C. In Bury school list 1822. Fourth form. Foreigner. (1823—24 are missing.) Practised as a medical man at Runcorn. Died there in 1840 three months after the death of his wife. Buried at Runcorn.

N.B.—The Lynns of Woodbridge, a race of surgeons, are now quite extinct in the male line. Not one of the name is left anywhere.

James Lynn of Woodbridge, surgeon, died Aug. 1775 aged 76, and was buried at Woodbridge. He had two sons, both surgeons, viz. James of Woodbridge and John of Ufford.

The elder son, James of Woodbridge, married Elizabeth Wall of Aldeburgh, died Jan. 1824 aged 84, and was buried at Woodbridge. He had four sons, two surgeons and two sailors, viz. :—

(1) James, born Sept. 1770. Was with Lord Amherst in China. Then practised in Bury, living in Whiting street. Was appointed a Governor of the Grammar school in 1827. Died at Bury Dec. 1832. Buried at Woodbridge. Unmarried.

(2) Thomas, born Jan. 1774. Went to sea at the age of eleven years with his uncle, Captain Wall, in the service of the E.I.C. Became a captain. Was the father of the four Bury boys, Nos. 150—153. After leaving the sea he became a writer and instructor in nautical astronomy. Died at Dover May 1847 aged 73. In D. N. B.

(3) John. Died at sea Nov. 1799 aged 24.

(4) George Doughty. Was a surgeon at Woodbridge for many years. He retired to Norwich and died there in 1854. His only son, George James, was born April 1806, and died 1824. As far as time goes he might be one of the Bury boys, but they are more likely to have been all brothers.

In contrast to the short lives of the last generation of Lynns stands out the long life of Miss Mary Lynn, sister of the four Bury boys and the early friend of Edward Fitzgerald. She died in 1903 aged 90. The Lynns, Moors, Fitzgeralds, Wall and perhaps others, form a group of East Suffolk boys at Bury school in and about 1820, all somehow connected then or to be connected later on.

154. LYON Martin. Son of William Lyon of Bury St. Edmunds, innholder. Adm. to Bury school April 1735. Royalist.

1. McALLISTER Hugh Cecil. Son of Rev. John McAllister, vicar of St. Nicholas, Plumstead, Kent. At Bury school 1896—1900. Corpus Christi Coll. B.A.

10. MACKAY ——. At Bury school 1854—55. Royalist. I do not know whether this is a son of Col. John McKay, who afterwards commanded the 2nd Batt. 12th Regiment, and to whose wife and son there is a memorial in St. Mary's church at Bury.
11. MACLEAN Allan. Born at Clare. Son of Sir Lachlan Maclean of Sudbury, physician. Five years at Bury under Malkin. Adm. to Caius Coll. July 1813 aged 17. Physician to the Essex Hospital. Died c. 1870.
12. MACLEAN John. Son of Sir Lachlan Maclean of Sudbury, physician. Seven years at Bury under Malkin. Sixth form in 1817. Adm. to Caius Coll. May 1818 aged 19. Died April 1822.

N.B.—Sir Lachlan Maclean, father of these two boys, was patron and lay rector of St. Gregory's and St. Peter's churches at Sudbury, and also bought the patronage of the Grammar school there.

13. McLEROTH Robert William. Born c. 1785. Eldest son of Col. Hugh McLeroth by his first wife. Educated "at a school in Bury." Thence to the Royal Military college at High Wickham for three years. Ensign 1798. Captain 63rd Foot in 1805. Lieut.-Col. 1819. Drowned in his yacht off Southampton.

15. McLEROTH William Bacon. Born c. 1793. Third son of Col. Hugh McLeroth by his first wife. Educated "at a school in Bury." Then at a naval academy at Yarmouth. Was a midshipman in 1807.

N.B.—I get the school of these three boys, Nos. 13, 14, 15, from a legal document. I cannot say positively that "a school in Bury" means the Grammar school.

16. McLEROTH Thomas Moore. Born at Bury St. Edmunds Jan. 1809. Eldest son of Col. Hugh McLeroth by his second wife. At Bury school 1819—21. Royalist. Was apprenticed to a wine merchant at Yarmouth, but ran away to sea in the merchant service. Came back to Bury and set up as wine merchant. Died Jan. 1841 aged 31. Buried in St. Mary's churchyard.
17. McLEROTH Harry. Born at Bury St. Edmunds Feb. 1811. Second son of Col. Hugh McLeroth by his second wife. In Bury school lists 1820—22. Royalist. Was a midshipman. Died young. Buried at St. Helena.

N.B.—Lieut.-Col. Hugh McLeroth, father of these six boys, had served in the 95th or Rifles, was Inspector of Yeomanry and Volunteers in the Eastern Counties, and afterwards was a Brigadier-General in the Portuguese army during the Peninsular war. He died in Bury June 1840 aged 80. His house was in Guildhall street next to the Black Boy. His tombstone is in Bury churchyard.

19. McLEROTH Thomas Moore. Eldest son of Thomas Moore McLeroth, No. 16. Born July 1830. At Bury school 1844—46. Royalist. Enlisted in the 7th or Princess Royal's Dragoon Guards. Died of small pox at Muttra, in N.W. Province of India, in Nov. 1864 aged 32. Name on tombstone in Bury churchyard.

21. McLEROTH Robert Hugh. Third son of Robert Moore McLeroth, No. 16. Went to school at Colchester. Was a sailor on a man of war. Was injured, and after some time at Greenwich Hospital was sent back to Bury incurable. Died Dec. 1885. Buried in the cemetery at Bury. NOT a Grammar school boy.
22. MACNAB Francis Charles Alexander. Third son of Robert Macnab of Bury St. Edmunds, M.D. At Bury school Jan. 1889—. Royalist. Gazetted to the Buffs 1897. Served in India and Burmah. Died of malarial fever in Upper Burmah in 1901. He had just been nominated adjutant to the regiment.
23. MACRO Thomas. Born 1649. Son of Thomas Macro of Bury St. Edmunds. He was at Bury school in 1665 when they moved from Eastgate street to Northgate street, and was one of those who wrote verses on the occasion. Was chief alderman in Bury in 1689. Made a fortune as a grocer. Bought Little Haugh estate in Norton. He had a quarrel with Mr. Leeds the headmaster. See Lord Bristol's Letters, Nos. 188, 189. Died May 1737 aged 88. Tombstone in St. James' church at Bury.
 N.B.—Thomas Macro, father of this boy, died Sept. 1701 aged 86, and has a tombstone in St. James' church at Bury. The Macros' house in Bury was Cupola house in the Meat Market. In three successive generations, Thomas, Thomas and Cox reached the ages of 86, 88 and 84 respectively, showing also much business capacity and intellectual vigour combined with their bodily powers.
24. MACRO Ralph. Younger son of Thomas Macro of Bury St. Edmunds. Trin. Coll. M.B. 1684. He gave a book to the school library in 1695. I think he was a medical man in London. He was dead before 1728. He left his sister his share in Wills' Coffee House in London.

25. MACRO Thomas. Eldest son of Thomas Macro of Bury St. Edmunds, No. 23, who is called druggist in the Caius Coll. book and grocer in the Bury book. Seven years at Bury school. In April 1700 the Governors granted him an exhibition of £6 odd a year. Adm. to Caius Coll. Oct. 1700 aged 18. B.A. 1704. D.D. 1722. Seventh wrangler. Fellow. Dean. Bursar. University librarian. Vicar of Babraham. Rector of Hockwold and Wilton 1720—43. Preacher at St. James' in Bury 1721. Minister of St. Nicholas, Yarmouth, 1722—43. Died 1743. Buried at Yarmouth.

Dr. Randall addresses twelve lines full of gratitude to Macro of Caius, Rebus in angustis qui mihi fidus erat.

That must be this man. There are also eighteen lines to Thomas Macro, the father.

26. MACRO Cox. Born at Bury St. Edmunds. Second son of Thomas Macro, No. 23. At school there under Leeds. Adm. to Christ's Jan. 1702 aged 18. D.D. 1717. Studied at Leyden University. Chaplain to George II. Succeeded to his father's estate at Norton. Had the staircase and ceiling there painted. Made a valuable collection of paintings, coins, and books. Died at Norton Feb. 1767 aged 84. Buried there. In D. N. B., which, I think wrongly, calls him eldest son.

27. MACRO Ralph. Son of Thomas Macro of Bury St. Edmunds, No. 23. Seven years at Bury under Leeds and Randall. Adm. to Caius Coll. July 1713 aged 16. Ninth wrangler. Fellow. D.D. 1728. Preacher at the Rolls Chapel. Chaplain to the King. Died at Bath Oct. 1728. Buried in the abbey church.

There is a letter to him from John, Lord Bristol, dated Ickworth, Oct. 21, 1727, and thus curiously addressed:—To ye Right Reverend that would be and ye wrongly ungrateful that must be, Ralph Macro. II. p. 25. In an account of Cupola house in Proc. Suff. Arch. Inst. III. 378, Mr. Samuel Tymms has confounded the uncle and nephew, Nos. 24 and 27, and rolled them into one.

28. MACRO ——. This boy without a christian name is in the school list for midsummer 1713. Royalist. He is probably Ralph, No. 27; but as it is just possible that he is a younger brother, I give him a separate number.

29. MADDOCKS Charles. He gave a book to the school library in 1737, being described as of Troston, armiger. I presume he is a son of Robert Maddocks of Troston, who died in 1735. Robert Maddocks' widow married Rev. Benjamin Brundish. (See p. 47, No. 325.) She survived him till 1763, when Troston passed to her nephew, Edward Capel. (See p. 60, No. 27.) So I presume Charles Maddocks died young.
30. MAITLAND Pelham Thomas. Son of Gilbert George Maitland of Madras, armiger. At Bury school 1830—32. Sixth form. Foreigner. Adm. to Magdalene Coll. June 1832 aged 18. B.A. 1838. Ordained 1839. Rector of Fradswell, Staffs., 1851—56. Vicar of St. James, Wolverhampton, 1856—1863. Chaplain at Naples 1863—75. Vicar of Birchfield, Staffs., 1875—91. Died c. 1891.
31. MAJOR ——. At Bury school 1829—33. Royalist.
N.B.—This may be a son of Henry Major, who died May 1854 aged 87, and has a stone in Bury churchyard. Three more (apparently) sons lie in the cemetery, viz. :—Henry died 1861 aged 57; William died 1884 aged 78; Josiah died 1898 aged 86. These are all too old to fit the date at school.
32. MAKIN Leonard Walter. Son of L. F. Makin of Bury St. Edmunds, grocer. At Bury school 1898—1901.
33. MALKIN Benjamin Heath. Born at Hackney, Middlesex. Eldest son of Benjamin Heath Malkin, headmaster. At Bury school under his father. Elected to Hewer exhibition Sept. 1814. Adm. to Trin. Coll. Sept. 1813 aged 17. Third wrangler. Fellow. A judge of the supreme court at Calcutta. Knighted. Died at Calcutta Oct. 1837 aged 40.

Classic. First Chancellor's Medallist. Fellow. Author of a History of Greece. Died May 1830 aged 28.
35. MALKIN Arthur Thomas. Born at Hackney, Middlesex. Third son of Benjamin Heath Malkin, headmaster. Five years in sixth form 1817—21. Captain in 1821. Foreigner. Elected to Dean Sudbury exhibition Feb. 1822. Adm. to Trin. Coll. July 1820 aged 18 (i.e. when he went into residence). First class Class. Trip. 1825. Wrote for the Society for Diffusion of Useful Knowledge. Was an oarsman and alpine climber. Died c. 1888 aged 85.

36. MALKIN Charles John. Born April 1808. Youngest son of Benjamin Heath Malkin, headmaster. At Bury school 1817—25. Four years in sixth form. Second in the school in May 1825. Died Nov. 1825 aged 17. Buried in the churchyard at Bury.

38. MALTBY Henry Joseph. Born at Shrewsbury. Son of Edward Maltby, Bishop of Durham. At Bury school 1829—31. Sixth form. Adm. to Caius Coll. May 1831 aged 19. Rector of Eaglescliffe. Canon of Durham. Died at Durham Nov. 1863.
 N.B.—His father had been domestic chaplain to Bishop Pretymann, an old Bury boy, who may have recommended his old school. Bishop of Chichester 1831. Durham 1836. Died July 1859 aged 89.
39. MALTYWARD Geoffrey. Bapt. at Rougham 1640. Eldest son of Robert Maltward of Rougham, barrister. He is in the school list for 1656. He married Frances Everard, the heiress of Thurston hall manor in Hawkedon. Died Sept. 1719 aged 79. Tombstone in Hawkedon church.
40. MALTYWARD John. Son of Robert Maltward of Rougham. In the Bury school list for 1656. Six years there under Stevens. Adm. to Caius Coll. June 1662 aged 16. Gray's Inn 1664. Living in Dec. 1689.
41. MALTYWARD Robert. Born 1673. Eldest son of Geoffrey Maltward, No. 39. Succeeded to his mother's estate at Hawkedon. Died Aug. 1728 aged 55. Buried at Hawkedon.
42. MALTYWARD Everard. Younger son of Geoffrey Maltward, No. 39. Queen's Coll. B.A. 1707. Rector of Hawkedon 1709—1728. Died June 1728 aged 44. Buried at Hawkedon.

N.B.—Dr. Leeds includes Maltward among his pupils from Suffolk. Nos. 39 and 40 could barely have been there in his time. I have therefore included the two sons of No. 39, though I have no proof of them. But they are very high probabilities.

43. MALYN John. Son of Rev. Robert Malyn, deceased, of Occold, Suffolk. Adm. to Bury school Jan. 1740. Foreigner. Pembroke Coll. M.A. 1750.
44. MALYN Robert. Son of Rev. Robert Malyn, deceased, of Occold. Adm. to Bury school Jan. 1740. Foreigner. Jesus Coll. B.A. 1753.

46. MANISTREE ——. This boy without a christian name is in the Bury school list for Midsummer 1713. Foreigner. He may be Edward, father of the next boy, or John of Corpus Coll., B.A. 1724.
Edmund Manistree occupied a small house in Pakenham in 1674.

63. MAPLETOFT John. Born 1687. Son of John Mapletoft of Hunts, physician and divine. He gave a book to the school library in 1731, either as an old scholar, or, perhaps, only as the father of a present one. (See No. 64.) Rector of Broughton 1718—53; of Byfield, Northants, 1721—53. Died at Byfield May 1763. As the giving of a book to the school library is the only leg on which he stands, he cannot be considered a certainty; but a Suffolk connection makes him probable.

64. MAPLETOFT Robert. Son of Rev. John Mapletoft of Byfield, No. 63. Adm. to Bury school Sept. 1730. Foreigner. Clare Coll. B.A. 1743.

N.B.—It is not quite clear how many boys of this name are in the school lists. There is a third form boy in 1817, none in 1818, two each in 1819 and 1820. The boy of 1817 might have been ill or accidentally omitted in 1818, and so be the same as the elder boy of 1819. Or he may be another boy. As there is no other brother whose age will suit he is probably the same boy.

100. MARTIN ——. In Bury school lists 1820—22. Foreigner.

113B. MATHEW H. Too late to give him a separate number I notice that another of the boys who figures in that engraving is H. Mathew. I presume he is a brother of George.

In 1702 William Maynard gave a book to the school library in memory of his son Thomas, pupil of this school. I should certainly have taken that to imply that Thomas was dead. But he was not dead. In July 1723 he was appointed a commissioner of customs. He inherited through his stepmother the Prescott estate at Hoxne. Dr. Randall dedicates the oft quoted volume to him, 1719, in a preface of four pages. He also gives him a poem of twenty-two lines, and to him and his brother jointly another of ten lines, speaking of him with great affection. He died in 1742. A huge monument in Hoxne church contains his full sized figure, with an enormously long inscription which says much but tells nothing.

142. MEREST James Drage. Eldest son of James Merest of Soham, Cambs. I have no certain proof that he went to Bury school, but it is most probable. Adm. to St. John's Coll. Dec. 1808. Did not graduate. Lived for some years in Bury, at 34, Angel hill, and for a time at the Priory, Fornham All Saints, where he buried his first wife in 1842. Married (2) Maria Dowding Billington Hawes, an eminent professional singer, daughter of William Hawes, singer and composer. Was a commissioner for the commutation of tithes. Died at Ryde, Isle of Wight, Dec. 25, 1860.

150. METCALFE Charles. Son of William Metcalfe of Fordham, Cambs. Died Sept. 1757 in his 12th year. Buried at St. James', Bury St. Edmunds.

N.B.—I imagine that he was a Grammar school boy. His stone is next that of John Styleman, who certainly died while at Bury school. His brother,

No. 149, only just comes into my list, as the admission book leaves off with 1753.

151. METCALFE John Joseph. Son of Henry George Price Metcalfe of Hawstead. At Bury school 1895—99. Now on the Morning Post staff.

Mortlock, chaplain to the E.I.C., an eminent Oriental scholar. I don't know whether I am right in identifying the oriental scholar with this clergyman. If not, this clergyman must go, as I have no authority for him.

222. MOUNTAIN Robert F. Son of Robert Mountain. In Bury school list for 1817. First form. Royalist. Fishmonger at Bury. Died there Dec. 1899 aged 88. Buried in the cemetery. I cannot be sure that I have rightly identified this boy.

230. MUMBEE George. Son of Valentine Mumbree deceased, late of Kingston in Jamaica. Adm. to Bury school Sept. 1743. Foreigner.

N.B.—This entry is puzzling. Valentine Mumbree came from Jamaica and c. 1740 bought the Covell estate in Horringer. (See COVELL.) He died there Sept. 1750 aged 55, and has a tombstone in Horringer church. Either this boy George must be his very much younger brother, or, if George is his son, the word deceased in the Bury admission book is a mistake, the scribe being deceived by the word late that follows it.

231. MUNBEE Valentine. Son of Valentine Munbee of Horringer. Three years at Bury under Garnham. Adm. to Caius Coll. April 1758 aged 18. Adm. to Middle Temple April 1758. He sold his Horringer estate in 1768. The name is written Mumbree and Munbee.

241. MUSKETT Edward. Born Aug. 1825. Fourth and youngest son of John Musket. Went to Eton in 1835, but had left before 1838. I cannot see his name in the Bury school lists, but he is mentioned among the old scholars who were present at the festival in 1850. Was agent to the duke of Norfolk. Died at North Lopham March 1898. Buried in the churchyard at Bury.

N.B.—John Musket, father of these four boys, was agent to the duke of Norfolk. He lived first at Fornham, and then at Bury in the house looking upon the churchyard, next beyond Clopton's Hospital. He died Nov. 1862 aged 85, and has a tombstone in the churchyard.

6. NAYLOR George. Son of Francis Naylor of Offord, Hunts. Adm. to Bury school July 1742. Foreigner. Adm. to Trin. Coll. June 1745 aged 17. D.D. 1768.
7. NEALE ——. He is in Bury school list 1825. First form.

Edward Pote Neale, son of John Neale of London, was admitted to Trin. Coll. Dec. 1820 aged 20, having been privately educated under Bullen. Bullen must mean Henry St. John Bullen (p. 50, No. 345,) taking pupils at one of his rectory houses. This boy may be a younger brother of Edward Pote, for whom Henry Bullen recommended his old school.

OR, John Mason Neale, the hymn writer, was born Jan. 1818. His father, Rev. Cornelius Neale, died in 1823, leaving an only boy. The boy's mother was a daughter of Dr. Good, who had practised at Sudbury for ten years, and her mother was of a Sudbury family. So with this Suffolk connection it is just possible that the boy was sent to school at Bury. But I have nothing to support this guess.

8. NEGUS Francis Colman. Son of Daniel Negus of Eye, Suffolk, attorney, who married Elizabeth Colman of Ellingham. Mentioned in Minute book Jan. 1765 as late a scholar of this school and now a student at Clare Hall. Clare

N.B.—The Caius Coll. book only gives his school as Lincoln, six years. But to have got a Hewer exhibition he must have been also at Bury school.

Died Dec. 1787 aged 27.
23. NORFORD Charles. Son of William Norford, surgeon. Nine years at Bury under Laurents and Becher. Elected to Hewer exhibition Feb. 1796. Adm. to Caius Coll. 1795 aged 19. Rector of Weston Birt, Glouc., 1803—67. Died Sept. 1867 aged 90.
 N.B.—William Norford, father of these two boys, was a surgeon and physician of note, and will be found in D. N. B. Born in 1715 he practised first at Halesworth, and then settled and died at Bury. He died March 1793 aged 73, and has a tombstone in St. James' church. By his second wife he had seven sons, who probably all went to Bury school, though I only have authority to include two. But I may here set down two more who are named on his tombstone, viz., James, Lieutenant R.N., who died aged 29; and Henry, Captain in 76th Regiment, who was killed in action with Holkar at Deeg in the East Indies, aged 26.
24. NORGATE Thomas. Born at Diss. Eldest son of Thomas Norgate of Great Ashfield, M.D. Nine years at Bury under Becher. Elected to Hewer exhibition Sept. 1800. Adm. to Caius Coll. May 1800 aged 18. Was ordained. Died May 1810 aged 29. Mural tablet in Badwell Ash church.

N.B.—Thomas Norgate of Ashfield house, father of these three boys, died Feb. 1818 aged 67. Buried at Badwell Ash.

27. NORMAN Peter. Son of John Norman of Bury St. Edmunds, mediæ fortunæ. At Bury under Wright. Adm. to Caius Coll. Feb. 1585 aged 18.

28. NORMAN Edmund. Son of Mrs. Mary Norman of Bury St. Edmunds, widow. Adm. to Bury school June 1735. Royalist. Chief Alderman of Bury 1773. Died Dec. 1799 aged 72. Tombstone in St. James' church.

N.B.—His father, Charles Norman, died Dec. 1730 aged 31. Mrs. Mary Norman died Aug. 1789 aged 92. Their tombstone is in St. James' church.

29. NORRIS George. Son of William Norris, rector of Kilverstone, Norfolk. At Bury under Laurents; at Norwich under Parr. Adm. to Caius Coll. March 1785 aged 19. Vicar of Geist, rector of Bagthorpe, Norfolk. Died at Norwich Oct. 1832.

30. NORTH Henry. Son of Henry North of Laxfield, Suffolk. At Bury under Stevens. Adm. to John's Feb. 1650 past 14. Married at Euston July 1653 to Elizabeth Wingfield of Letheringham. Died Dec. 1674. Buried at Letheringham.

N.B.—“Past 14” means, I think, a good deal past it. His mother had died 14 years before, and probably that is all it means.

31. NORTH Francis. Baptized at Kirtling Nov. 1637. Third son of Dudley, fourth Lord North of Kirtling. Over two years at Bury school. “Much may be attributed to the finishing of him at Bury school under Dr. Stevens, a cavalier master. He was so forward and exact a scholar there, that the bulky doctor in his pedantic strain used to say he was the crown of all his "endeavours. Before he went to Cambridge the master employed him to "make an alphabetical index of all the verbs neuter; and he did it so "completely that the doctor had it printed with Lilly's grammar, for the "proper use of his own school." So says his brother Roger North.

Adm. to John's Coll. June 1653 aged 15. Called to the bar June 1661. M.P. for Lynn. Chief Justice. Keeper of the great seal. Created Baron Guildford Sept. 1683. Died Sept. 1685 aged 47. Buried at Wroxton, co. Oxford. In D. N. B.

32. NORTH Dudley. Born in London May 1641. Fourth son of Dudley, fourth Lord North of Kirtling. He is in the Bury school list for 1656. "He was "placed at Bury under Dr. Stevens, but made an indifferent scholar. He had "too much spirit, which would not be suppressed by conning his book, but "must be rather employed in perpetual action. With all that, his parts were "so quick that a little application went a great way with him; and in the end "he came out a moderate school-scholar." So says his brother Roger, who then goes on to tell how Dr. Stevens disliked and ill-used him.

He was apprenticed to a Turkey merchant and spent about twenty years in Constantinople and Smyrna. In 1680 he settled in London and became a leading man in the city. He died on the last day of 1691, and was buried in Covent Garden church. Twenty-five years later his body was removed to Glemham in Suffolk, where he had bought an estate. In D. N. B.

33. NORTH John. Born in London Sept. 1645. Fifth son of Dudley, fourth Lord North of Kirtling. He is in the Bury school list for 1656. "His "scholastic education was altogether at St. Edmund's Bury in Suffolk under "Dr. Stephens, then master of an eminent school there." While at Bury school his portrait was painted by Mr. Blemwell, who was then living at Bury, a friend of Sir Peter Lely. The boy was taken in the red cloak into which Dr. Stephens had lately put his boarders. This portrait is now at Rougham in Norfolk.

In 1661 he went up to Jesus Coll., and in 1666 became a Fellow. In 1672 Professor of Greek, in 1677 Master of Trinity. Soon afterwards he completely broke down in health. He died at Cambridge April 1683 aged 37 years. Buried in Trin. Coll. Chapel. In D. N. B.

34. NORTH Montague. Sixth son of Dudley, fourth Lord North of Kirtling. Was a Levant merchant. Kept as a prisoner of war at Toulon for three years; released in 1693. Made his home with his brother Roger at Rougham. Died in 1709.

I have no certain proof that this boy went to Bury school, but as the third, fourth, fifth and seventh sons went, it is extremely probable that the sixth did also. It is also likely that Charles, the eldest, went, but I will not include him. The second, Edward, died young.

35. NORTH Roger. Born at Tostock Sept. 1653. Seventh and youngest son of Dudley, fourth Lord North of Kirtling. "My first launching was to a country minister [Rev. Ezekiel Catchpole] in the neighbourhood. After that to the "Free School at Bury St. Edmunds, though very young and small." After a year at Bury school a bad illness. "Upon recovery from this sickness I was "sent again to my old parson." Then after two or three years to the Free School of Thetford. In Oct. 1667 to Jesus Coll. Became a barrister and had a very large practice. In 1690 he bought Rougham in Norfolk. There he died in March 1734 aged 80 years.

He left in manuscript the Lives of his three brothers and his own Autobiography, which were eventually published, and from which I have been quoting. In the memoir of him in the D. N. B. Dr. Jessopp ignores the fact of his having gone to Bury, and only mentions Mr. Catchpole and Thetford.

36. NORTH Henry. Only son of Sir Henry North, first baronet, of Mildenhall. Adm. to Gray's Inn Nov. 1647. Succeeded his father as second baronet Aug. 1671. M.P. for Suffolk 1685—87. Died unmarried July 1695. Some books were given by him to the school library in 1695. He is described in the catalogue as eques auratus.

NORTH Dudley Long. See LONG Dudley.

37. NORTON Thomas. Born 1684. Son of Colonel William Norton of Wellow, Hants. Went into the army. Became Colonel. In Dec. 1708 succeeded his uncle, Major Richard Norton, at Ixworth abbey, Suffolk. M.P. for Bury 1727—47. Deputy Governor of Chelsea Hospital 1730. Died 1748.

I must explain on what grounds I include him. In his volume, published 1719, Dr. Randall has a poem to certain youths who served in Flanders under Marlborough. The first whom he names is Norton.

Nortonum imprimis schola regia jactat alumnum,
Quem novit fortem Belgica terra ducem.

I take this to mean Thomas Norton of Ixworth, not seeing anyone else who it can be.

There are also twenty-eight lines on the death of his wife, who was Frances, daughter of Sir Compton Felton of Playford.

38. NORTON Richard. Bapt. at Ixworth July 1715. Only son of Colonel Thomas Norton of Ixworth, No. 37. Instructed at Playford under Mr. James Doyly, his mother being a Felton of Playford. Adm. to Sidney Sussex Coll. May 1732 in his sixteenth year. Entered as son of Thomas Norton, tribuni militum. Did not graduate. Married in 1734 to Isabella Hutchinson of Westminster. Lived at Ipswich. Died 1781. NOT a Grammar school boy that I know of.
39. NORTON Thomas. Son of Thomas [sic] Norton of Ipswich. Adm. to Bury school Aug. 1748. Foreigner. The Bury school admission book often gives the father a wrong christian name, and I feel pretty sure that that is the case here. This boy must be a son of Richard (not Thomas) Norton, No. 38. He must have died young, before his father, as Ixworth passed to the Cartwrights by John Cartwright's marriage to Richard Norton's daughter.
40. NORTON Thomas Edmund. Eldest son of Charles Norton of Rickingham. At Bury school 1883—87. Foreigner. Now at Rickingham.
41. NORTON Charles Baldrey. Second son of Charles Norton of Rickingham. At Bury school 1883—87. Foreigner. Now at Rickingham.

44. NORWICH William. Son of Thomas Norwich of Bury, chiropolæ. He is in the Bury school list for 1656.

N.B. I have differed from Dr. Donaldson in reading the word descriptive of the father's occupation. He read it vasopolæ, which is certainly wrong. I am not equally certain that my reading is right.

45. NOTSON ——. He is in the Bury school list for 1713. Royalist. There is a Nicholas Notson at Bury in the Suffolk poll-book for 1727.

46. NOTTIDGE Arthur. Son of Rev. Edward Nottidge, rector of Black Notley, Essex. At Bury school 1868—72. Boarder. Jesus Coll. B.A. He was ordained. Died soon afterwards aged c. 25 years.

50. NUNN Robert. Bapt. at Risby 1727. Son of Robert Nunn of Risby, Suffolk. Adm. to Bury school Jan. 1738. Foreigner. Jesus Coll. B.A. 1749. Curate of Langham. Vicar of Pakenham 1763, 1764. Rector of Hemingstone. Succeeded his uncle, No. 49, as patron and rector of Hepworth in 1781. Died Jan. 1797. Buried at Hepworth.
51. NUNN ——. In Bury school lists 1817, 1818. Foreigner. I can only guess that this may be Sturley Nunn of Ixworth, solicitor, father of Frederick, No. 53.
52. NUNN ——. At Bury school 1838—41. Royalist. Probably Sturley Nunn, eldest son of Sturley Nunn of Ixworth, solicitor. Was a solicitor.
53. NUNN Frederick. Son of Sturley Nunn of Ixworth, solicitor. At Bury school 1849—56. Four years in sixth form. Captain of the school. Foreigner. Emmanuel Coll. B.A. 1860. M.A. 1864. Was ordained. Was a master at Lancing and Derby schools. Wrote for the Echo. Died Dec. 1870. Buried at Ixworth.

Settled at Ipswich in 1851 as teacher of music and organist. Adm. to John's Coll. Jan. 1865. Mus. B. 1867. Published his Musical Recollections, 1899. He says, At the age of six I was sent to school at Blomfield house. He (Rev. James Blomfield) took pupils, of whom I was one, into his house ; but he imparted the English portion of our education only, and we went daily to the Grammar school for classics. . . . I studied there under Mr. Edwards and afterwards under Dr. Donaldson. . . . Mr. Blomfield was presented to the living of Orsett, and was succeeded by Mr. Charles Lockwood, under whom my school days were brought to a close. P. 14. This extract shows how the two schools pulled together. Died Feb. 1901. Buried in Ipswich cemetery.

55. NUNN John Hopkins. Born 1828. Second son of Robert Nunn, musician. At Bury school 1836—37. Royalist. Organist at Sherborne Abbey. Afterwards organist and professor of music at Penzance. Died there c. 1903. Buried at Penzance.
56. NUNN Robert Whitmore. Youngest son of Robert Nunn, musician, by his second wife. At Bury school 1873—76. Royalist. Was organist at Columbo Cathedral.

N.B.—Robert Nunn, father of these three boys, came from Eye and settled in Bury St. Edmunds. He was organist at St. Mary's church for nearly fifty years, living in his house in the churchyard now called St. Margaret's. I had lessons on the violin there more than fifty years ago. His brother William, from whom I also had lessons on the violin, told me that when he was a boy he was chained to his music-stand to practice for hours together. Robert Nunn died April 1863 aged 70, and has a tombstone in Bury churchyard.
57. NUNN George Frederick Roper. Eldest son of George Harvey Nunn of Eldo House. At Bury school 1860—63. Royalist. Now living in Bury St. Edmunds.

N.B.—James Oakes, the father of this boy, was born in Manchester c. 1700; and about 1729 left Manchester and settled in Bury St. Edmunds; whereby the Grammar school gained a good many scholars during the 150 years that followed.

N.B.—His much younger brother, Henry Paman, was a man of some note and will be found in the D. N. B. Born 1626. To Emman. Coll. June 1643, where Sancroft was his tutor. Migrated to John's Coll. July 1646. Fellow. M.A. 1650. M.D. 1658. Public orator 1674. Gresham Prof. Physician. Refused the oath to William III. Died June 1695. Buried at St. Paul's, Covent Garden.—He is very likely to have stepped across from Chevington to Bury school, as his elder brother did, perhaps several of them, skirting the then modest-sized and temporarily disparked park at Ickworth, along the old road which now remains as a grass track, reaching Bury close by the site of the Thingoe Union Workhouse and Hospital, through the west gate, out again at the east gate, and so into the eastgate street where the school then stood. His life-long friendship with Sancroft could hardly have begun at Bury school, as Sancroft was nine years older than him. But the school in common may have helped to it, and Sancroft would have been contemporary with his elder brother. However, I have no authority to include him, and he may have gone to Lavenham; and so all I can do is to smuggle him into a N.B.

30. PARKER Edward. Born in London. Son of John Parker Esq. of Middlesex. At Bury school. Adm. to John's May 1748 aged 16. From the notes to the St. John's Coll. Admissions he appears to have been rather a rowdy undergraduate and was at last expelled. He died at Browsholm Dec. 1794 aged 63. Buried at Waddington.

N.B.—In the Bury school admission book there is this entry:—Edward, son of Edward Parker Esq. of Broseholm in Yorkshire, adm. Jan. 12, 1740. This must be the rowdy undergraduate, and so I imagine that the Bury book has misnamed the father, as it sometimes does. But if it has not done so, nor the John's book either, then there should be two Edwards, one of whom would be the brother of Thomas. Edmund and Edward are often confounded.

31. PARKER ma. In Bury school lists 1826—28. Royalist.

32. PARKER mi. In Bury school lists 1827—28. Royalist.

N.B.—Mr. B. Parker was among the old scholars present at the festival in 1850. If that means Benjamin Dowman Parker, he would be one of the two. He was a hosier in the Butter Market, died May 1872 aged 58, and was buried in the cemetery. But if it means Benjamin Parker, gun maker, who died May 1860 aged 64, he would not be one of the two.

Died April 1770. Tablet in Gillingham church.
 N.B.—He had a son Andrew, of Oriel Coll., who died a clergyman April 1771 aged 26, and has a tablet at Gillingham. He was probably not a Bury school boy. I mention him to prevent his being confused with the other Andrews.

He was dead by April 1652, when twenty-five shillings were granted to his mother for necessaries spent in his sickness. (Minute book.)

107. PEYTON ——. Dr. Leeds in 1690 includes Peyton among his scholars, past or present, from Suffolk ; but as he gives no christian name, and as Suffolke seems to mean eastern counties, and as Peytons are many, I cannot name the boy. Perhaps from Isleham, Cambs., or Boxford, Suffolk. The inscription over the west door in St. James' church at Bury says that Edward VI. gave a subscription to the finishing of the church and for the maintenance of the Free Grammar school at the humble suit of John Eyer and Christopher Peyton esquires. Probably Christopher was an ancestor.
108. PHELPS Philip William Foord. Son of Rev. Philip Edmund Phelps of Thetford. At Bury school April to June 1881. Foreigner.
109. PHELPS William Whitmarsh. Son of Rev. Philip Edmund Phelps of Thetford. At Bury school April to June 1881. Foreigner.

N.B.—John Phillips, father of these last three boys, was of Pall Mall, over fifty years surgeon to the royal household.

- N.B.—The father of this boy, and of No. 117, was brother to Nos. 112, 113, 114, but does not seem to have been at Bury school. He was fifty-seven years rector of Great Whelnetham, and fifty-five years vicar of Mildenhall. Died July 1873 aged 81.

- N.B.—He had two brothers, William and John, who very likely were both at Bury school. William died Oct. 1731 aged 65. There are flat stones in the chancel of Burgate church to the father and two sons.
120. PICKERING Thomas. Born in London. Educated at the public school of Bury St. Edmund. Adm. to Peterhouse Aug. 1674 aged 15. B.A. 1678.

In March 1675 the Governors of Bury school allowed him an exhibition of £5 a year, he being then at the University of Cambridge. Jesus Coll. B.A. 1678. Rector of Hawstead 1689—1720. Died Aug. 1720 aged 63. Buried at Hawstead.

N.B.—There were three rectors of Hawstead, father, son and grandson.

George Pitches, rector 1670—72; he died in 1672 aged 65, and his widow in 1706 aged 90; their tombstone is in Hawstead church.

Anthony his son, rector 1689—1720.

Richard, son of Anthony, rector 1720—27.

Dr. Randall in his list of old scholars prays that Anthony may lead the placid life of a country parson for ages:—

Rector et Hawstediae, nondum sub mole fatiscens

Annorum, placide sæcula læta trahat ;

Longævusque suos feliciter impleat annos ;

Et cum fata volent, molliter ossa cubent.

129. PITCHES Richard. Born at Wiston, Suffolk. Son of Anthony Pitches, rector of Hawstead, No. 128. Seven years at Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Caius Coll. April 1706 aged 18. Rector of Brettenham 1718—27, Hawstead 1720—1727. Died Oct. 1727 aged 40. Buried at Hawstead.
130. PITCHES Thomas. Bapt. at Hawstead Nov. 1700. Youngest son of Anthony Pitches, rector of Hawstead, No. 128. In Bury school list 1713. Foreigner. In the poll book for 1727 he appears living at Moulton.
131. PITKIN Robert. Son of Mrs. Pitkin of Bury St. Edmunds, widow. Adm. to Bury school Feb. 1736. Royalist.
132. PITKIN John. Son of Mrs. Pitkin of Otten Belchamp, Essex, widow. Adm. to Bury school Aug. 1741. Foreigner.
133. PITT Joshua. Son of Francis Pitt of Newmarket. Adm. to Bury school July 1731. Foreigner. Corpus Christi Coll. B.A. 1744.
134. PITT Ridgway, Earl of Londonderry. Second but eldest surviving son of Thomas Pitt, first Earl of Londonderry. Succeeded his brother as third Earl of Londonderry in Aug. 1734. Adm. to Bury school Feb. 1737. Foreigner. Adm. to John's Coll. Sept. 1740 aged 18. Did not graduate. Died unmarried Jan. 1765 aged 43, when the title became extinct.
 N.B.—Thomas Pitt, governor at Madras, who obtained the famous Pitt diamond, was grandfather of this boy. The boy's father was Thomas Pitt M.P., created Earl of Londonderry in the Kingdom of Ireland in 1726. In May 1728 he was appointed Governor of the Leeward Islands, and died at St. Kitts Sept. 1729. The boy's elder brother, Thomas, succeeded his father as second earl, but was killed by a fall from his horse Aug. 1734 aged 17. It is possible that he also was at Bury school, but as the list of admissions only begins in 1730 there is nothing to show it. William Pitt, the great Earl of Chatham, was first cousin to the Bury boy.
135. PIZZEY or PIZEY Robert. Son of William Pizzey of St. James', Bury St. Edmunds. Adm. to Bury school July 1742. Royalist. Died March 1794 aged 60. Buried in the churchyard at Bury.
136. PLAMPIN John. Son of John Plampin of Fornham All Saints. Adm. to Bury school Jan. 1737. Foreigner. He succeeded to Chadacre, and married Elizabeth Francis, daughter of Hon. Rev. H. Hervey Aston. She died Oct. 1774 aged 42, and he survived her. He occasionally, and his six children constantly, are mentioned in the Journals of Hon. W. Hervey. One of his daughters married Orbell Ray Oakes, who and his descendants all came to Bury school.

137. PLAMPIN John. Eldest son of John Plampin of Chadacre hall, No. 136. Jesus Coll. B.A. 1776. Fellow and tutor. Rector of Whatfield and Stanstead. Died May 1823 aged 68. Buried at Shimpling. I have no proof of his having been at Bury school, but as he was close by, and as his father and younger brother certainly were there, he is a high probability.
138. PLAMPIN Robert. Born 1762. Second son of John Plampin of Chadacre, No. 136. Went into the navy and became an admiral. Died at Florence Feb. 1834 aged 72. Buried at Wanstead, Essex. In D. N. B. I have no proof of his having been at Bury school, but he is a high probability.
139. PLAMPIN George. Bapt. at Shimpling April 1765. Third son of John Plampin of Chadacre hall, No. 136. At Bury under Laurents. Of Caius Coll. and Jesus Coll. B.A. 1788. Rector of Depden and Stanstead, Suffolk. Died at Long Melford Aug. 1795. Buried at Shimpling.

At a meeting of the Governors of Bury school on 29 April, 1784, the upper master complained of several of the boys for locking up the school and not suffering him to enter, and quitting his house without his leave. The Governors after considering the charge ordered two boys, George Plampin and Thomas Barnard Sparrow, to be dismissed.—He is mentioned in the will of Augustus Hervey, July 1781, as being “now at school at Bury St. Edmunds.” So there is triple authority for including him.

140. PLEASANCE Thomas. Son of John Pleasance of Tuddenham, Suffolk, mediæ fortunæ. Seven years at Bury. Adm. to Caius Coll. Oct. 1567 aged 18. Adm. to Gray's Inn 1571. Will proved Nov. 1616.

N.B.—The Visitation of Suffolk, 1612, gives him five sons who may have all come to school at Bury. There is a Pleasance pedigree by D.E.D. in the Jermyn MSS at Moyses hall, which gives swarms of nephews, who also may all have come.

141. PLESTOW Charles Berners. Son of Charles Berners Plestow. At Bury school 1837—41. Sixth form. Foreigner.
142. PLESTOW H. C. B. Son of Charles Berners Plestow. At Bury school 1837—1842. Sixth form. Foreigner.
143. PLUM ——. In the Bury school list for 1825 only.

144. PLUME John. Born at Shelford, Essex. Son of Edmund Plume. At Bury under Stephens, and privately under Blemell. Adm. to Christ's April 1653 aged 16.
145. PLUMMER Robert. He gave a book to the school library in 1674 and 1682, which is my only authority for including him. I presume he is the Robert Plummer who in 1674 was occupying a house in St. James' parish at Bury with seven hearths in it ; and as he is next in the list to Mr. Hall who was occupying what was left of the abbey, his house must have been in that neighbourhood.
146. PLUMMER Robert. At Bury school 1843—49. Sixth form. Foreigner.
147. PLUMMER Mathew. At Bury school 1847—51. Sixth form. Foreigner.
148. PLUMMER Benjamin. At Bury school 1847—52. Foreigner.
These three boys came from Newcastle on Tyne.
149. POCKLINGTON Robert. Born at Chelsworth, Suffolk, Dec. 1799. Eldest son of Robert Pocklington. At Bury school under Malkin. Adm. to Trin. Coll. April 1820. Did not graduate. Died Sept. 1865. Buried at Chelsworth.
150. POINTER Ernest. Son of Mrs. G. H. Pointer of Northgate street, Bury St. Edmunds. At Bury school 1892—95. Royalist.
151. POLE Brewster. Son of Edward Pole of Stanton, Suffolk. Adm. to Bury school Sept. 1745. Foreigner.
152. POLEY John. Born at Boxted Jan. 1637. Eldest son of Sir William Poley, knight. Succeeded his father at Boxted in 1664. He gave a book to the school library in 1690, which is my authority for including him. He is described in the catalogue as "of Boxted, eques auratus." M.P. for Sudbury in the Convention Parliament of 1688, and made a short speech, which another old Bury school boy, Sir Richard Gipps, reported and has handed down. It has been twice printed in Suff. Arch. Inst. Proc. ; III. 369. VIII. 189. He died Sept. 1705. Buried at Boxted.
153. POLEY Thomas. Born at Boxted Aug. 1642. Second son of Sir William Poley, eques auratus. In Bury school list 1656. In March 1664 he was apprenticed for seven years to William Allington, citizen and fishmonger of London, to learn the trade. The indenture of his apprenticeship was in the possession of the late Mr. Henry Prigg, who printed it in his Memorials of the Past. Married Frances, daughter of Sir Richard Head of Rochester. Lived at Rochester. Died 1690. His eldest daughter married Robert Weller, and from them are descended the present Weller Poleys of Boxtead, descendants of No. 152 having failed.

154. POLEY William. Born at Boxtead March 1647. Third son of Sir William Poley, knight. "By a dismal accident drowned at Liston" Feb. 14, 1711, aged 64. Buried at Boxted. As he was drowned at Liston I imagine that he was the William Poley whom the hearth tax return for 1674 shows occupying a house with four hearths at Long Melford. Either he or William Poley, No. 155, gave a book to the school library in 1683. I cant say which, so I include them both. Both are high probabilities without the book.
155. POLEY William. Bapt. at St. Mary's at Bury Jan. 1653. Eldest son of Sir John Poley of Bury. Married at Long Melford to Philippa Waldegrave in 1685. Died Jan. 1702. Buried at Boxted. Either he or No. 154 gave a book to the school library in 1683. He is described in the Boxted register as "of Bury St. Edmunds," so I presume he inherited his father's house at Bury and occupied it. But he is not there in the hearth tax returns for 1674.
156. POLEY John. Bapt. at St. Mary's, Bury, Sept. 1655. Second son of Sir John Poley of Bury. Queen's Coll. B.A. 1674. Fellow. B.D. 1687. He gave a book to the school library in 1703. Apparently he was still living at Cambridge when Dr. Randall's volume was published, 1719.
157. POLEY Despotine. Bapt. at St. Mary's, Bury, Feb. 1656. Third son of Sir John Poley of Bury. Adm. to Jesus Coll. 1673. Did not graduate. I have no authority to include him. But being brought up in Bury he is a high probability.
158. POLEY Henry. Eldest surviving son of Sir Edmund Poley of Badley, Suff. Jesus Coll. B.A. 1672. Fellow. He gave a book to the school library in 1672. This being an actual leaving book makes him an absolute certainty. Of the Middle Temple. M.P. for Bury, Eye and Ipswich. Died Aug. 1707 aged 54. Buried at Badley.
159. POLEY Edmund. Born at Bury Dec. 1655. Second surviving son of Sir Edmund Poley of Badley. He gave a book to the school library in 1672. This also is an actual leaving book. Jesus Coll. B.A. 1674. Fellow. Ambassador to Savoy. According to Dr. Randall he died of fever after his return home. Died May 1714. Buried at Badley.

N.B.—These Poleys have taken some time to get into shape, and require a note.

Sir William Poley of Boxted, father of Nos. 152, 153, 154, died May 1664 and was buried at Boxted. His wife was sister of Sir Symonds Dewes, No. 96.

Sir John Poley of Bury, father of Nos. 155, 156, 157, was younger brother of that Sir William. He died Nov. 1664, and was buried at Boxted. His wife was a daughter and co-heiress of Doctor Despotine, a physician who had come from Venice with William Bedell and settled in Bury. I imagine that Sir John Poley lived at Bury in what had been Dr. Despotine's house, somewhere in St. Mary's parish.

Sir Edmund Poley of Badley, father of Nos. 158, 159, died Oct. 1671, and was buried at Badley. His wife was Esther Crofts of Little Saxham. The common ancestor of the Poleys of Boxted and of Badley was so far back that at this time they were practically not related.

Dr. Randall devotes sixteen lines to the Poleys. As far as I can understand him he mentions four individuals. There is "nobile par fratrum," of whom one is sent abroad and the other looks after public rights at home. They must be the two from Badley, one of whom was barrister and M.P., the other an ambassador. Another, he says, studies and lives at Cambridge. That might be the fellow of Queen's College. Another from Boxted "teneris mihi charus in annis." He can hardly be one of the three from Boxted in my list, but he might be one of the sons of No. 152, whom I have not included; either John who lived to be 91 (1676—1757) or William who died 1698 aged 14. I ought to have included both these and others besides.

160. POOLE Arthur. Son of Colonel Poole of East Bergholt. At Bury school 1850—54. Foreigner.
161. PORTER ——. Dr. Leeds in 1690 includes a Porter from Suffolk among his past pupils.
162. PORTER Thomas. Son of Aubry Porter of Bury St. Edmunds. At Bury school under Leeds. Adm. to Trin. Coll. Feb. 1701 aged 16. Did not graduate. His death is thus recorded in the Diary of Lord Bristol on Dec. 5, 1705:—"My nephew Tom Porter dyed of a fever at Vienna in Germany "about two afternoon."

N.B.—Aubry Porter, father of this boy, was a grandson of Endymion Porter. He married Kezia Hervey, sister of John, Lord Bristol, whereby he became M. P. for Bury from 1708 till his death in 1717. Possibly he is the boy included by Dr. Leeds, No. 161.

163. PORTER —. At Bury school 1857—60. Boarder.
164. PORTWAY George. Born 1815. Eldest son of George Portway of Bury St. Edmunds, hosier. At Bury school in 1828. Royalist. Was a cloth manufacturer at Leeds. Died in 1880. Buried at Leeds.
165. PORTWAY William. Second son of George Portway. At Bury school in 1832. Royalist. Died July 1844 aged 24. Buried in the churchyard at Bury.
166. PORTWAY John. Third son of George Portway. At Bury school in 1835. Royalist. Was a chemist in Abbeygate street, Bury St. Edmunds. Died Nov. 1895 aged 73. Buried in the churchyard at Bury.
167. PORTWAY Charles. Fourth son of George Portway. At Bury school in 1842. Royalist. Ironmonger at Sudbury and Halstead. Now living at Halstead.
- N.B.—George Portway, father of these four boys, died May 1868 aged 77, and has a tombstone in Bury churchyard.
168. POSTLE Thomas. Son of Mrs. Charlotte Postle of Hatter street, widow. At Bury school 1851—55. Royalist. Died Dec. 1856 aged 17. Buried in the cemetery at Bury.
169. POTTER Charles. Born at Dorchester. Son of Rev. Charles Potter of Godmanchester. Adm. to Bury school June 1737. Foreigner. Half a year there, and then six years at Oakham, Rutland. Adm. to John's Coll. June 1745 aged 17. B.A. 1748.
170. POTTER —. In Bury school lists for 1818—22. Foreigner.
171. POTTS Algernon. Eldest surviving son of Sir Roger Potts of Great Ellingham, Norfolk. Adm. to Magdalene Coll. from Bury school 1690 aged 16. Did not graduate. Succeeded his father as fourth baronet in 1711. Died Sept. 1716. Buried at Mannington.

N.B.—He had three brothers, James, Philip and Charles. Dr. Randall seems to imply that more than one came to Bury school.

Inter Frestonios, Prestones atque Barones,
Pottosque et Mottos, lucide Brighte, nites.

I am therefore justified in naming the others though I may not number them.

James, eldest son, died young.

Philip died in 1698 aged 27, and has a monument in Great Ellingham church.

Charles succeeded his brother Algernon as fifth baronet in 1711, and died Jan. 1731 aged 56. His tombstone is in Great Ellingham church.

172. POULTER C. H. At Bury school 1867—70. Boarder. I am told he came from High Wycombe, Bucks.
173. POWELL Fred. Baptized at Hawstead June 1711. Youngest son of John Powell of Hammond's farm, Hawstead. At Bury school in 1721. Apprenticed in 1722 to Hammond & Singleton in London. An upholster. Died in London 1744. "Fred goes to Bury scoole every day morning and home at "nights alone, which is a great undertaking for one soe young." Letter from John Powell of Hawstead to his son David in London, May 6, 1721. (Information of Mr. Edgar Powell.)
174. POWELL J. H. He is among the old scholars unable to attend the festival in 1850.
175. POWELL Sidney. Son of Thomas Bolland Powell, formerly of Drogheda, at this time living at Northgate house on Fornham road. At Bury school 1869—74. Royalist. Now an army surgeon.
176. POWLES ——. In Bury school lists for 1825, 1826. Foreigner.
177. PRATT Edward. Eldest son of Roger Pratt of Ryston, Norf. Adm. to Bury school July 1730. Foreigner. Six years under Kinsman. Adm. to Caius Coll. Jan 1736 aged 18. Succeeded his father at Ryston. Died June 1784. Buried at Ryston.
178. PRATT Robert. Second son of Roger Pratt of Ryston. Adm. to Bury school July 1730. Foreigner. I can find no mention of this boy and think he must have died quite young, if he ever existed. In the Bury school admission book the entry states that "Edward and Robert, sons" [etc.] were admitted together. And as Edward's name seems to have been Edward Roger, I thought that Edward Roger might have got changed into Edward and Roger, and then Roger into Robert, which two names are often confounded. But as their mother's tombstone says that when she died in 1731 she left three sons, it is probable that Robert is all right, though Blomfield and Jermyn MSS. ignore him.
179. PRATT Jermyn. Third son of Roger Pratt of Ryston. Adm. to Bury school Oct. 1731. Eight years under Kinsman. Adm. to Caius Coll. June 1741 aged 18. Rector of Marlingford and Watlington. Died Oct. 1791.

N.B.—Roger Pratt, father of these three boys, married Henrietta Davers of Rushbrooke, and died March 1771 aged 82. She died Sept. 1731.

180. PRESS William. Son of Mrs. Press of Bury St. Edmund's. Adm. to Bury school Jan. 1736. Royalist.

181. PRESTON Isaac. Born at Waldingfield, Suffolk. Eldest son of Jacob Preston of Beeston St. Lawrence, Norfolk, armiger. In the Bury school list for 1656. Adm. to Christ's Coll. May 1657 aged 16. Knighted by William III. in 1695. Died Dec. 1708 aged 68. Buried at Beeston.

N.B.—His mother was Frances, daughter of Sir Isaac Appleton of Waldingfield, which accounts for his being born there.

182. PRESTON Thomas. Second son of Jacob Preston of Beeston. He is in the Bury school list for 1656.

N.B.—John was the second born son, as his mother's tombstone shows, but he probably died in infancy.

183. PRESTON Jacob. Third son of Jacob Preston of Beeston. He is in the Bury school list for 1656.

184. PRESTON Francis. Fourth son of Jacob Preston of Beeston. He is in the Bury school list for 1656. The Visitation of Norfolk, 1664, does not give him, so perhaps he was dead before then.

185. PRESTON Charles. Born 1646. Fifth and youngest son of Jacob Preston of Beeston. In the Bury school list for 1656. Magd. Coll. B.A. 1666. Fellow. Rector of Beeston 1670—1713.

N.B.—Jacob Beeston, father of these five boys who were all at school together, died Sept. 1683 aged 70, and lies at Beeston.

186. PRESTON Jacob. Eldest son of Sir Isaac Preston, of Beeston, No. 181. Educated at the public school of Bury St. Edmunds. Adm. to Magdalene Coll. May 1693 in his 16th year. Did not graduate.

187. PRESTON Jacob. Born in Norwich. Son of Isaac Preston of Beeston St. Lawrence. Adm. to Bury school July 1750. Nine years there under Garnham. Foreigner. Adm. to Caius Coll. May 1759 aged 17. Adm. to Lincoln's Inn 1761. Died Oct. 1787. Buried at Beeston.

N.B.—In the Bury admission book the father is called Jacob Preston of Norwich. Probably the Caius book is right.

188. PRESTON ——. In Bury school lists 1822—25. Foreigner. I presume he is the Mr. C. A. Preston who was among the old scholars unable to attend the festival in 1850.
189. PRESTON Arthur Waters. Son of Arthur Preston of Norwich, solicitor. At Bury school 1868—72. Boarder. Now a solicitor at Norwich.
190. PRETTY ——. Apparently there was a boy of this name in Dr. Randall's time. If I rightly understand some of his lines, two boys absented themselves from morning service at church on St. Barnabas' day. These were the names of the culprits :—

Perbonus ille fuit, nigro at carbone notandus,

Hic autem Bello nomine dignus erat.

And lest we should not be able to understand, a marginal note points out that Perbonus means a boy named Thorowgood, and Bellus means a boy named Pretty. The same joke is made in another poem, but I think intended for another boy and another name. The addition of vir to bellus turns Pretty into Prettyman.

Quem dominum agnoscit quoque Finingamia ; tuque,

Vir Belle, a Bello nomine nomen habens.

For the Finingamia dominus see FRERE.

191. PRETYMAN Tyrrell. Bapt. at Wetherden June 1675. Eldest son of Tyrrell Pretymán of Wetherden by his first wife. Educated at the public school of Bury St. Edmunds. Adm. to Peterhouse Feb. 1693 aged 17. Did not graduate. Died Jan. 1695. Buried at Wetherden.

N.B.—The Peterhouse admission book only describes these two boys as “of Suffolk.” No father's name is given. But family information and Muskett's S.M.F. enable them to be identified. Which is the “vir bellus” of Dr. Randall's lines I cannot say.

193. PRETYMAN George. Born at Bury St. Edmunds in Abbeygate street Oct. 1750. Eldest son of George Pretymán of Bury St. Edmunds and Bacton.

Elected to Hewer exhibition Feb. 1770, being then of Pembroke Coll. Senior wrangler and first Smith's prizeman 1772. Fellow. Tutor to William Pitt. Dean of St. Paul's. Bishop of Lincoln and Winchester. Succeeded to Bacton estate on the death of his father in 1810. Took the name of Tomline in 1803. Died Nov. 1827. Buried in Winchester cathedral. In D. N. B.

194. PRETYMAN John. Born at Bury St. Edmunds Oct. 1752. Second son of George Pretymán of Bury St. Edmunds. Elected to Hewer exhibition Sept. 1774, being then at Pembroke Coll. B.A. 1778. Fellow. Rector of Shotley 1784—1817. Archdeacon of Lincoln. Died June 1817. Buried in Lincoln cathedral.

N.B.—George Pretymán, father of these two boys, besides being a Bacton squire, had a large linen draper's shop at the corner of High Baxter street and Abbeygate street. Over that shop the bishop and the archdeacon were born.

B.A. 1765. For over forty years chaplain to the county gaol and house of correction at Bury. Died Dec. 1817 aged 76. Buried in the churchyard at Bury. In his life time the name was passing from its old form, Prick, to its modern form, Pryke.

200. PRIGG —. He is in the undated school list (c. 1650) as a foundation scholar, i. e. Royalist. This may be the same boy as the next, George, or an elder brother.

201. PRIGG George. Son of George Prigg of Bury St. Edmunds, glazier. He is in the Bury school list for 1656. The Hearth tax return shows George Prigg living in St. Mary's parish in 1674 in a house with three hearths.
202. PRIGG Roger. Son of Roger Prigg of Bury St. Edmunds. Adm. to Bury school Sept. 1749. Royalist. A tombstone in Bury churchyard records Roger Prigg who died 176 . aged 7 . , and Roger his son who died March 1757 aged . . years. This boy might be the son, or perhaps the son's son.
203. PRIGG ——. In Bury school lists for 1821 Foreigner, 1822 Royalist.
 N.B.—Robert Prigg of Bury St. Edmunds died Aug. 1827 aged 65.
 He had five sons; viz:—
 Robert.
 Henry. Buried in the cemetery at Bury April 1873 aged 76.
 Edward. Born 1802. Died at Drinkstone 1876.
 William. Born 1805. Died 1838.

medallist. Fellow. Called to the Bar 1773. Of Whitton, Co. Middlesex. Died March 1813 aged 63. He was at Eton and may have been at Bury also ; but I am not very certain, and only include him because Dr. Donaldson did.

209. PRYOR ——. In Bury school lists 1822—27. Foreigner.
210. PRIOR ——. Adm. to Bury school in 1837. Foreigner. Not there in 1838.

Died at Wistow, Hunts, Dec. 1899 aged 80. He was the descendent of Huguenot refugees, and re-assumed the "de la" which had been dropped.
214. PULLYN Peter. Son of Peter Pullyn of Halesworth, Suffolk. Adm. to Bury school July 1736. Foreigner.
- N.B.—There is a stone in Halesworth churchyard to Peter Pullyn sen., who died Sept. 1753 aged 65.
215. PURCHAS John. Born at Cambridge July 1823. Eldest son of Capt. William Jardine Purchas R.N. At Bury school 1834—35. Foreigner. Entered Rugby school in 1836. Thence to Christ's Coll. B.A. 1844. Curate at St. Paul's, Brighton, 1861—66. Perp. Cur. of St. James' chapel, Brighton, 1866—72. Was suspended by the Privy Council for illegal ritualistic practices, but took no notice of the suspension and went on as before. Died Oct. 1872. Buried at Brighton. In D.N.B.

N.B.—I do not know whether Bury can claim this indomitable clergyman as a scholar. I have merely guessed him, and have not been able to get any family confirmation of my guess. But it is a likely guess. The name is not common. Cambridge is not far from Bury. The date of Purchas leaving Bury agrees with the date of John Purchas going to Rugby.

216. PURKIS William George. Son of C. B. Purkis of Sturmer, Essex. At Bury school 1893—95.
217. PYKE Henry. Born 1816. Fourth son of George Pyke of Baythorne House, Birdbrook, Essex. At Bury school 1828—31. Sixth form. Royalist. Settled in Australia. Date of death not known in England.

219. PYKE Joseph. Born 1821. Sixth son of George Pyke. At Bury school 1828—36. Royalist. Was a lieutenant in Indian army. Died in India in 1843.

N.B.—George Pyke, father of these three boys, died Dec. 1827, and his widow came to live in Bury, so that the boys were Royalists.

1. QUANBOROUGH ——. At Bury school 1818—20. Foreigner.
2. QUINCE Robert. Son of Robert Quince of Botesdale. Adm. to Bury school June 1737. Foreigner.
- QUINTIN. Three boys of this name are in the school lists 1818—32. I feel sure that they are St. Quintins, and have put them under that name.

Randall. In which case he was a lawyer, gravis consultor legum, and deserved a place with the highest. P. 17.

3. RACKHAM —. At Bury school 1839. Upper fifth. Foreigner.
4. RACKHAM Horace Fuller. Born at Wangford, Suffolk. Son of William Abel Rackham M.R.C.S. At Bury school 1866—68. Sixth form. Boarder. Now vicar of High Wych, Herts.
5. RACKHAM Walter. Son of William Abel Rackham. At Bury school 1866—70. Foreigner. Now at Peterborough, Ontario.
6. RAE —. At Bury school 1850—56. Sixth form. Royalist.

I believe this is William, son of John Rae of Bury St. Edmunds, travelling tea dealer. A school fellow tells me he came across him a few years after leaving school following his father's trade, and that soon after that he died. But in Oct. 1856 a book was given to the school library by William Rae, then at Edinburgh University. He became L.R.C.S. in 1857. Practiced at Aberdeen 1859—78; in Melbourne, Australia, 1879—85. Died there Feb. 1885 aged 49. Perhaps the surgeon is No. 7, a cousin.

7. RAE —. At Bury school 1853—56. Foreigner.
8. RAIKES Robert Napier. Born Oct. 1813. Son of Rev. Robert Napier Raikes, who had the livings of Gayton with Lynn, Hellesdon, Longhope and Old Sodbury. 10. RALLING John. Son of John Ralling of Bury St. Edmunds, deceased. Adm. to Bury school July 1730. Royalist. Died Sept. 1791 aged 69. Buried in the churchyard at Bury.

N.B.—Two of his sons, who might both have been at the Grammar school, lie in Bury churchyard; viz. John who died July 1774 aged 17;

Edward who died July 1780 aged 21. John Ralling, father of No. 10, died Aug. 1729 aged 32, and has a tombstone in St. Mary's church.

11. RALPH —. He is in the Bury school list for Midsummer, 1713. Foreigner.
12. RAMSAY John Allen. Eldest son of John Ramsay of Bury St. Edmunds. At Bury school 1819—22. Royalist. Licenced apothecary 1831. M.R.C.S. 1859. L.R.C.P. 1859. Practiced at Great Shelford, Cambs, 1847—93. Died Sept. 1893 aged 83.
13. RAMSAY Robert. Second son of John Ramsay. At Bury school 1827—28. Royalist. Was in the Inland Revenue department at Somerset house.
14. RANDALL John. Son of John Randall, head master of Bury school. At Bury under his father. In Dec. 1712 the Governors of Bury school allowed him an exhibition of £6 odd for four years or till he became B.A. Adm. to John's Dec. 1712 in his 16th year. Migrated to Christ's Coll. 1714. B.A. 1718. M.A. 1727. Probably rector of Thelveton, Norfolk.
15. RANDALL —. He is in the Bury school list for Midsummer 1713. Royalist. He may be the above John Randall, or a younger brother.
16. RANDALL William. Youngest son of John Randall, headmaster. Died at school of small pox Oct. 1711. Two of Dr. Randall's poems refer to this boy. One is an epitaph on two boys buried in the same grave. They appear to have been alike in many respects, and to have been struck down by the same disease. They were William Randall and William Godfrey. The other poem, of which he gives us a Latin and an English version, is on the death of his youngest son from small pox in Oct. 1711. Five other boys died at about the same time, viz. Battley, Davers, Alexander, Godfrey and Steward. Of his own boy he says :—

Farewell my joy, my comfort ; Oh ! that I,
 Since I cant with you live, might with you die.
 Thee too among my tender flock I taught ;
 Whilst with the rudiments of learning fraught,
 I thought no pains too great, no task too hard,
 My labour seem'd to be its own reward.
 Now with reluctance I to school repair,
 Which but reminds me that you once was there.

17. RANSOM Louis Henry. Son of Peter Parlett Ransom, surgeon. At Bury school 1867—71. Boarder. Pembroke Coll. B.A. 1874. Now vicar of Longham, Norfolk.
18. RANT John. Son of Roger Rant of Swaffham Prior. One year at Bury under Stevens. Adm. to Caius Coll. Feb. 1643 aged 16. Grays Inn 1645. Fellow of All Souls, Oxford, 1648. Died Oct. 1696. Buried at Teversham, Cambs.

N.B.—One of the daughters of Roger Rant married John Meadow, the ejected minister of Ousden, whose son John will be found in this list.

19. RAWLINS Thomas. Born at Rivenhall, Essex. Son of Thomas Rawlins gent. At Bury under Kinsman. Adm. to John's May 1729 aged 17. B.A. 1732. Died Jan. 1734. Buried in St. Edward's church, Cambridge.
20. RAWLINS William. Son of William Rawlins of London, deceased. Adm. to Bury school July 1730. Foreigner.
21. RAWLINGS William. Son of William Rawlings of Bury St. Edmunds, deceased. Adm. to Bury school July 1736. Royalist.

N.B.—I cant help suspecting that Nos. 20 and 21 are either brothers, in which case one of them is given the wrong christian name, or else first cousins, in which case one of the fathers has the wrong name. Or perhaps they are the same boy admitted a second time when he became a Royalist.

22. RAWLINS Archibald Macdonell. Son of John Rawlins of Handsworth, solicitor. At Bury school 1849—50. Foreigner. Joined the 95th Reg. and served with it till he retired with rank of colonel. Served in the Crimea and during the Indian mutiny. Died about ten years ago.
23. RAWLINSON Robert. Younger son of Rev. Robert Rawlinson of Charlwood, Surrey. At Bury under Kinsman. Adm. to Trin. Coll. May 1723 aged 16. M.A. 1730.

N.B.—His mother was a Ray of Wickhambrook, which connection brought him to Bury school. He had several brothers, who were probably all there also, but I have no evidence of it. The eldest, Thomas, was Lord Mayor of London in 1754, and the first knight made by George III in 1760.

24. RAWLINSON Walter. Son of Thomas Rawlinson of Fenchurch street, London. Adm. to Bury school July 1744. Foreigner. Adm. to Trin. Coll.

Jan. 1753 aged 18. B.A. 1757. M.A. 1760.

N.B.—The Bury admission book calls his father John.

25. RAY John. Son of Mr. Ray, clerk. He is thus entered in the Bury school list for 1656. Mr. Gery Cullum has brought together into a p.p. volume an enormous congregation of Rays, one of whom will exactly fit this boy; viz. John Ray, born at Denston Dec. 1646, eldest son of Rev. Clement Ray, rector of Stansfield during the Commonwealth, and rector of Denston 1662—1686. I imagine the boy died young. He had several brothers whom I feel tempted to include.
26. RAY Garnham. Born at Bury St. Edmunds March 1702. Son of Orbell Ray of Bury, woolcomber. He is in the Bury school list for 1713. Royalist. Adm. to Trin. Coll. April 1719 aged 18. In Nov. 1720 the Governors of Bury school allowed him an exhibition for four years or till B.A. M.A. 1726. Rector of Rushbrook 1726—33. Rector of Bradfield St. George 1732—71. Preacher at St. Mary's, Bury, 1741—42. Died Feb. 1771 aged 69. Buried at Bradfield St. George.
N.B.—In the Trin. Coll. admission book he is entered as son of John Ray; but that must be wrong.
27. RAY Walter. Born at Denham June 1702. Son of Richard Ray of Denham hall, farmer. He is in the Bury school list for 1713. Foreigner. Is believed to have settled in Ipswich. No christian name is given in the list, but I think this must be the right one.
28. RAY Richard. Born at Haughley Sept. 1721. Son of Rev. Richard Ray, rector of Haughley and Wetherden. Adm. to Bury school Oct. 1730. Foreigner. Adm. to Trin. Coll. Oct. 1738 aged 17. M.A. 1746. Of Plashwood in Haughley, and Lincoln's Inn. Died Feb. 1811. Buried at Haughley.
29. RAY Orbell. Born Sept. 1747. Son of Garnham Ray, rector of Bradfield St. George, No. 26. At Bury school under Garnham. Elected to Hewer exhibition Jan. 1765. Adm. to Trin. Coll. Oct. 1764 aged 17. B.A. 1769. Rector of Wyverstone 1819. Died Aug. 1829. Buried at Tostock.
30. RAY ——. In school list 1817. Third form. Royalist.

N.B.—Samuel, son of Simon Ray, died Nov. 1814 aged 15 and has a stone in Bury churchyard. This might be a brother.

31. RAY Walter. Born March 1804. Eldest son of Walter Ray of Wicken Hall in Wickhambrook. In Bury school lists for 1817—20. Foreigner. Lieut. 46th Reg. Died at Merton, Surrey, Jan. 1881. Buried at Ventnor.
32. RAY John. Born June 1809. Second son of Walter Ray of Wicken Hall. Perhaps at Bury school about 1820. Foreigner. Died Dec. 1889. Buried at East Dereham.
33. RAY Henry. Born May 1813. Third son of Walter Ray of Wicken Hall. At Bury school 1825—29. Foreigner. Emmanuel Coll. B.A. 1837. Held the livings of Shelland, Hunston, Badwell Ash, etc. Died at Norwich June 1898. Buried at Hunston.
34. RAY Philip William. Eldest son of Philip Ray, who died a Major General at Eldo house near Bury in Oct. 1847. At Bury school 1819—25. Sixth form. Foreigner. Elected to Dean Sudbury exhibition Sept. 1825. Clare Coll. B.A. 1829. Rector of Greenstead, Essex, 1837—80. Died Jan. 1880 aged 73. Buried at Greenstead.
35. RAY Orbell. Second son of Major Gen. Philip Ray. Perhaps at Bury school about 1820. Died Feb. 1877 aged 69. Buried at Greenstead.
36. RAY George. Third son of Major Gen. Philip Ray. At Bury school 1819—1826. Sixth form. Foreigner. Peterhouse. B.A. 1832. Wrangler. Fellow. Perp. curate of St. Mary the less, Cambridge, 1835—44. Had various livings in Leicestershire. Died Jan. 1887 aged 77. Buried at Greenstead. He was among the old scholars who attended the festival in 1850.
 N.B.—Between 1817 and 1830 there appear to be about six different Rays in the school lists, whom I have appropriated to the three sons each of two brothers, Major Gen. Philip Ray and Walter Ray of Wicken Hall. But it must be remembered that christian names are not given in these lists, and Rays are many, and so I may have wrongly identified some of them. Mr. Gery Cullum's volume was more useful than I can say.

P. 26.

Bishop of Bangor 1721. Bishop of Lincoln 1723—44. Died Jan. 1744. Buried at Buckden, Hunts. Dr. Donaldson includes him among eminent Bury scholars, but I know not on what authority, and therefore will not commit myself. He is in D. N. B.

60. REYNOLDS William. Eldest son of James Reynolds of Bumpstead by his first wife, Judith, daughter of Sir William Hervey. Died Dec. 1675 aged c. 19. Buried at Ickworth.

His mother gave a book to the school library in memory of him in 1680, which is my only (but quite sufficient) authority for including him. As she herself was buried at Ickworth in July 1679, the book must have been given in accordance with her will or last instructions.

61. REYNOLDS Robert. Born 1658. Second son of James Reynolds by his first wife, Judith Hervey. Became a lieutenant R.N., but retired on his elder brother's death. Married his first cousin Keziah Tyrrell. Seems to have lived in Bury. Died May 1724 aged 66. Tombstone in St. Mary's church at Bury. He very likely occupied Lord Bristol's house on Honey hill, who was his first cousin and his wife's first cousin.

62. REYNOLDS James. Born 1686. Son of James Reynolds by his second wife, Bridget Parker. Called to the Bar 1712. Recorder of Bury St. Edmunds. M.P. for Bury. Lord chief baron of the Exchequer 1730—38. Died Feb. 1739 aged 53. Buried in St. James' church at Bury, where is his huge monument near the west door. Gave several books to the school library. He is in D. N. B. with several blunders.

N.B.—James Reynolds, father of these three boys, seems to have lived in Bury and died there. His death is thus recorded in Lord Bristol's diary:—1690. April 20. My uncle Reynolds died at St. Edmond's Bury in Suffolk, and was buried at Bumpstead in Essex. He and Judith Hervey were married at Ickworth on July 30, 1655.

63. REYNOLDS James. Born 1684. Eldest son of Robert Reynolds of Bury St. Edmunds, No. 61. Called to the Bar 1710. Chief Justice of the Common Pleas in Ireland 1727. Knighted 1745. Died May 1747. Buried at Castle

Camps, co. Cambridge. In D. N. B. The two judges, Nos. 62 and 63, both James and of exactly the same age, uncle and nephew, must not be confounded. Dr. Randall brings into his list two Reynolds boys, but I am not quite sure which.

Orac'lum florentis adest Reynaldius urbis,
Cui fora Marte suo litigiosa silent ;
Frater et insignis (veluti Neptunia proles)
Fluctibus insanis Gallica vela dedit.

This looks like Nos. 61 and 62, except that as Robert left the navy so soon he hardly had time to give the French fleet to the waves. If the other judge had a naval brother, it might be No. 63 and that naval brother.

64. REYNOLDS John Collett. Born Oct. 1819 at Little Munden, Herts. Eldest son of Rev. John Preston Reynolds. At Bury school 1831—37. Four years in sixth form. Royalist. Adm. to Christ's Coll. Oct. 1838. B.A. 1843. Curate of Pickworth and second master of Stamford Grammar school 1844—1845. Rector of Holton near Halesworth 1845—55. Died 1855.

66. REYNOLDS Thomas. Born at Bury St. Edmunds 1831. Third surviving son of Rev. John Preston Reynolds. At Bury school 1840. Fourth form. Royalist. Died many years ago.

N.B.—The Rev. John Preston Reynolds, father of these three boys, was of Caius Coll., B.A. 1817. Rector of Little Munden 1819—31. Rector of Beeston St. Andrew (no church) 1831—45. Curate of St. James' at Bury. Rector of Necton, Norfolk, 1845—61. Died c. 1861. In 1830—43 he was living at Bury, and in 1843—45 at Bedford. He had two more sons, but as the two remaining boys of this name were Foreigners, I have not identified them as his. His other two sons were Francis Samuel, born 1833, died 1878 ; Edward Henry, born 1837. Both were born at Bury.

 75. RIDDELL mi. At Bury school 1854—55. Royalist.

- These three boys were, I believe, sons of a military man residing in Bury for a short time.
77. RIDLEY ——. At Bury school 1834—38. Royalist. I cannot connect this boy with the Bury Ridleys, and therefore imagine him to have been the son of a temporary resident.

81. RISBROCK ——. At Bury school 1830—31. Royalist. I am told that this boy afterwards kept the Dog and Partridge in Crown street, and that his father was a grocer. In which case I imagine him to be William Devereux Hustler Risbrock, who died June 1858 aged 36 and lies in the cemetery. His father must have been William Risbrock, who died Oct. 1825 aged 37 and lies in Bury churchyard. Before him the Dog and Partridge was kept by Henry Risbrock, who died Sept. 1835 aged 48, and then by his widow. This I presume was an uncle.
82. RISBY John. Son of John Risby of Thorpe Morieux. Two years at Bury under Leeds, three years at Woodbridge under Candler. Adm. to Caius Coll. Jan. 1680 aged 16. Gray's Inn 1681. Died Jan. 1727 aged 64. Buried at Thorpe Morieux.

93. ROBINSON ——. Dr. Randall brings in a boy of this name. I will leave his lines to speak for themselves. Apparently the boy became a captain of some sort, and the king's treasurer or comptroller of his household. P. 25.
 Inde Robinsoni, comitata per ardua præceps,
 Paruit imperiis non malefida cohors ;
 Ille satellitio tutatur Principis aulam,

N.B.—Sir Samuel Romilly, 1757—1818, grandson of a Huguenot refugee, had six sons, of whom we have here the four youngest. If the two eldest, William, born 1799, and John, born 1802, came to Bury school, they might have left before 1817 when the annual lists begin. I do not think there are more than these four in the existing lists. In 1822 all four are there together, three in sixth form and one in fifth form. After a very distinguished career Sir Samuel died by his own hand in Nov. 1818; and it looks as if after that Bury began to be the school for his sons.

136. ROOKWOOD or ROKEWOOD Edward. Second son of Robert Rookwood of Stanningfield by his first marriage with Bridget Kempe. Four years at Bury. Adm. to Caius Coll. April 1574 aged 18 as of Palgrave. He was living in 1577, but died before 1600, not being mentioned in his father's will. He had three whole brothers, who probably came to Bury school.

137. ROKEWOOD Henry. Second son of Robert Rokewood by his second marriage with Dorothy Drury of Hawstead. Four years at Hawstead under Mr. Adams. Adm. to Caius Coll. Feb. 1579 aged 14. Was afterwards a priest. NOT a Grammar school boy.

N.B.—The eldest son of Robert Rokewood's second marriage was Ambrose, who was executed for his share in Gunpowder plot. He may have been at Bury school. Robert Rookwood, the father, was the builder of Coldham hall.

138. ROOPE Frank Percival. Born 1869. Ward of H. Jenner Hillier of Birchwood, Colchester. At Bury school 1880—82. Foreigner.

141. ROSE William. Son of William Rose of Hawkedon, Suffolk, surgeon. Adm. to Bury school June 1751. Foreigner.

So runs the entry in the Bury admission book. But Mr. T. T. Methold having allowed me to examine his very full Rose pedigrees, I have come to the conclusion that there is a mistake in that entry. And I have the less scruple in coming to that conclusion when I recollect how often that admission book has erred in giving to the father the son's christian name. Apparently whenever it did not know what the father's name was it gave him his son's name.

I expect that this boy is William, son of Robert Rose of Hartest, surgeon. Afterwards himself a surgeon at Hartest. Died April 1786. Buried at Hartest.

But I may mention that there were three other William Roses in the neighbourhood, contemporary and therefore possible, viz. :

79. SHARPE John. Son of John Sharpe of Bury St. Edmunds, baker. At Bury under Mosse. Adm. to Caius Coll. 1605 aged 16. Curate of Sapiston, Suffolk, in 1617.
80. SHARP Jasper. Son of Jasper Sharp of Bury St. Edmunds, gent. At Bury under Dickenson. Adm. to Caius Coll. Feb. 1632 aged 16. Gray's Inn May 1635. Mr. Muskett's note in Mr. Venn's Caius College history says that as he is not mentioned in his father's will dated Aug. 1653 [or 1655] he probably died young. But in the Hearth tax return for 1674 I find a Jasper Sharpe living in a house in Bury with only one hearth in it, and so poor as to be let off paying the tax. This looks as if he may have been disinherited and ended his days in great poverty, though the son of a wealthy town benefactor.

81. SHARPE Martin. Born at Bury St. Edmunds. Son of Martin Sharpe. At school there under Leeds. In Jan. 1703 the Governors of Bury school allowed him an exhibition of £6 a year. Adm. to Christ's Coll. Jan. 1703 aged 18. B.A. 1706. He gave a book to the school library in 1711, and is described in the catalogue as rector of West Stow. He was never rector but curate there 1708—15. Vicar of Great Thurlow and rector of Barnardiston. Died 1760 aged 75. Buried at Great Thurlow.

82. SHARPE James. Son of John Sharpe of Bury St. Edmunds, bricklayer. Adm. to Bury school Jan. 1736. Royalist. Died April 1791. Tombstone in Bury churchyard.

N.B.—I imagine that Nos. 82 and 83 are brothers, and sons of John Sharpe who died Dec. 1770 aged 70, and has a stone in Bury churchyard. Another brother, John, died Nov. 1783 aged 58, and also lies in Bury churchyard.

83. SHARPE Joseph. Son of John Sharpe of Bury St. Edmunds. At Bury under Garnham. Adm. to Trin. Coll. Jan. 1747 aged 19. M.A. 1754. Minister at St. James' at Bury 1751—93. Died April 1805 aged 77. Buried in the churchyard at Bury.

85. SHARPE Burrough. Son of Burrough Sharpe of Bury St. Edmunds. Adm. to Bury school Jan. 1745. Royalist.
86. SHARPE John. Born c. 1776. Son of Robert Sharpe of Bury St. Edmunds, mercer. Was a London bookseller and publisher. Died 1863. Buried at Redgrave. I include this boy on the authority of his grandson.
87. SHARPE ——. At Bury school 1821—25. Foreigner.
88. SHARPIN Edward. Son of Edward Sharpin of Dereham. Two years at Bury under Garnham. Adm. to Caius Coll. March 1762 aged 16. Lived at Swaffham. Died there Oct. 1813.

90. SHAW George. Born at Hastings Feb. 1844. Younger son of Rev. George Shaw of Fen Drayton. At Bury school 1859—63. Three years in sixth form. Boarder. Adm. to Christ's April 1863. B.A. 1867. Ordained 1868. Rector of Elsworth, Cambs., 1874—81. Died at Elsworth June 1881.
91. SHELFORD Thomas. Son of Leonard Shelford of Thetford, common brewer. Adm. to Bury school March 1737. Foreigner. Four years there. Adm. to Caius Coll. Feb. 1741 aged 17. Seventeenth wrangler. Rector of N. & W. Tuddenham, vicar of Stow Bedon. Died June 1795 aged 72.

94. SHELFORD Edward John. Born July 1853. Fifth son of Rev. W. H. Shelford. At Bury school 1865—67. Royalist. Afterwards to Haileybury and King's Coll., London. Is now a merchant of Madras in the firm of Wilson & Co.

N.B.—Rev. William Heard Shelford, born Sept. 1798, rector of Preston 25 years, died there Jan. 1854. After his death his widow kept a school for young ladies in St. Mary's square at Bury, so that the three boys were Royalists. The two eldest sons, Sir William Shelford and Rev. Leonard E. Shelford, now vicar of St. Martin's in the Fields, London, were not at Bury school.
95. SHELLEY Thomas. Son of Thomas Shelley, rector of Barton Mills, D.D. Three or four years at Bury under Dickenson. Adm. to John's Coll. May 1639 aged 15. Adm. to Caius Coll. Aug. 1640. Gray's Inn Feb. 1642. He owned the manors of Banstead and Nether hall in Tuddenham (Lackford hundred), and paid hearth tax there for nine hearths in 1674. Died Oct. 1680. Tombstone in Tuddenham church.

96. SHELTON Maurice. Elder son of Henry Shelton of Barningham, Suffolk. Eight years at Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Caius Coll. May 1701 aged 18. Did not graduate. Sold Barningham to the duke of Grafton, and lived in Bury. Dr. Randall devotes twenty-two lines to him and his deceased brother, and says he passed his time in Palladian studies. (P. 9.) His second wife was Margaret, daughter of Dr. Randall. Died at Bury May 1749 aged 65. Buried at Shelton, Norfolk.

97. SHELTON Henry. Born c. 1686. Younger son of Henry Shelton of Barningham. Went into the army and died young. I get his name from Dr. Randall, and from him also I learn his calling, his early death, and his personal beauty. Immature must be meant in the third line for mature.

Junior heu ! fratrum accensus virtutis amore

Non dedignatur Martia castra sequi ;

Mature extinctus fatalibus occubat umbris,

Claudit et extremos non sine laude dies.

N.B.—Henry Shelton, father of these two boys, had died in 1690.

98. SHEPHERD John. Son of Edmund Shepherd of Mendlesham and High House, Campsey Ash. He succeeded his father at Campsey Ash in 1708. His first wife was the dowager Countess of Leicester, daughter and co-heiress of Sir Robert Reeve alias Wright of Thwaite. His second wife, Hannah Wilmot, survived him, and she married secondly Sir Samuel Prime, who will be found in this list of Bury boys. Died 1747. Buried at Mendlesham. I get this boy from Dr. Randall, who devotes six lines to him. (P. 15.) He gives him no christian name, but I think my identification of him must be right.
99. SHEPARD John Apsey. Son of John Shepard of Cambridge. At Bury under Becher. Elected to Hewer exhibition Sept. 1800. Adm. to Trin. Coll. July 1800. He was dead by March 1802, when the vacant exhibition was granted to William Lucas.

100. SHERMAN Ralph. Son of Ralph Sherman, rector of Ickburgh, Norfolk. Four years at Bury. Admitted to Caius Coll. June 1638 aged 17. B.A. 1642. N.B.—Ralph Sherman, the father, was rector of Ickburgh 1605—26. Died Sept. 1626.
101. SHILLITO John. Eldest son of Stephen Tymme Shillito of Barrow hall, Suffolk, and grandson of John Shillito, Ickworth estate agent. At Bury school 1831—35. Sixth form. Foreigner. Died Feb. 1850 aged 31. Tombstone in Chippenham churchyard, Cambs.

106. SHOBERL Vaughan Henry. Son of Henry Shoberl of Wimbleton. At Bury school 1896—1902. Now in Clowes' printing works, London and Beccles.
107. SHORT Thomas. Son of William Short of Euston, Suffolk, clerk. At Bury under Stevens. Adm. to John's Coll. Feb. 1650 aged 14. I don't know whether this is the Doctor Thomas Short whose son is mentioned in the will of Rebecka, Lady Brouncker, 1692. The Ship money return shows William Short at Euston, and not Easton as printed in the St. John's Coll. Admissions.
108. SHORT Richard. Born at Bury St. Edmunds. Son of Richard Short M.D. He is in the Bury school list for 1656. Adm. to Christ's Feb. 1659 aged 16. Was a medical man at Bury. In 1674 was occupying a house in Risbygate street with seven hearths.

N.B.—There were three or four generations of this family living in Bury, mostly medical men, in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, and so probably there should be several more than this one Royalist in my list. The Hearth tax volume shows Dr. Perry (i.e. Peregrine) Short occupying a house in St. James' parish, in Risbygate street, in 1674 with seven hearths. He died Dec. 1679 aged 77, and had an altar tombstone in Bury churchyard. I do not think it is there now. A few doors off in the same parish and street was living Dr. Short, jun., whose house also had seven hearths. That I take to be his son, Richard, father of No. 108. There was also a Dr. Thomas Short, perhaps another son of Dr. Peregrine Short, or perhaps the boy No. 107. In the will of Rebecka, widow of Thomas Jermyn, afterwards Lady Brouncker, is a legacy of £10 each "to my godson, the son of Dr. Thomas Short, and to my godson the son of Dr. Richard Short." The will is dated May 1692. I believe these two doctors were Jacobites, but which generation they belonged to is not clear. Later on still, in 1715, another Peregrine Short of Bury St. Edmunds refused to take the oath of allegiance to George I.

109. SHORTER —. He is in the Bury school list for 1713. Royalist. It may be John Shorter who died Sept. 1746 aged 43; or, Thomas Shorter who died Sept. 1778 aged 73. Both have stones in Bury churchyard.
110. SIBBES Richard. Born 1577. Son of Paul Sibbes of Tostock, Suffolk, wheelwright. Educated at Bury Grammar school. Adm. to John's Coll. 1595. Fellow 1601. D.D. 1627. An eminent Puritan divine, and author of many religious works. Preacher at Gray's Inn. Master of St. Catherine's Hall, Cambridge. Died at Gray's Inn July 1635. In D. N. B.
111. SIBBS Richard. Son of John Sibbs of Thurston, gent. He is in the Bury school list for 1656. Perhaps of Cath. Coll., B.A. 1664, M.A. 1668. Tostock and Thurston being adjoining parishes, I imagine that he belongs to the same stock as No. 110, and a common connection with Cath. Coll. makes this the more likely.
112. SICKLEMORE George Wilson. Born at Upnor castle, Kent. Younger son of John Sicklemore of Wetheringsett, Suffolk. In Bury school lists 1817—19. Sixth form. Foreigner. Adm. to Trin. Coll. Oct. 1820 aged 17. B.A. 1825. Vicar of St. Lawrence, I. of Thanet, 1836—80.
113. SIDAY or SYDEY —. He is in the Bury school list for 1713. Foreigner. In Barrow church there is a flat stone to Thomas, son of Robert Siday, who died March 1722 aged 20. The Jermyn MSS. in Moyses hall mention an altar tomb in Barrow churchyard to John Siday gent, late one of the capital burgesses of Bury St. Edmunds, who died March 1766 aged 64. One of these two must be this boy. Unless they were twins 1722 must mean 1722/3. Robert Siday, their father, died Feb. 1722 aged 47, and has a stone in Barrow church.

114. SIKES Thomas. In Bury school lists 1817—19. Foreigner. Was among the old scholars unable to attend the festival in 1850. Queen's Coll. B.A. 1827. Rector of Puttenham, Herts, 1835—49. Curate of Luton 1842—49. Vicar of Luton 1849—54. Rector of Chevening, Kent, 1854—88.

117. SIMPSON John. He is in the undated school list (c. 1650) as a foundation scholar, i.e. Royalist.
118. SIMPSON Clement. He is in the undated school list (c. 1650) as a foundation scholar, i.e. Royalist.
119. SIMPSON Rowland. Born at Bath. Son of Robert Simpson, clerk. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to John's May 1703 aged 17. B.A. 1707. Fellow. B.D. 1719. In Dec. 1728 presented by his college to the sinecure rectory of Aberdaron, Carnarvonshire. Died 1737.
120. SIMPSON Robert. Son of Robert Simpson, rector of Feltwell, Norfolk. Six years at Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Pembroke hall July 1705. Adm. to Caius Coll. Oct. 1707 aged 19. Fellow. Hebrew lecturer. Bursar. Died in London Nov. 1749. Buried at St. Edward's, Cambridge.
N.B.—Nos. 119 and 120 must be the Simpsonii to whom Dr. Randall devotes two lines, speaking of them as imbuti moribus bonis. (P. 42.)
121. SIMPSON Maltyard. Son of Rev. Maltyard Simpson of Stalham, Norfolk. Two years at Bury under Malkin. In sixth form 1820—21. Foreigner. Adm. to Caius Coll. June 1822 aged 18. Rector of Mickfield 1829—72. Died c. Dec. 1872.

122. SIMPSON —. At Bury school 1821—27. Sixth form. Foreigner. Probably a brother of No. 121.
123. SIMPSON —. At Bury school 1848—49. Royalist.
124. SIMPSON Frank Augustus. Second son of George Augustus Simpson of Bury St. Edmunds, auctioneer. At Bury school 1886—90. Royalist. Now in a brewery at Lowestoft.
125. SIMPSON Campbell Edward. Third son of George Augustus Simpson. At Bury school 1887—88. Royalist. Now in Canada.

- N.B.—Rev. William Singleton, rector of Worlington for 21 years, and formerly Principal of Kingston Coll., Hull, died on Good Friday 1873 aged 68. His widow came to live in Bury, so that the boy was a Royalist. An elder half brother, Henry, had died at Ipswich Grammar school Sept. 1855 aged 13.
130. SITWELL Sidney Ashley Hurt. Second son of Isla Ashley Sitwell. At Bury school 1885—89. Foreigner. Now in the bank of Bengal.
131. SITWELL Frederick Archibald Hurt. Third son of Isla Ashley Sitwell. At Bury school 1888—. Foreigner. Now in the Canadian Mounted Police.
132. SKEELS Henry. He is in the Bury school list for 1817 only. Third form. Foreigner. He was among the old scholars unable to attend the festival in 1850.

N.B.—In Bury churchyard lies George John Skeeles, curate of Risby and Great Saxham, rector of Kirkby Underwood, vicar of Cranwell, Lincolns. He was a son of Preb. Skeeles of Peterborough, went to Rugby school in Dec.

1805 aged 15, and died Dec. 1833 aged 41. I suppose he was some relation to this boy.

133. SKINNER —. In Bury school list 1830. Foreigner.

N.B.—His sister married Rev. Thomas Thurlow, and was the mother of Lord Chancellor Thurlow and the bishop of Durham, who inherited the Ashfield estate. For several generations this family had been Hovell alias Smith. This boy's father dropped Hovell and became Smith only. (See Muskett's S.M.F.) As there are quite Smiths enough, one wonders why he did not drop Smith and become Hovell only.

Mr. Aldis Wright points out to me that his early death was the occasion of a poem by Tennyson. To J.S., in 1832. In the new edition with his own notes Tennyson says, Addressed to James Spedding, the biographer of Bacon. His brother was Edward Spedding, a friend of mine, who died in his youth.

Here is one stanza out of nineteen in Tennyson's poem.

I knew your brother ; his mute dust
I honour and his living worth ;
A man more pure and bold and just
Was never born into the earth.

As far as one can judge by school lists he was a boy of great ability, getting into sixth form when about 13 years old, and only prevented by his elder brother from being captain at 15 years of age. And this at a time when Dr. Malkin, the headmaster, was attracting scholars from all parts.

N.B.—The three Speddings were Royalists, as their father came from Cumberland to live for a time in Bury on purpose to put them at Bury school. Mr. W. Mowbray Donne has pointed out in the Burian (April 1898) that the house he occupied was the house in Northgate street which is now divided into three houses.

The eldest son was Thomas Story Spedding. Adm. to Trin. Hall Oct. 1818 aged 18. Fellow 1825. I have not included him in my list, as I have no knowledge that he came to Bury school.

227. SPENCER ——. I only know of this boy from Dr. Randall's list. He would have been at school somewhere near 1700, and afterwards had some public legal appointment.

*Spencerusque gravis dubiis de rebus agendis,
Cui legum assiduo publica cura subit.*

228. SPENSLEY ——. He is in the Bury school list 1713. Royalist. Perhaps Samuel who died Oct. 1729 aged 30, and has a stone in St. Mary's church at Bury. Probably younger brother of Rev. Thomas Spensley of Clare Coll. B.A. 1714, who died Dec. 1718 aged 27, and has a stone in Horringer churchyard.

Succeeded his father as third baronet in April 1684, while a school boy. Curiously his father was just about the same age when he succeeded. Died April 1704 aged 32. Buried at Pakenham.
 N.B.—I have no proof of his having been at Bury school; but as his father's family were there, his mother's (Cordell), his stepmother's (North), his wife's (Jermyn), his grandchildren Symonds' and Leheups all went, it is more than probable that he did. I might have included many more of the Springs, including his son, the fourth baronet, and his brother, the fifth.
239. SPROULE John Rowland. Born at Appleby June 1795. Son of Rev. John Rowland Sproule, vicar of Appleby, Westmoreland. At Bury under Malkin.

260. STEEL ——. He is in Bury school list 1713. Royalist. Perhaps William Steel, who died Jan. 1748 aged 52 and has a stone in Bury churchyard. Another William Steel, one of the Common Council, died Jan. 1776. He, and probably both of them, was a bricklayer, or as we should call it a builder. The first of these built the so called manor house on Honey hill, or rather in Schoolhall street, exactly as it is now. The architect was James Burrough, Master of Caius Coll. and amateur architect, who will be found in this list. Lord Bristol had given the old house to his wife, and she pulled it down in 1736, and rebuilt it as it is now. She being in London and he at Ickworth, she occasionally asked him to go and look after it, which he did rather unwillingly. On May 8, 1736, he writes to her from Ickworth :—I felt and took so much cold yesterday was a senight by staying too long and too late with your workmen at my old demolish'd house, that I had no less than four fitts of my cholick in three days after it. He then carries the letter to Bury and adds a postscript. From Bury, 6 afternoon. I came hither as soon as I had got my dinner to have talked with Mr. Steel your bricklayer, but found him gone to bed with a most violent headach, which his wife tells me he is frequently troubled with to a great degree, at which I told her I was not at all surprised after she had told me he was a constant drinker of tea.

He was a contemporary at Bury school with Bishop Blomfield, who years afterwards, when he came to preach at St. James', recognized an old schoolfellow in Mr. Churchwarden Steel. Died Jan. 1, 1865, aged 78. Buried in the churchyard at Bury.

N.B.—Samuel Steel, elder brother of this boy, died March 1801 aged 16. He is likely to have been a Grammar school boy. Their father, Samuel, died March 1817 aged 56; and I presume it was his father, Samuel, who died Oct. 1799 aged 74. They all have tombstones in Bury churchyard.

262. STEEL John Evans. Eldest son of John Steel of Bury St. Edmunds, No. 261. In Bury school list 1825. Royalist. Was a clerk in Oakes' bank at Bury. Died July 1833 aged 20 years. Buried in the churchyard at Bury.

Afterwards at Market Bosworth Grammar school, and King's College (school), London. Then five years in a cotton broker's office at Liverpool. Then to Canterbury, New Zealand, where he has been variously employed during the last thirty years. For the last twelve years has been sheep farming there, and is doing so now.
270. STEERE ——. He is in the Bury school lists for 1817—20. Foreigner.
271. STEGGALL William. Born at Troston, Suffolk. Son of William Steggall. At Bury under Kinsman. Adm. to Christ's Coll. June 1735 aged 20. Rector of Hawstead 1786—94. Rector of Wyverstone for 54 years. Died Feb. 1794 aged 78. Buried at Wyverstone. Tombstone in the churchyard.

N.B.—There are at Wyverstone tombstone inscriptions of William Steggall who died April 1813 aged 68; Charles Steggall, rector of Wyverstone for 25 years, who died March 1819 aged 70; John Steggall, rector of Hesselst 1786—1809, who died Jan. 1809 aged 51. These I think were all sons of the Rev. William Steggall, No. 271, and were probably all at Bury school, though I have no proof of it.

Charles, rector of Wyverstone, was the father of John H. Steggall, who began life as a gipsy and ended it as a clergyman. From his autobiography, edited in 1857 by Rev. Richard Cobbold, one learns that he first went to a school at Walsham le Willows, kept by Mr. Edmund Rogers, from which he ran away and joined a gipsy camp at Wyverstone, and then to Rev. Mr. Hepworth's school at Botesdale. He was perpetual curate of Great Ashfield 1823—81.

272. STEGGALL ——. In Bury school lists 1817—19. Sixth form. Royalist.
273. STEGGALL ——. In Bury school lists 1817—21. Sixth form. Royalist.
274. STEGGALL ——. In Bury school lists 1818—22. Royalist.

N.B.—One of these last three boys is probably William Steggall, Jesus

Coll., B.A 1826 ; ordained 1826 ; in Jan. 1829 appointed assistant master at Bury school vice James Blomfield ; curate of Hesselst ; vicar of Hunston 1846 —1881 ; died March 1885 aged 81 ; tombstone in Beyton churchyard.

There are tombstones in Bury churchyard to Robert Steggall, born Feb. 1772, died Dec. 1842 ; and John Steggall, died July 1821 aged 44. I imagine that one of these two may be the father of these three Royalists.

275. STEGGLES ——. Son of William Steggles of Bury St. Edmunds. In Aug. 1725 the Governors of Bury school allowed him an exhibition of £6 odd for four years or till he became B.A. There is no graduate at all of this name ; nor is there any graduate of the name of Steggall of the right date for him.

276. STEGGLES William Henry. Eldest son of William Steggles of Bury St. Edmunds, builder. In Bury school lists 1821—22. Royalist. Died May 1843 aged 30. Tombstone in Bury churchyard.

277. STEGGLES ——. At Bury school 1831—35. Royalist.

278. STEGGLES ——. At Bury school 1835—36. Royalist.

N.B.—I believe these two last are also sons of William Steggles, builder, and that one of them is Edward, who in the directory for 1844 is a chemist in Chequer square. William Steggles, the builder, died July 1859 aged 82.

279. STEGGLES ——. At Bury school 1847—49. Royalist.

years at Bury under Dickenson. Adm. to Sid. Suss. Coll. Oct. 1633 aged 17.

N.B.—Thomas Steward, father of this boy, was married at Denham in August 1607 to Sarah, daughter of Sir Edward Lewkenor. There were two older sons, Thomas and Edward, and a younger one, Simon, who probably all came to school at Bury.

285. STEWARD Thomas. Son of Thomas Steward of Barton Mills, armiger. He is in the Bury school list for 1656. Adm. to St. John's Coll. April 1658 aged 17, his father being there described as of Lackford.

286. STEWARD ——. A boy of this name died of small pox at school Nov. 1711. His name and date of death are given in a marginal note in Dr. Randall's ode on the death of his own son.

N.B.—James Sturgeon, father of this boy, was elder brother to Clopton Sturgeon, No. 305. He died Jan. 1763 aged 50, and has a tombstone in St. Mary's church at Bury. He is pretty certain to have been a Grammar school boy himself, as well as others of his family, but I have no authority to include them.

316. SURTEES Henry George. Second son of Rev. John Surtees. Probably he is the boy in the Bury school lists for 1819—22. Went to Harrow in 1823. Matric. at Oxford, Brasenose Coll., June 1827 aged 18. N.B.—There are at least five boys of this name in the school lists between 1817 and 1837. They are five of the eight sons of Rev. John Surtees, rector of Banham, Norfolk. (One or two more may have been in the missing lists for 1823 and 1824.) They may be the two eldest and three youngest. But as it is not certain which is which, and as very likely all were there, I give them all.

323. SUTTON ——. He is in the undated school list (c. 1650) as a Foreigner.
324. SUTTON John. He gave books to the school library in 1687 and afterwards, being described in the catalogue as “civis Londinensis” and “attornatus Londinensis.” He may be the same as No. 323.
325. SUTTON Robert. Bapt. at Horringer Dec. 1764. Son of Robert Sutton of Horringer, Suffolk. At Bury under Lawrence. Elected to Hewer exhibition Feb. 1785. Adm. to Trin. Coll. Aug. 1782 aged 17. B.A. 1787. In March 1790, being in Orders, he was appointed under master at Bury school, but resigned at Christmas.

Held livings of Foulden, Kedington, Little Waldingfield, Badingham, Great Wrating. Died Sept. 1800. Buried at Waldingfield.

N.B.—He married in 1749 a daughter of Doctor Blomfield of Badingham. His only son, Barrington Blomfield Syer, was born in 1755, and went to school at Harrow and Stanmore, and so probably did not come to Bury. He was rector of Kedington and Little Waldingfield, and died April 1844 aged 89. His tombstone is at Kedington. He had four sons by his first wife, Mary Moore of Kentwell hall, and three by his second wife, Elizabeth Maria Chevallier of Aspoll. Both wives belonged to families that sent boys to Bury school. So probably all seven boys came. But I have authority to include only the eldest, Barrington, No. 332, and the seventh, William Henry, No. 333. I will name the other five in case some day authority should be found for including them.

Thomas Blomfield, second son, born Aug. 1781; Pembroke Coll.; rector of the Wrattings 1818—57; died June 1857; tombstone in Great Wrating churchyard.

335. SYLIARD ——. In Bury school list 1713. Foreigner.
336. SYLIARD ——. In Bury school list 1713. Foreigner.

N.B.—I imagine that these two boys are not Sulyards of Haughley and Wetherden, but Seyliards of Delaware in Kent. Francis Seyliard, brother of Sir John Seyliard the first baronet, was rector of Moulton, and died Dec. 1676. I learn from his tombstone at Moulton that he married Bridget, daughter of Thomas Gardiner of Fornham All Saints. He had two sons, John and Thomas. Thomas lived at Mildenhall, and perhaps these two boys are his.

337. SYMONDS John. Elder son of John Symonds, rector of Gislingham, Suffolk. Bred at Bury and Norwich. Adm. to John's Coll. May 1648 aged 17. Died unmarried at Gislingham 1703. In his will he says, I give to the Master and Fellows of St. John's Coll. £100 towards an exhibition for a poor minister's son or one of my own relations of that College from Gislingham or Bury in Suffolk, at the discretion of the Master and Fellows. The bulk of his estate went to his nephew, John Heigham, who will be found at p. 187, No. 136.

N.B.—John Symonds, father of this boy, was rector of Gislingham from 1628 to 1675 ; and his father was Thomas Symonds, rector of Hinderclay, where he was buried in 1631.

338. SIMONS J. He gave a book to the school library in 1682. This may be John, son of William Symonds, who was baptized at St. James', Bury St. Edmunds, in July 1662. OR, it may be John Symonds, No. 337.
339. SYMONDS John. Born at Bury St. Edmunds. Son of John Symonds. At Bury school under Randall. Adm. to John's Oct. 1712 aged 15. Fellow 1718. D.D. 1738. Rector of Horringer and Nowton 1725—57. 345. SIMONDS Barnabas. Son of Barnabas Simonds of Kelsale, Suffolk, scribe. Two years at Kelsale under his father, two years at Bury under Kinsman. Adm. to Bury school June 1740. Foreigner. Adm. to Caius Coll. July 1742 aged 18. Born at Kelsale, educated partly at Kelsale, curate of Kelsale, married at Kelsale, Master of Kelsale school. Rector of Thorrington. 346. SYMONDS Thomas Edward. Born 1781. Eldest son of Captain Thomas Symonds, No. 341, by his second wife. Became a Rear Admiral. Died 1868. My authority for including him among Bury boys is his still surviving daughter, Mrs. Cox, who says he was very fond of the school.
347. SYMONDS William. Born at Bury St. Edmunds Sept. 1782. Second son of Capt. Thomas Symonds, No. 341, by his second wife. His time at Bury school must have been very short. He says in his Memoirs:—
 “I was educated by Mr. Blomfield of Bury preparatory to my going to the Grammar school in that town, of which the Rev. M. T. Becher was then master; and after my family went back to Devonshire (1793) I was instructed by a clergyman of Holbeton in that county, with whom I remained until 1794, when I commenced my career in the navy.”
- After service in several ships he turned his attention to the construction of them. As surveyor of the navy 1832—47 he built many and introduced changes. In 1854 he became Rear Admiral. Died March 1856 on board a steamer. Buried at Marseilles. His grandson, Rev. William Symonds, sends me the above quotation from his autobiography. In D. N. B.
348. SYMONDS Thomas Martin. Born in the parish of St. James', Bury St. Edmunds, April 1796. At Bury under Malkin. Adm. to St. John's May 1814.
349. SYMONS ma. In Bury school lists 1817—19. Royalist.
350. SYMONS mi. In Bury school lists 1817—19. Royalist.
351. SYMONS min. In Bury school lists 1818—19. Royalist.

N.B.—The tombstones in St. Mary's church at Bury show two brothers living and dying in Bury; viz. John Symons, Vice Admiral of the Red, who died Dec. 1799 aged 66; and William Symons, a barrister, formerly of Brettenham hall, who died June 1783 aged 49. William Symons had a son, William John, born in Bury Jan. 1778. William John became a Major in 16th Light Dragoons. He was married in 1800 to Lætitia, daughter of Thomas Cocksedge of Bury, and had five sons: viz. (1) John Head. (2 & 3) George and Henry, twins, both midshipmen R.N., both died in West Indies in Oct. 1819 aged 15. (4) William James, Captain in Bengal Artillery. (5)

Charles. Nos. 349, 350, 351, are probably three of these five brothers, the twins being two of them. Their father, Major Symons, was probably himself a Bury school boy, but I have no authority for including him. He died Dec. 1848 at East Stonehouse, co. Devon, and was buried there. This family of Symons, though naval, was not connected with the naval family of Symonds mentioned above.

 26. THETFORD William. Son of Lancelot Thetford of Bury St. Edmunds. In Aug. 1649 the father petitioned the Governors for an exhibition to be granted to his son, late a scholar of Bury school, and since admitted to Emmanuel College. They granted him £5 a year to continue during their discretion. This was stopped in April 1651, he having left the university.

32. THOMPSON James. Son of Anthony Thompson of Trumpington. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Trin. Coll. Jan. 1699 aged 17. Did not graduate. This may be the boy mentioned by Dr. Randall as singing as sweetly as Ovid. But it can hardly be the boy mentioned by Dr. Leeds in 1690 as one of his pupils from Suffolk. So perhaps there were some elder brothers at the school also. By Suffolk Dr. Leeds seems to include all the eastern counties.
33. THOMPSON John. Eldest son of John Thompson of Bury St. Edmunds. In Bury school lists 1817—. Royalist. Carried on his father's business in Bury as glass and china merchant. Died Feb. 1871 aged 64. Buried in the cemetery.
34. THOMPSON George. Born Jan. 1811. Second son of John Thompson of Bury St. Edmunds. At Bury school 1820—27. Royalist. Was three years with Messrs. Longmans, publishers. 35. THOMPSON Frederick. Third son of John Thompson of Bury St. Edmunds. At Bury school 1825— . Royalist. Was a bookseller at Bedford. Died Jan. 1878. Buried in churchyard of Trinity, Bedford.
36. THOMPSON Robert. Fourth son of John Thompson of Bury St. Edmunds. Was a surgeon at Norwich. Died 1874.
N.B.—It is not quite certain whether he went to Bury school. There was a Mr. R. Thompson among the old scholars unable to attend the festival in 1850, who, if not he, must have been the contemporary Foreigner.
37. THOMPSON Henry. Fifth son of John Thompson of Bury St. Edmunds. At Bury school 1827—31. Royalist. Was a chemist at Norwich. Died 1895.
N.B.—It is impossible to say how many different Thompsons, Royalists, there were at this time, nor when each one left. From 1818 to 1831 inclusive there was always one and generally more. In 1825, 1827, 1828, there were three.
38. THOMPSON ——. Besides the above five brothers, Royalists, there seem to have been one or two Foreigners contemporary with them. One is in the list for 1817. Another in 1822.
39. THOMPSON John Robert. Eldest son of John Thompson of Bury St. Edmunds, No. 33. At Bury school 1854—58. Royalist. Was an engineer in firm of John Penn and Sons, Greenwich. Died at Barton Mills Nov. 1906 aged 63. Buried in the cemetery at Bury. Author of Records of St. Edmund.

N.B.—Henry Thomas Thompson, father of this boy, was born June 1796; St. John's Coll., B.A. 1817; under master of Bury school from June 1822 to April 1828; afterwards ordained and curate of Fornham and Westley; died March 1869; buried in the Bury cemetery. He married Miss Harrington, daughter of one of the Bury organists (See HARRINGTON), and lived in the old house, Out Northgate.

42. THOMPSON Benjamin Norton. Born in Canada March 1852. Eldest son of Benjamin Thompson, No. 41. At Bury school 1862—71. Five years in sixth form. Captain. Royalist. Adm. to Trin. Coll. Aug. 1871. B.A. 1875. Now vicar of Christchurch, Bath, and Preb. of Wells cathedral.
43. THOMPSON Charles A. Born in Canada. Second son of Benjamin Thompson, No. 41. At Bury school 1867—69. Royalist. Now in Canada.
44. THOMPSON Frederick W. Born in Canada. Third son of Benjamin Thompson, No. 41. At Bury school 1867—69. Royalist. Was five years in a cotton broker's office at Liverpool. Now practising as a dentist in High street, Christchurch, New Zealand.

47. THORNE Stephen Lancelot. Son of Rev. H. A. Thorne of Norwich. At Bury school 1899—1900.
48. THOROLD Josiah. Son of John Thorold of Cambridge. At Bury under Kinsman. Adm. to Trin. Coll. June 1721 aged 17. B.A. 1724.
49. THOROLD Charles. Son of Sir John Thorold, seventh baronet, of Cranwell, Lincolnshire, by his second marriage. Adm. to Bury school June 1741. Foreigner.
50. THOROWGOOD ——. I get this boy from one of Dr. Randall's poems. He was one of two bad boys who absented themselves from morning prayers on St. Barnabas day, I presume during Dr. Randall's headmastership, 1707—15. Dr. Randall latinizes his name as Perbonus :—

Perbonus ille fuit, nigro at carbone notandus.

John Thorowgood married Bridget, daughter and heiress of John Sampson of Sampson's hall in Kersey, the most picturesque village in Suffolk. They had four sons, Sampson, Thomas, William and John. Probably they all came to Bury school, and probably Perbonus was one of them. John, the father, died 1734 aged 74, and John the son succeeded him, and was the father of Sir Thomas, knight. There are tombstones in Kersey church to the first

John and to Sir Thomas, but none to the intermediate generation, one of whom must have been the Bury boy who absented himself on St. Barnabas day.

51. THORPE Thomas. Son of Thomas Thorpe of Bury St. Edmunds, cutler. In April 1700 the Governors of Bury school allowed him an exhibition of £6 odd a year to begin from his admittance to the University. Emman. Coll. B.A. 1703.

52. THROWER William. Born Sept. 1811. Second son of Stephen Thrower of Cambridge, linen draper. In Bury school lists for 1825, 1826. Was a solicitor at Cambridge. Died July 1850. Buried in the Mill road cemetery at Cambridge.

N.B.—I have guessed that the boy of 1825, 1826, is William from the dates fitting him best. But it is possible that he may have been Charles the eldest son, born April 1808, in business with his father, died July 1842, buried in the churchyard of St. Mary's the great: OR, George the third son, born June 1813, surveyor of taxes, died May, 1873, buried in the Arno Vale cemetery, Bristol.

53. THROWER Frederick. Born at Cambridge. Fourth son of Stephen Thrower. At Bury under Edwards 1830—34. Adm. to Christ's Coll. May 1836 aged 17. Did not graduate. Died after a long illness May 1838. Buried at Cambridge in the churchyard of St. Mary the great.

54. THRUSTON Nathaniel. Bapt. Sept. 1641. Son of Nathaniel Thruston of Hoxne, armiger. He is in the Bury school list for 1656.

N.B.—He had several brothers older and younger than himself, who probably all came to Bury school. Nathaniel Thruston, the father, was bapt. Nov. 1616, buried Sept. 1658; tombstone in Hoxne church.

55. THRUSTON ——. Dr. Randall addresses some friendly lines to a Thruston of Hoxne, probably a boy c. 1700.

56. THRUSTON Frederick. Son of Framingham Thruston of Market Weston, Suffolk, barrister. Nine years at Bury under Becher. Elected to Hewer exhibition June 1806. Adm. to Caius Coll. June 1804 aged 17. Minister of Bayswater chapel. Died Jan. 1821. Author of religious works.

N.B.—The father died suddenly at Bury in Jan. 1789, aged 39, when staying there for Quarter Sessions. He has a tombstone in Market Weston church. He had succeeded at Market Weston his uncle, Dr. John Thruston, lord of the manor, who died May 1776 aged 77. The doctor's tablet in Market Weston church says, Amicus moerens posuit, Samuel Peck. Samuel Peck was a Bury school boy, and probably the doctor was too. Possibly he is the boy No. 55.

57. THURLOE Nicholas. Son of Nicholas Thurloe, rector of Brent Eleigh, Suffolk. Magdalene Coll. B.A. 1702. Rector of Brent Eleigh. Died Nov. 1732 aged 49. Tombstone in Brent Eleigh church. He gave a book to the school library in 1718, which is my only authority for including him.

N.B.—Nicholas Thurloe, the father, was of Sidney Suss. Coll., B.A. 1669. Rector of Brent Eleigh. Died July 1706 aged 56. Tombstone in Brent Eleigh church.

58. THURLOW Thomas. Born 1737. Second son of Rev. Thomas Thurlow of Tesborough, Norfolk. Adm. to Bury school May 1748. Foreigner. Matric. at Oxford, Queen's Coll., July 1754. Fellow. Rector of Stanhope. Master of the Temple. Dean of Rochester and St. Paul's. Bishop of Lincoln and Durham. Died May 1791. Buried at the Temple. In D. N. B.

N.B.—His father was rector of Great Ashfield. Tesborough is given in the Bury admission book. The eldest son became Lord Chancellor.

59. THURLOW William Henry. Fourth son (eldest by second marriage) of Rev. Edward South Thurlow, Preb. of Norwich, Rector of Houghton le Spring. At Bury school 1828—31. Sixth form. Foreigner. Died 1839.

60. THURLOW John. Born July 1814. Fifth son (second by second marriage) of Rev. Edward South Thurlow. At Bury school 1828—33. Three years in sixth form. Foreigner. Adm. to John's Coll. June 1833. B.A. 1837. Vicar of Worsted 1841, and Hindringham 1843. Died 1844.

61. THURLOW Augustus. Sixth son (third by second marriage) of Rev. Edward S. Thurlow. At Bury school 1828—33. Foreigner. Died 1834.

N.B.—These three boys were admitted together at Christmas 1828. I have guessed their identification and have not been able to get any confirmation of my guess. But (assuming them to be brothers) there are no other three brothers in this family that they can be. The Bishop, No. 58, had three grandsons (sons of the second Lord Thurlow), who would fit; but as one of them was at Eton, and the other two at Rugby, while these three were at Bury, I have considered that they were put out of court. The Rev. Edward South Thurlow was the only son of John Thurlow, a Norwich merchant, who was a younger brother of the Lord Chancellor and of No. 58.

62. THURSTON Thomas. Son of Joseph Thurston of Wenham, gent. Three and a half years at Bury under Kinsman, one at Colchester. Adm. to Caius Coll. Feb. 1726 aged 18. B.A. 1730. Sixteenth wrangler.
63. TILLBROOK —. He is in the Bury school list for 1713. Royalist. He might be Henry Tillbrook, whose flat stone in the chancel of Nowton church says that he died Sept. 1763 aged 67.
64. TILLBROOK Samuel. Son of John Tillbrook of Bury St. Edmunds. At Bury school. Elected to Hewer exhibition March 1802. Adm. to Peterhouse Nov. 1801 aged 19. B.A. 1806. Fellow. B.D. 1816. Appointed under-master of Bury school Jan. 1807. Rector of Freckenham 1829—35. Died May 1835 aged 52. Buried at Freckenham.
65. TILLBROOK James. Born at Bury St. Edmunds Aug. 1790. Youngest son of John Tillbrook. Five years at Bury under Becher. Adm. to Sid. Suss. Coll. May 1810. B.A. 1814.
66. TILBROOK Clifford Farrant. Son of Samuel Tilbrook of Bury St. Edmunds, clothier. At Bury school 1899—1900. Now in business with his father.
67. TILLARD Richard Henry. Son of Rev. Richard Tillard, rector of Bluntisham, Hunts. At Bury school 1829—31. Sixth form. Foreigner. Adm. to John's Coll. April 1834 aged 18. B.A. 1838.
N.B.—I believe this is the right one. His brother James Arthur, born Nov. 1812, afterwards rector of Conington, Cambs, was adm. to John's Coll. July 1830 from Shrewsbury school.
68. TILLOTT Leonard. The minute book records (f. 82) that at a meeting of the Governors of the school held on Oct. 7, 1624, Leonard Tillott gent., an inhabitant of this town and sometime a scholar of this school, is elected a Governor in the place of Mr. Charles Darby deceased. He was dead by March 12, 1636, when his successor was appointed.
69. TILLOT Thomas. Born at Rougham, Suffolk. Son of Thomas Tillot of Pulham St. Mary, Norfolk, gent. One year at Rougham, private, under Mason; five years at Bury under Stevens. Adm. to Caius Coll. April 1663 aged 17.

70. TILLOT Isaac. In March 1666 the Governors of Bury school allowed him an exhibition of £5 a year. He was then at the university, but does not appear to have graduated.
71. TINLING Charles. Eldest son of Charles Stubbs Tinling of Bury St. Edmunds. In Bury school lists 1817—18. Royalist. I believe he afterwards lived at Liverpool.
72. TINLING Edward Douglas. Second son of Charles S. Tinling of Bury St. Edmunds. At Bury school 1826. Royalist. Matric. at Oxford, Christ church, Dec. 1833 aged 18. Inspector of schools 1847—81. Canon of Gloucester 1867—97. Died 1897.
73. TIRRELL James. Son of Henry Tirrell of Mildenhall, gent. Four years at Bury under Dickenson. Adm. to Caius Coll. Jan. 1626 aged 17: Adm. at Inner Temple Nov. 1627.
74. TIRRELL Charles. Son of George Tirrell late of Bury St. Edmunds, farmer. He is in the Bury school list for 1656. Five years there under Stevens. Adm. to John's June 1658 aged 16. B.A. 1661.
75. TIRRELL Henry. Son of George Tirrell late of Bury St. Edmunds, gent. He is in the school list for 1656.
- There was Henry Tirrell of Christ's Coll., B.A. 1667; and Henry Tirrell of Trin. Hall, B.A. 1662. I suppose he is one of the two.
76. TITLEY Alfred John Gardner. Son of Rev. Richard Titley, rector of Barwell. At Bury school 1884—87. Foreigner. Pembroke Coll. Now curate of Barwell, Leicestershire.
77. TOD ma. In Bury school lists 1826—27. Fifth form. Foreigner.
78. TOD mi. In Bury school lists 1826—27. Fifth form. Foreigner.
- N.B.—I am told by a Todd with two d's that a Tod with one d is generally Scotch.
79. TODD Ratcliff. Born at Sturmer. Son of Ratcliff Todd of Cowlunge, Suffolk, gent. He is in the Bury school list for 1656. Adm. to Christ's Coll. April 1660 aged 16. Did not graduate. Died July 1675 aged 32. Flat stone in the porch of Sturmer church.
80. TODD Radcliffe Pearl. Son of Radcliffe Todd Esq. of Sturmer, Essex. Adm. to Bury school June 1743. Foreigner. Died Nov. 1799. Buried at Sturmer.

N.B.—The next Radcliffe Pearl Todd died Oct. 1813 aged 51. The next and the last Ratcliffe Pearl Todd died June 1879 aged 86. Both buried at Sturmer. I have no evidence that they came to school at Bury, but they may have done so.

81. TODD Robert. Son of Robert Todd, wine merchant, late of Bury St. Edmunds. He is in the school list for 1656.

82. TODD Alexander. Son of William Todd of St. James', Bury St. Edmunds, hatter. Adm. to Bury school Feb. 1731. Royalist.

N.B.—There is a tombstone in Bury churchyard to John Todd, "habbardasher of hatts," who died April 1719 aged 66 years. I imagine he is the grandfather of Alexander and William, Nos. 82, 83, and very likely a brother of Robert, No. 81.

83. TODD William. Son of William Todd of Bury St. Edmunds, hatter. Adm. to Bury school April 1734. Royalist. Died Jan. 1773 aged 48. Tombstone in Bury churchyard.

84. TODD John Frederick. Second son of Horatio Todd, rector of Occold, Suffolk. At Bury school 1855—58. Foreigner. Was a clerk in Bank of England. Retired in 1905. Now living at West Ealing.

85. TOKE Nicholas William Nielson. Born abroad c. 1848. Son of John Toke, army surgeon. At Bury school 1861—64. Boarder. Went to Australia. Died before 1890.

86. TOLLEMACHE Lionel, Lord Huntingtower. Born Feb. 1649. Eldest son of Lionel Tollemache of Helmingham and Elizabeth his wife, Countess of Dysart in her own right. Was M.P. for Orford, and then for Suffolk. Succeeded his mother as Earl of Dysart in Aug. 1697. Died Feb. 1727.

87. TOLLEMACHE Thomas. Born c. 1651. Second son of Lionel Tollemache and Lady Dysart. He was a distinguished military officer and saw a great deal of service. Died at Plymouth June 1694 of a wound received when in command of an expedition against Brest. Buried at Helmingham, where is his monument. In D. N. B.

88. TOLLEMACHE William. Born at Great Fakenham, Suffolk, in Feb. 1662. Third son of Lionel Tollemache and Lady Dysart. He went into the navy. He killed Hon. Will. Carnegie at Paris in a duel in 1680, for which he was tried in the West Indies and branded on the hand. He was afterwards appointed to the command of a ship, The Jersey, and died of yellow fever in the West Indies in 1691.

N.B.—These three Tollemache boys do not come into any school list, and so I must give my reason for including them. Their father, Lionel Tollemache, died in 1669. Their mother, who was Countess of Dysart in her own right, married secondly in 1672 John, duke of Lauderdale. Roger North in his life of his brother, Lord Guildford, says that the duchess before her second marriage, and before she was a duchess, lived at Fakenham in Suffolk near to Tostock, where the Norths lived; “and the lady resided there for the sake of bringing up her children at Bury school.” And he then goes on to say that consequently during the holydays the Tollemache boys at Fakenham and the North boys at Tostock were playfellows. And again further on he speaks of the Norths and two Tollemaches as “being playfellows at school and at home.” Lives of the Norths I. 231. II. 302. This establishes two of them without a doubt; and as I don't know which to leave out, and as probably all three went to Bury school, I put them all three in. The two mentioned as playfellows of the North boys would probably be the two eldest.

89. TOMSON Douglas Vernon. Son of D. R. Tomson of St. Neots. At Bury school 1899—1902. Foreigner. Peterhouse. B.A. Now in business in London.
90. TOOKER ——. At Bury school 1839—42. Foreigner.
91. TOWNSHEND ——. Dr. Leeds in 1690 includes this name in his list of his past and present scholars. But how many and which he does not say. George Townshend of Little Wrotham, father of Nos. 92, 93, may have been one. The three sons of the first Viscount Townshend are not unlikely, their stepmother having been Mary Lewkenor of Denham near Bury. The eldest, Charles, a prominent statesman and brother in law of Sir Robert Walpole, was at Eton, but might have looked in at Bury on his way, as No. 93 did.
92. TOWNSHEND Horatio. Born at Wrotham, Norfolk. Son of George Townshend. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to John's May 1697 aged 18. B.A. 1701. Rector of Tacolneston 1705—06. Died there March 1706.
93. TOWNSHEND Thomas. Son of George Townshend of Wrotham. A few months at Bury under Leeds, and then six years at Eton. Adm. to Caius Coll. July 1701 aged 18. Fourteenth wrangler. Rector of Tacolneston 1706—1764, and Shipdam 1707—54. Died Feb. 1764 aged 82.

94. TOWNSHEND Hon. Roger. Fifth and youngest son of Charles, third Viscount Townshend of Rainham, Norfolk. Adm. to Bury school Jan. 1741. Foreigner. Went into the army. Became Lieut.-Colonel. Was killed by a cannon ball at Ticonderoga in N. America July 25, 1759, aged 27. A monument to him in Westminster Abbey was put up by his mother.
 N.B.—In July 1758 the British force met with a great disaster in their attempt to take Ticonderoga from the French. For an account of it by one who was present see one of the volumes of this Green Book series, viz. Journals of Hon. William Hervey. In July 1759 we made another attempt on Ticonderoga, and took it without much resistance. Apparently it was in this successful attack, and not in the disaster, that Roger Townshend lost his life.

107. TROTT Edward. Born at St. Neots. Only son of John Trott, druggist and surgeon. Adm. to Bury school Sept. 1730. Foreigner. Adm. to John's May 1734 aged 19. Did not graduate.

112. TURNER John. Born at Brockford, Suffolk. Son of Grey Turner. At Bury under Leeds. Adm. to Christ's July 1668 aged 19. B.A. 1671.
113. TURNER William. Born at Bury St. Edmunds. Elder son of Henry Turner, alderman of Bury in 1681. At school there. Adm. to Christ's May 1684. Did not graduate. Bought Horsecroft of the Lucas family in 1706. Was alderman of Bury in 1709, 1723. Pursued his business in Bury with vigour, as one may gather from Dr. Randall, and with success, as one may gather from results. Died Nov. 1734 aged 67. Tombstone in St. Mary's church.

114. TURNER John. Younger son of Henry Turner, alderman of Bury. Included by Dr. Randall among Bury scholars. Gave books to the school library in 1698 etc., and described in the catalogue as "olim alumnus." Was a barrister. Unsuccessful candidate for Recordership of Bury in 1712. Successful candidate in 1725. Recorder 1725—40. He married Isabella, daughter of Baptist May. Died Sept. 1740.

This is the couplet in which Dr. Randall brings in the two boys whom I identify as William and John, Nos. 113, 114.

Illic Turneri (veteres notique columbi);

Justitiam hic sequitur; fortiter ille forum.

115. TURNER Henry. Son of William Turner, No. 113. He succeeded to Horsecroft, which he left by will to William Ager. Died April 1764 aged 70. Tombstone in St. Mary's church at Bury. I have no authority to include him, but he is a moral certainty.
116. TURNER John. Son of John Turner, Recorder of Bury, No. 114. It is just possible he may be the boy in the school list for 1713, but he is rather young for it. Married Bridget Gery. Lord Bristol mentions "the new-married Turnors" dining at Ickworth Nov. 1733. They lived at Langham. His pecuniary difficulties began very soon after his marriage, and he never got rid of them. I imagine he lost his money in the South Sea bubble, or rather in some later one. In June 1744 Lord Bristol (who was first cousin to his mother) offered him his house at Ickworth as "sanctuary." His wife died in 1746 and he went to live at Livermere. Died there Feb. 1766 aged 60. Tombstone in Great Livermere church.
117. TURNER —. He is in Bury school lists 1713. Royalist. I imagine he is a son of No. 113 or of No. 114. But No. 115 is rather old for him, and No. 116 is rather young, though either is possible.
118. TURNER John. Son of John Turner of Colchester, attorney, deceased. Adm. to Bury school Sept. 1744. Foreigner.
119. TURNER George. Born at Pulham, Norfolk. At Bury under Laurens: Jesus Coll. B.A. 1788. Rector of Monewden, 1803, Kettleburgh, 1807, till his death. He edited in 1830 Forby's Vocabulary of East Anglia. Died Nov. 1839 aged 72.

I get his name as a Bury scholar from Page's Suppl. to Suffolk Traveller, p. 112. Mr. Page probably got the information from Mr. Turner himself.

120. TURNER John. Of Suffolk. From Bury school. Adm. to Peterhouse July 1791 in his 18th year. Did not graduate. (This is all the information that the Peterhouse admission book gives.)
121. TURNER Edward Blomfield. Son of Major-Gen. C. W. Turner of the 19th Regiment, afterwards Colonel in chief of King's Dragoon Guards. At Bury school 1826—34. Sixth form. Foreigner. Wylde in the Spanish war 1834. Received several decorations and a Spanish order of knighthood for his services. Died at Dublin Aug. 1849 while A.D.C. and Master of the Horse to the Lord Lieutenant. Buried at Castle Knock.

N.B.—Nos. 121, 122, belonged to the Turners of Stoke near Ipswich. Nos. 123, 124, may possibly be brothers.

N.B.—Thomas Turner, the father, was son of Rev. Richard Turner, rector of Grateley, Hants. Born 1793. Died 1859. Tombstone in Timworth church.

135. TYSSSEN John. Second son of Samuel Tyssen of Narborough. Born there Dec. 1811. In Bury school lists for 1821, 1822. Foreigner. Was among the old scholars unable to attend the festival in 1850. Became a captain R.N. Retired in 1848. Succeeded his brother at Clanville in 1863. Sold it and bought Hylsbroke near Langford in East Somerset. Died there Dec. 1893 aged 81. Buried at Burrington, Somerset. There is a tombstone to his memory in the churchyard of Stanstead, Suffolk, he having married firstly his cousin Eleanor Yelloly, daughter of John Yelloly M.D. of the neighbouring parish of Cavendish.

N.B.—There were two more sons of Samuel Tyssen who do not appear to have come to Bury school; viz. Henry, third son, born at Narborough Dec. 1814, died at Geelong, Australia, March 1842 aged 27; William Hongham, fourth son, born at Narborough Jan. 1817; became a captain in 36th Regiment; died at the Cape of Good Hope Sept. 1847 aged 30. 2. VENTRISS ——. Dr. Leeds includes Ventriss among the names of his scholars from Suffolk. Sir Peyton Ventriss, born 1645, M.P. for Ipswich in 1688, became a judge, and died 1691. The Suffolk Traveller says he built the house at Sproughton called the Chauntry. One or more of his sons may have been Dr. Leeds' pupils. Also Edward, father of the next four boys, may have been one. He died in 1740. I am not sure whether he was a son of Sir Peyton. A pedigree by D. E. D. does not give him a father, though Sir Peyton is there close by. The D. N. B. calls him a lineal descendant, which is absurd. He was either a son or no descendant at all.
3. VENTRISS Edward. Son of Edward Ventriss of Sproughton. Matric. at Oxford, Oriel Coll., April 1733 aged 15; afterwards at Magd. Coll. Fellow 1738—44. Had the livings of Brandon, Wangford and Burgate in Suffolk. Died Aug. 1764. Buried at St. Nicholas, Ipswich. I have no authority for including this boy, as the admission book begins too late for him. But as his three younger brothers came it is likely that he did too.

5. VENTRISS Francis. Son of Edward Ventriss of Sproughton. Adm. to Bury school June 1735. Foreigner. Matric. at Oxford, Magd. Coll., Dec. 1740 aged 17. Fellow 1747—58. Bursar. B.D. 1754.

N.B.—The father of this boy was rector of Glemsford as well as Feltwell, and had held the livings of Catfield, Norfolk, and West Halton, Lincolnshire.
9. VINCENT ——. Dr. Randall devotes sixteen lines to a boy of this name, whom he couples with Thomas Glemham. (See p. 158, No. 80.) They would have been at school c. 1700. Apparently they were both killed in battle, I think in Spain.
10. VINES ——. In the Bury school lists 1820—22. Foreigner.

11. VINING ——. In Bury school lists 1827, 1828. Foreigner.

Then lived at Dresden, writing in Blackwood and other reviews. Returned to England, and died at South Hampstead March 1894.
 14. VIVIAN Edward. Born at Bury St. Edmunds. Son of John Vivian, M.D. At private school at Bury under Mr. Adamson. Adm. to John’s July 1681 aged 19. M.B. 1686. NOT a Grammar school boy.
N.B.—In 1674 Dr. Vivian, the father, was occupying a house in St. Mary’s parish at Bury with five hearths in it.
 15. VOYCE Edward. Born c. 1633. Son of Edward Voyce, rector of West Stow. He gave a book to the school library in 1697, which is my only authority for including him. He became rector of Oakley, Suffolk, and was buried there in 1713 aged 80 years. Tom Martin had his life in MS. written by Mr. Bryers. Where is it now? He had brothers who probably all came to school at Bury, but I have no authority for including them.

3. WADDINGTON Henry Spencer. Born at Bury St. Edmunds. Eldest son of Henry Waddington. Educated at Combs, Suffolk, under Rev. Charles Davy. Adm. to St. John's Coll. June 1799 aged 18. Did not graduate. Bought Cavenham from Lord Cornwallis. M.P. for West Suffolk 1841—59. Died Feb. 1864 aged 82. Tombstone in Cavenham churchyard. Apparently NOT a Grammar school boy.
4. WADDINGTON John Horsey. Born at Bury St. Edmunds. Younger son of Henry Waddington. At Harrow under Drury. Adm. to St. John's Coll. June 1800 aged 17. Did not graduate. Apparently NOT a Grammar school boy.
5. WADE ——. At Bury school 1827—28. Royalist.
6. WADE ——. At Bury school 1827—30. Royalist.
7. WADE ——. At Bury school 1827—31. Royalist.
I imagine these three to be sons of Andrew Wade of Bury St. Edmunds, timber merchant, who died May 1845 aged 62. One of the three might be Frederick, who died Jan. 1847 aged 31. Another might be Charles, who died Feb. 1867 aged 48.
8. WADLEY George Francis. Son of G. Wadley of Maidenhead. At Bury school 1896—1900. Went to King's Coll., Cambridge.
9. WAKEFIELD ——. In Bury school lists 1817—18. Sixth form. Foreigner.

11. WAKEFIELD ——. In Bury school lists 1820—26. Sixth form. Foreigner.
12. WALDEGRAVE ——. Dr. Leeds includes Waldegrave among his scholars from Suffolk. Dr. Randall sings thus:—

Pæne oblitus eram, veniam concede, pugnax

Te cum Tyrillis Waldgraviense genus.

The pugnacious race must mean more than one, but I cannot individualize them.

13. WALE Henry John. Son of Major Gen. Charles Wale K.C.B. of Shelford, Cambs., by his third wife Henrietta Brent. At Bury school 1841—44. Sixth form. Foreigner. He died at Seething in Norfolk June 1814 aged 76. His son in law, Rev. Jeremiah Ives Day, was curate there. A pedigree by D. E. D. in the Jermyn MSS. at Moyses hall gives him twenty four children. I imagine that Frederick was one of them, but the pedigree only names the two eldest sons: viz. Robert Gostling White, an attorney at Halesworth, who died Oct. 1828 aged 61; and Henry Gostling White, born at Yarmouth July 1769, Fellow of Clare Coll., curate of Barking. One of his daughters married Rev. Jeremiah Ives Day, who was incumbent of Seething, Mundham and Yelverton in Norfolk. Possibly one or more of the unidentified Days on p. 110 were their sons.

122. WHITEHORN William. Eldest son of Samuel Risby Whitehorn of Jamaica. In Bury school lists 1820—22. Sixth form. Royalist. I am not quite sure of this boy's christian name, but I take him to be the William Whitehorn of Jamaica who married Charlotte Mary, daughter of John Bridgman. She died Sept. 1829 aged 25, and was buried in Bury churchyard.
123. WHITEHORN Henry. Fourth son of Samuel Risby Whitehorne of Jamaica. In Bury school lists 1822—25. Third form. Royalist. Matric. at Oxford, Wadham Coll., June 1833 aged 18. Did not graduate.
N.B.—These are two of the West Indian group of boys, all related, that was at the school at this time. For the others see Bridgman (Additions) and Hall. I am told that Samuel Risby Whitehorn had four sons, of whom only the eldest and youngest were sent to England to be educated.
124. WHITEHOUSE Alfred Walter Landon. Only son of Walter Whitehouse of Westminster, dentist. Was at Bury school in and about 1892. Is now a surgeon dentist practising in Victoria street, London.

129. WHITLOWE James. Born at Isleham, Cambs. Son of Nat. Whitlowe. Five years at Bury under Dickinson. Adm. to Christ's Coll. May 1636 aged 16.

130. WICKINS John. Son of Rev. Nicholas Wickins of Stoke, co. Hereford, deceased. Adm. to Bury school Oct. 1741. Foreigner. I more than suspect that this boy is the same as the next one, being entered in the Bury admission book as Jno. instead of Tho. But as it is just possible that there were two, Thomas being accidentally omitted from the Bury book, I give him a separate number.
131. WICKINS Thomas. Son of Rev. Nicholas Wickins of Stoke, deceased. At Bury under Garnham. Adm. to Trin. Coll. April 1747 aged 17. B.A. 1750. Fellow 1753.
N.B.—The father also had been a Fellow of Trin. Coll.
132. WICKS William D. Son of George Wicks of Bridge Farm, Rushbrooke, who formerly drove the London coach. At Bury school 1860—63. Royalist. Went into Lloyds.
133. WIDDRINGTON ——. Dr. Leeds includes one or more boys of this name among those who came to Bury school from Northumberland. Dr. Randall addresses twenty two lines to “Vos Widdringtoni,” but he does not make it quite clear whether they were Bury school boys or not. One of them seems to have been William, fourth Baron Widdrington, who joined the Jacobites in 1715, was taken and sentenced to death, but was reprieved and pardoned. He also alludes in these lines to Ralph Widdrington, who was a Cambridge Professor from 1654 onwards and died in 1688. But he does not make it clear that he was at Bury school. So that whilst it is certain that one of this name took the trouble to come all the way from Northumberland to be caned at Bury, it is not clear how many or which did so.
134. WIGMORE William. Queen’s Coll. B.A. 1671. Fellow. M.D. 1682. He gave a book to the school library in 1685, and is included by Dr. Leeds among his pupils from Suffolk.
135. WIGSON William. Born at Horringer Aug. 1817. Elder son of William Bacon Wigson of Horsecroft in Horringer. At Dedham school. Adm. to John’s Coll. May 1835. Jun. Opt. 1839. Curate of Coggeshall and Chedburgh. Vicar of Rushmere near Ipswich 1848—91. Died 1891. NOT a Grammar school boy.
136. WIGSON Richard. Bapt. at Horringer June 1826. Younger son of William B. Wigson of Horsecroft. At Bury school 1841—43. Foreigner. Died June

1896. Buried at North Pickenham, Norfolk.

N.B.—In Oct. 1860 my father was writing a paper on Playford and the Feltons for a meeting of the Suffolk Arch. Inst. While doing so he met with a sixteenth century family at Leicester called de Wigston. He told Mr. William Wigson that that was his proper name, who thereupon changed the spelling from Wigson to Wigston.

- 137. WILKIESON ——. At Bury school 1828—29. First form. Foreigner.
- 138. WILKINS Charles. Son of William Wilkins of Stanningfield, mediæ fortunæ. Four years at Bury. Adm. to Caius Coll. Dec. 1562 aged 20.

Curate at Hadleigh, Suff., 1808—15. Held the livings of Lexington, Lowdham, St. Mary's, Nottingham, Wing, Beelsby. Preb. of Southwell. Archdeacon of Notts. Author of religious works. Attended the school festival in 1850. Died at Southwell Aug. 1865. In D. N. B.
- 140. WILKINSON John Chapel. Son of John Wilkinson of Stradbrook, Suffolk. Adm. to Bury school June 1749. Foreigner. Trin. Coll. B.A. 1760.
- 141. WILKINSON ——. In Bury school lists 1817—20. Foreigner.
- 142. WILKINSON ——. In Bury school lists 1817—20. Foreigner.
- 143. WILKINSON ——. In Bury school lists 1819—22. Foreigner.
- 144. WILKINSON ——. In Bury school list 1820. Foreigner.

N.B.—There are two Wilkinsons in 1817, 1818, three in 1819, four in 1820, one in 1821, 1822. When one leaves it is impossible to say which one it is.

Marmaduke Wilkinson, fourth son of John Wilkinson of Roehampton, was of Peterhouse, B.A. 1793. In Dec. 1792, apparently while an undergraduate, he was married at Rushbrook to Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Charles Davers. He held the livings of Little Whelnetham, Nowton and Redgrave, the two last for over forty years. He resided at Redgrave, and died there Jan. 1844 aged 74. He had four sons by his first marriage and two by a second. It is believed that they all came to Bury school. The elder ones would have been there before 1817, when the annual lists begin, but the four boys in the list for 1820, Nos. 141—144, may include the last four. These are the six :—

(1) Charles John ; tried various employments ; farmed at Wortham hall, drove the Bury and Botesdale coach, etc. ; was living in Bury for some years ; plumped for Hardcastle in 1847 ; died Nov. 1872 aged 75 ; buried in Bury cemetery.

(2) Frederick, born 1798 ; became captain R.N. ; lived in Shropshire ; died in London about 40 years ago.

(3) George ; was in the Indian army ; died in England.

(4) Henry Thomas, born March 1802 ; Peterhouse ; 43 years rector and patron of Market Weston ; died Aug. 1876 ; tombstone at Market Weston.

(5) William ; was in Indian army ; died in India.

(6) Alfred ; a major in the army ; died at Brighton a few years ago.

145. WILKINSON John Hooper. Born at Sibton, Suffolk. Eldest son of Hooper John Wilkinson of Walsham le Willows. At Bury school 1831—37. Foreigner. Adm. to Trin. Coll. Oct. 1841 aged 18. B.A. 1846. Died 1906. Buried at Brighton.
146. WILKINSON Henry. Second son of Hooper John Wilkinson. At Bury school 1838—43. Foreigner. Now living at Ipswich.
147. WILKINSON ——. At Bury school 1838—44. Foreigner.
148. WILKINSON ——. At Bury school 1847—50. Foreigner. If these two are not from Walsham, they may be sons or grandsons of Rev. Marmaduke Wilkinson.
149. WILKINSON Octavius. Fifth son of Hooper John Wilkinson. At Bury school 1848—51. Foreigner. Emman. Coll. B.A. 1859. Rector of Hinderclay. Died at Hinderclay April 1879 aged 39. Buried at Walsham le Willows.
150. WILKINSON Thomas Edward. Sixth and youngest son of Hooper John Wilkinson. At Bury school 1848—51. Foreigner. Jesus Coll. B.A. 1859. Bishop of Zululand 1870—76. Bishop Coadjutor to Bishop of London for North and Central Europe 1886.

N.B.—Hooper John Wilkinson of Walsham le Willows had six sons. I have not been able to make out whether the third and fourth came to school at Bury. They were :—

George H. ; captain in Bombay army ; died Feb. 1879 aged 51 ; buried at Walsham.

Charles Ellis ; was in the army ; died at Dublin May 1861 aged 31 ; buried there in the cemetery of St. Jerome.

As the dates of Nos. 147, 148, do not fit them very well, I imagine they were not at Bury.

Hooper John Wilkinson, the father of the six boys, was son of George Wilkinson, born in London, privately educated under Rev. Samuel Carter, adm. to Trin. Coll. March 1818 aged 18, but did not graduate, lived at Walsham le Willows, died there May 1883 aged 83.

151. WILKINSON ——. Adm. to Bury school 1847. Royalist. Not in the list for 1848, so could not have stayed more than a term or two. This is almost certainly one of the sons of Charles John Wilkinson, who in the Bury directory for 1844 was living at 18 Brentgovel street. (See No. 144 N.B.)
152. WILKINSON Clennell Anstruther. Son of Rev. Anthony A. Wilkinson, rector of Icklingham. At Bury school 1896—1902. Sidney Suss. Coll. Now assistant master at Cairo.
153. WILKINSON Anthony Oswald Anstruther. Son of Rev. Anthony A. Wilkinson, rector of Icklingham. At Bury school 1899—1902. Was assistant master at Ardingley. Now in Canada.

158. WILLIAMS ——. In Bury school lists 1818—20. Foreigner.
159. WILLIAMS John. At Bury school 1819—27. Three years in sixth form. Foreigner. Elected to Hewer exhibition May 1828.
160. WILLIAMS William. At Bury school 1820—27. Three years in sixth form. Foreigner. Elected to Hewer exhibition May 1828.

N.B.—John and William Williams, Nos. 159, 160, pursue a twin-like course through the school for eight years. They are always together in the same successive forms, generally side by side. In May 1828 they are together elected to Hewer exhibitions, and I presume together went up to the university. Seeing that in 1833 John and William Williams both took their B.A. degree, the one from Magdalene and the other from Emmanuel, I thought these must be the two boys from Bury. The authorities of those colleges very kindly sent me their admission entries, which leave the matter rather doubtful.

John, son of John Williams of West Hackney, was adm. to Magd. Coll. from Leeds public school May 1829 aged 18.

William Evans Williams came to Emman. Coll. from his home in Glamorganshire.

The first of the two may perfectly well be the Bury boy. Only his last school would be given in the college admission book, and there was time for him to have gone to Leeds for a year between Bury and Cambridge. He may have come to Bury on account of Dr. Malkin, and he may have left in consequence of his leaving in 1828. The other boy is not so likely. There is nothing to show that they were brothers, but if they were they would seem to be twins. The school list does not give their christian names, but the Governors' minute book does.

161. WILLIAMS James Augustus. Born Aug. 1819. Eldest son of Rev. James Haddy Wilson Williams, rector of Fornham All Saints. At Bury school 1831—1838. Five years in sixth form. Captain of the school. Foreigner. Adm. to Clare Coll. Jan. 1838. B.A. 1842. Died Jan. 1869 aged 49. Buried in London.

163. WILLIAMS Alfred Edward. Born Jan. 1822. Youngest son of Rev. James H. W. Williams. At Bury school 1834—37. Foreigner. Was in the army for a short time. Then in various employments in London and elsewhere. Died Feb. 1885 aged 63. Buried at Colchester.

N.B.—The Rev. James H. W. Williams, father of these three boys, was rector of Fornham All Saints 1815—42. Died March 1842 aged 66.

Served with his regiment in the Boer War. Played cricket for Monmouthshire. Now an estate agent, and mining and civil engineer. Lives at Pontypridd, co. Glamorgan.
169. WILLIS or WYLLIS. Dr. Leeds includes a boy of this name among his scholars from Suffolk. Dr. Randall also includes him or another one :—
 Grantæ olim Wyllisiusque decus.
 This glory of Cambridge was probably one of these three graduates : John Wyllis, Fellow of King's, B.A. 1683 ; Ben Wyllis, Fellow of Kings, B.A. 1694, D.D. 1709 ; Edward Wyllis, King's, B.A. 1695, M.A. 1699.
170. WILLIS Robert. Son of Henry Willis of Bury St. Edmunds. In Dec. 1715 the Governors of Bury school resolved to pay £6 towards his maintenance at Cambridge. Christ's Coll. B.A. 1717. 176. WILSON ——. This boy spoke on speech day, July 4, 1815, and was then high up in the school. I imagine he may be Richard Percy Wilson, only son of Richard Wilson. Died Dec. 1837 aged 39. Tombstone in Bildeston church.
N.B.—Richard Wilson, the father, was a solicitor of Gray's Inn; M.P. for Ipswich 1806; steward to Lord Chedworth, who left him a fortune; married Hannah Selby, an Ipswich milliner; died June 1834 aged 74, and has a tablet in Bildeston church.
177. WILSON George St. Vincent. Born Oct. 1806. Eldest son of Admiral George Wilson of Redgrave Hall. At Bury school 1818—20; thence to Harrow. To Trin. Coll. 1825 for one year, when he succeeded to the Redgrave estate. Died Dec. 1852.

179. WILSON Charles John. Born 1810. Third son of Admiral Wilson. In Bury school lists 1819—21. He was badly shot when a boy, became paralyzed and was never able to enter any profession. Died July 1841. This boy is believed to have gone to Bury school, and the Wilson in the school lists of 1819—21 would be the right date for him.
180. WILSON ——. In Bury school list 1821 only. First form. Royalist. One of these unidentified Wilsons is probably Mr. John Wilson, who attended the tercentenary festival in 1850 as an old scholar.

- N.B.—This boy is a high probability only. His father lived in Bury and had four sons by second wife. Two of them got exhibitions and so are certainties. The two who didn't must remain probabilities only.

Wollaston was too timid and too orthodox to take "a decided position." D. N. B. Died at Teignmouth Jan. 1878. Buried at Teignmouth. In D. N. B.
- N.B.—These two boys, the two youngest of fifteen children, lost both father and mother in 1833. They came to Bury school from Gate Burton rectory, where lived the Rev. Henry Fred. Hutton, who was married to their eldest sister. Four of Mr. Hutton's sons will be found in this list.

The Hearth tax return for 1674 shows an Edward Wotton occupying a house of three hearths in St. Mary's parish at Bury.

241. WRAGG —. He is in Bury school list 1713. Royalist.
 He may be Jacob Wragg, father of No. 242. Or one of these three Cambridge graduates :—
 William, Emman. Coll. LL.B. 1720.
 Charles, Christ's Coll. B.A. 1722.
 Jacob, Emman. Coll. B.A. 1726. Fellow.
 Of these, Charles became rector of Kelveden and Great Hallingbury, and died 1758.
 There had been an Isaac Wragg, minister at St. James', Bury, c. 1662—1670.

247. WRIGHT Jermyn. Born 1608. Son of Thomas Wright of Kilverstone, Norfolk. At Bury under Dickinson. Adm. to Caius Coll. April 1624 aged 16. Adm. to Lincoln's Inn Nov. 1626. Lived at Wangford near Brandon. His mother was Jane, daughter of John Jermyn of Depden.
248. WRIGHT Gabriel. Born at Little Whelnetham. Son of Abraham Wright. At Bury under Stevens. Adm. to John's June 1650 past 16.

N.B.—The Little Whelnetham register records the baptism of Abraham Wright in March 1632, and Ezekiel in Nov. 1635, but no Gabriel.

Recorder of Cambridge. Chief Justice of the King's Bench. Served on the Bloody Assizes. Presided at the trial of the seven bishops. Committed to Newgate after the Revolution, and died there of fever Nov. 1689. In D. N. B.

This is Macaulay's opinion of him.—The new (1687) Chief Justice, Sir —Robert Wright, was ignorant to a proverb; yet ignorance was not his worst —fault. His vices had ruined him. He had resorted to infamous ways of —raising money, and had on one occasion made a false affidavit in order to —obtain possession of five hundred pounds. Poor, dissolute and shameless, —he had become one of the parasites of Jeffreys, who promoted him and —insulted him. Such was the man who was now selected by James to be Lord —Chief Justice of England.—II. 274.

250. WRIGHT Thomas. Born at Wolferton, Norfolk. Son of Thomas Wright. At Bury under Stephens. Adm. to Christ's June 1655 aged 18. I imagine that this is the eldest son of Thomas Wright of Kilverstone, who died April 1667, and has a flat stone within the communion rails in Kilverstone church.
251. WRIGHT Robert. Of Norfolk. Educated at Bury school. Adm. to Peterhouse Dec. 1653 aged 16. M.A. 1661. The Peterhouse admission book does not give his father's name. I think he must be second son of Thomas Wright of Kilverstone, and brother of No. 250.
252. WRIGHT Jermyn. Son of Robert [sic] Wright of Kilverstone, armiger. He is in Bury school list 1656. I imagine him to be third son of Thomas Wright of Kilverstone, son of Robert in Bury list being a mistake for son of Thomas.

In which case Nos. 250, 251, 252, are brothers, nephews of Jermyn Wright, No. 247.

N.B.—Thomas Wright, father of these three (if I am right), was High Sheriff of Norfolk in 1652, and died while in office.

253. WRIGHT Robert. Second son of Robert Wright of Santon Downham. Six years at Bury under Randall, and one at Botesdale. Adm. to Caius Coll. March 1713 aged 17. Rector of E. Harling, Hackney, Santon Downham. Died Jan. 7, 1753. Printed a sermon, Thanksgiving for Peace, 1749.

255. WRIGHT Robert. Born in East Indies. Second son of Thomas Wright of East Herling by first wife. Seven years at Botesdale, four at Bury under Kinsman. Adm. to Caius Coll. Dec. 1720. Barrister.
256. WRIGHT Richard. Son of Thomas Wright of East Herling by second wife. Adm. to Bury school Sept. 1733. Foreigner. Eventually succeeded to East Herling. Died Jan. 1789 aged 70. Tombstone in East Herling church.

257. WRIGHT Thomas. Son of Thomas Wright of Santon Downham. Nephew to Robert, No. 253. Adm. to Bury school 1739. Foreigner.
- N.B.—Thomas Wright, the father, died April 1757 aged 62, and has a tombstone in Santon Downham church.
258. WRIGHT Charles. Born at Norwich. Son of Harbord Wright. At Bury under Garnham. Adm. to Christ's Oct. 1769 aged 19. Did not graduate. Succeeded to the Kilverstone estate in 1775 on the death of his great uncle, Thomas Wright. An inscription in Kilverstone church says he died Sept. 1781 aged 30, "sed non jacet inter patres."

N.B.—Thomas Wright, No. 250, married Katharine, daughter of Sir Charles Harbord, and had a son Charles.

Charles married Ann Violet of Pinckney hall, succeeded to Kilverstone and died there Nov. 1729 aged 63. He had two sons, viz. Thomas who succeeded to Kilverstone in 1729, and died there Jan. 1775 aged 80; and John, born May 1699, rector of Euston 1728—68, died April 1768, tombstone at Kilverstone.

The Rev. John Wright had two sons, viz. Harbord and Thomas. Harbord succeeded to Pinckney hall and died Sept. 1754 aged 29, tombstone at Kilverstone. He was the father of Charles, No. 258.

Probably several of these came to Bury school, though they do not happen to come into my list. When one has so many of a name, one feels sure that there ought to be more, as it evidently was the school of the family for several generations. The Wrights of Kilverstone, East Herling, Wangford and Santon Downham are all of the same family.

259. WRIGHT Gascoigne. Son of Lawrence Wright of Bury St. Edmunds, common brewer. In April 1731 the Governors of Bury school granted him £13 odd, exhibition money, he being then at Cambridge. Queen's Coll. B.A. 1731. Fellow. Rector of Kirkby and Asgarby in Lincolnshire. Died Jan. 1777 aged 65. Tombstone in St. Mary's church at Bury.

N.B.—Lawrence Wright, the father, was chief alderman of Bury in 1714, 1725, 1739. Died April 1741. Buried at Drinkstone.

260. WRIGHT Lawrence. Son of Rev. Gascoigne Wright of Kirkby, No. 259. Adm. to Bury school Sept. 1747. Foreigner. Matric. at Oxford, Hert. Coll., March 1754 aged 16. Headmaster of Bury Grammar school 1767—76. Rector of Rushbrook 1768—1802; Bradfield St. George 1771—1802. Died March 1802 aged 64. Tombstone in Bradfield church.

261. WRIGHT Waller Rodwell. Son of Mathew Wright of Bury St. Edmunds. At Bury under Becher. Elected to Hewer exhibition Jan. 1793. Adm. to Trin. Coll. July 1791 aged 16. Did not graduate.

N.B.—Mathew Wright, I presume father of this boy, died Feb. 1805 aged 58, and shares a tombstone in St. Mary's church with Dr. Malfalgueyrat.

262. WRIGHT ——. In Bury school lists 1818—20. Sixth form. Foreigner.
 263. WRIGHT ma. At Bury school 1841—42. Sixth form. Foreigner.
 264. WRIGHT mi. At Bury school 1841—43. Sixth form. Foreigner.
 265. WRIGHT Richard Hervè Giraud. Pupil of Mrs. Crick of Bury St. Edmunds. At Bury school 1882—84. Foreigner.

266. WRIGHT Montague Stewart. Son of Montague Wright of Inverary. At Bury school 1884—87. Foreigner.

272. WRIGHT Thomas Henry Gordon. Son of T. F. Wright of Norwich, estate agent to Lord Hastings. At Bury school 1900—1901. Now in his father's office.
273. WROTH Anthony. He gave a book to the school library in 1711, being described in the old catalogue as Treasurer of the school. Possibly he gave the book in that capacity and was not an old scholar.
274. WYCH Cyril. Born at Chelsea. Son of Jermyn Wych of Hockwold. At Bury under Kinsman. Adm. to Caius Coll. May 1720 aged 16. Succeeded his father at Hockwold Jan. 1720. Died June 1780 aged 76. Monument in Hockwold church.
275. WYDLEY Thomas. Son of William Wydley of Grundisburgh. At school at Bury St. Edmunds. Adm. to Caius Coll. Nov. 1569 aged 16. The name of the headmaster not being given I cannot say positively that his school was the Grammar school.
276. WYNNE Thomas. Son of Thomas Wynne, rector of Combs, Suffolk. Five years at Bury under Kinsman. Adm. to Caius Coll. July 1731 aged 18. Nineteenth wrangler. Rector of Creeting All Saints and St. Olaves. Died at Ipswich Aug. 1775.

278. WYNYARD ——. In Bury school list 1817. Fourth form. Foreigner.

279. WYNYARD ——. In Bury school list 1818. First form. Foreigner.

These two boys must be sons of Rev. Montagu John Wynyard, who was living at Rougham near Bury in and about 1818, and afterwards had livings in York and Yorkshire. Any two of the first four would be possible. Nos. 2 and 3 seem most likely.

(1) Montagu George Lascelles ; born in Middlesex Dec. 1802 ; adm. to Christ's Coll. from Charterhouse July 1820 ; a clergyman ; died May 1840.

(2) William Rowley ; born June 1804 ; Lieut. R.N. ; died May 1850.

(3) Henry Buckley Jenner ; born Oct. 1808 ; Lieut.-Col.

(4) Septimus Barty Whitmore ; born Aug. 1811 ; died Feb. 1849.

(5) George Clinton Bunbury ; born at Rougham 1818 ; at Eton 1829 ; died 1853.

The father was born Feb. 1781 ; died Dec. 1857.

280. WYVILL Christopher. Third son of Sir Christopher Wyvill of Constable Burton, Yorks., third baronet. He was at Bury school in 1665 when the school was moved from Eastgate street to Northgate street, and was one of those who wrote verses on the occasion, which still remain in manuscript in the school chest. Adm. to Trin. Coll. June 1668. B.A. 1671. Fellow of Trin. D.D. 1691. Dean of Ripon. Died 1710 aged 59.

N.B.—He had two elder brothers : William, who succeeded his father as fourth baronet and died in 1684 ; and Francis, who died in 1717 aged 70. They are very likely to have kept each other company, but I have no evidence of it. Dr. Leeds includes the name among his pupils from Yorkshire, but does not show how many came.

281. WYVILL Marmaduke. Eldest son of Sir William Wyvill, fourth baronet, nephew of No. 280. He gave a book to the school library in 1695. Succeeded his father as fifth baronet in 1684. Died Oct. 1722.

N.B.—He had a brother D'Arcy, who died at Derby Jan. 1734. He is almost certain to have come to Bury school. Dr. Randall brings Wyvills (in the plural) into his list, and this would be the generation that he knew.

1. YAXLEY Robert. Son of Henry Yaxley, second cook of Trin. Coll. At Bury under Kinsman. Adm. to Trin. Coll. March 1719 aged 19. B.A. 1722.
2. YEATES Anthony. At Bury school 1834—37. Royalist. Was articled to Messrs. Greene and Wayman, of Bury St. Edmunds, solicitors.
3. YOUNGE Stephen. He is in the undated school list (c. 1650) as a foundation scholar, i.e. Royalist.
4. YOUNG John. He gave a book to the school library in 1666, which is my only reason for including him. He was rector of Great Saxham, and in March 1645 was married in Little Saxham church to Amie Emont, daughter of the rector of Little Saxham. I believe he was at Eton and King's Coll. Buried at Great Saxham Feb. 1675. If not at Bury school himself he may have had a son there.
5. YOUNG ——. He is in the Bury school list for 1713. Foreigner.
 This is a small boy, and might be Bartholomew Young, younger son of Bartholomew Young of Bradfield near Bury. If so, he was afterwards at Eton and King's Coll., B.A. 1720, assistant master at Eton, where he died. Uncle to Arthur Young, the agriculturalist.
 Or it might be his first cousin, Arthur, born Oct. 1699, son of Benjamin Young of Cambridge, draper.
6. YOUNG Henry. Son of Mrs. Susan Young of Bury St. Edmunds, widow. Adm. to Bury school Jan. 1733. Royalist.
 N.B.—The parents of this boy, John Young and Susan Leaver, both of Bury, were married at Ickworth Feb. 1724. John Young died Dec. 1732 aged 32. Susan Young, his widow, married secondly Robert Walpole of Bury, mercer, and died Feb. 1776 aged 75. Their tombstone is in St. Mary's church.
7. YOUNG John Edmund. Son of John and Susan Young of Bury St. Edmunds. Adm. to Bury school June 1741. Royalist. (He is merely entered as son-in-law, i.e. stepson, of Robert Walpole.) Died Nov. 1760 aged 27. Tombstone in St. Mary's church.
8. YOUNG Arthur. Born 1769. Only son of Arthur Young of Bradfield, the agriculturalist. At Eton and Trin. Coll. B.A. 1793. Was ordained. Appointed by the Emperor Alexander in 1805 to draw up an agricultural survey of the Government of Moscow. In 1810 bought an estate of 10,000 acres near Kaffa in the Crimea. Died there of quinsy in Sept. 1827 aged 56. Tablet in Bradfield Combust church.

I am not certain whether he was a Bury school boy. But speaking of Dr. Valpy in 1781, when he was appointed headmaster of Reading, the agriculturalist says, "My son was under his tuition for some years." And as Valpy was usher at Bury school, I take this to imply he had been a Bury scholar.

N.B.—The agriculturalist was very nearly being a Bury school boy. He says in his Autobiography :—When I was of a proper age to be placed at —school, a choice had to be made between those of Bury St. Edmunds and —Lavenham ; no possible motive could induce any one to think of the latter —except the circumstance of my father having been there himself. . . Whilst —the matter was in abeyance the Rev. M. Coulter, master of Lavenham —school, came to Bradfield, and my mother, unfortunately for me, was so —much pleased with the extreme good temper manifested in his countenance —that she persuaded my father to entrust me to his care. I was accordingly —sent to that wretched place.—(P. 7.) He was born Sept. 1741. Died in London April 1820. Buried at Bradfield Combust.

9. YOUNG William. Born at Swaffham. Son of William Young, rector of Necton, Norfolk. Eight years at Bury under Lawrents. Adm. to Caius Coll. Aug. 1785 aged 17. Rector of Pettaugh, Suffolk. Died Feb. 1840 aged 71.

11. YOUNG William Chambers. Born at Norton Feb. 1822. Second son of Plowman Young M.D. At Bury school 1831—34. Royalist. Afterwards he settled in the Tonga Islands, and was the adopted son of King George of Tonga. Died Jan. 1886. Buried at Eua, Tonga Islands.
12. YOUNG James Hammond. Born at Norton Aug. 1823. Third son of Plowman Young M.D. At Bury school 1831—35. Royalist. Was a settler in Queensland, Tonga Islands and New Zealand. Died Nov. 1905. Buried at Auckland, New Zealand.

13. YOUNG Frederick John. Born at Norton Sept. 1828. Fourth son of Plowman Young M.D. At Bury school 1841—47. Four years in sixth form. Royalist. Adm. to Christ's Coll. July 1847. B.A. 1851. First class Nat. Sc. Trip. Jun. Opt. Rector of South Milford, Yorks., 1859—1908. Died March 1908. Buried at South Milford.

14. YOUNG Augustus Warren. Born at Pisa, Tuscany, March 1837. Eighth and youngest son of Plowman Young M.D. At Bury school 1847—54. Royalist. Trin. Coll., Dublin. B.A. 1860. Was for some years an Oxford coach. Now living at Paignton, Devon.

N.B.—Plowman Young, father of these five boys, was eldest son of William Young of Mildenhall, builder. Born March 1796. M.D. of Pisa. He practised first at Norton, and then at Bury, living in the old house at the corner of Northgate street and Mustow street. He died July 1840 at the Baths of Lucca aged 44. Buried at Leghorn. His fifth son, Henry Charles, went into the navy, and afterwards to New Zealand, and died in 1906. He was not at Bury school. The sixth and seventh sons died in infancy.

15. YOUNG ——. At Bury school 1832—35. Royalist.

N.B.—In the Bury directory for 1844 there is Samuel D. Young, attorney, and Henry S. Young, bank clerk.

16. YOUNG George Frederick. Born Feb. 1851. Son of Richard Young of Wisbech, ship owner, M.P. for co. Cambridge 1865—68. At Bury school 1862—66. Boarder. From Bury to Uppingham school. Now living at Swineshead Abbey, Lincolnshire.

1. ZAMOYSKY Count Joseph. At Bury school 1849—51. Foreigner. A Pole. He is believed to have been put to death in Russia by the Government.

———. As I do not know this boy's christian name nor surname, it is difficult to know where is his place in alphabetical order. I get him from Dr. Randall, who gives him sixteen lines, or rather eight, as the uncle has the other eight. He begins thus : —

Non leve peccatum præteriise putem.

The Orfords whom he addresses were Edward Russell and his wife. He was an admiral who in 1692 destroyed the French fleet, and in 1695 was created Earl of Orford. They lived at Chippenham, Cambs. As they had no children the Bury boy, their nepos, must have been a nephew, not a grandson. And as one of Lord Orford's sisters married a Harbord, and as several Harbords or Cropleys came to Bury school, this boy may have been a Harbord. Dr. Randall describes him as beautiful, brave and modest. That is all I can get out of him.

ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS.

The boys in this list who have no number given them are additions to my list. I had overlooked them till too late to put them in their proper place. There are 21 of them.

The boys to whom a number is given have already appeared in the main list under that number. The information about them is now added to or corrected.

ACTON —. Dr. Leeds in 1691 includes a Suffolk boy of this name among his past or present scholars.

ALEXANDER —. Mentioned by Dr. Randall as one of the boys who died at school of small pox on Oct. 19, 1711.

ARUNDEL —. Dr. Randall gives him twelve lines, from which one learns that he travelled and brought home “spolia ampla.”

BAKER —. Dr. Leeds in 1691 includes a Suffolk boy of this name among his past or present scholars.

BALDERS —. He is one of the boys in the picture of the school play in 1783—84. He is also in a school play-bill of Jan. 1785.

10. BALDOCK Robert. He was a son of Samuel Baldock, rector of Stanway, Essex. He was not, as I suggested, the rector of Redgrave, but his much older brother.

BALDOCK John. Son of Samuel Baldock, rector of Stanway. This is probably the boy whom Dr. Leeds includes among his old scholars. Trin. Coll. B.A. 1665. Rector of Redgrave cum Botesdale and Hinderclay. Died June 1709 aged 63. Tombstone in Redgrave church.

33. BARKER George. Died at Yarmouth (not Falmouth).

94. BAXTER Robert. Born at North Runcton (not Runton).
101. BEARDMORE John. From Hants.
107. BECKWITH Arthur. I have since learned that there is a portrait of him in the possession of Mr. Felix Cobbold M.P. A paper pasted on the back of the portrait says that he was fellow (should be fellow-commoner) of Trin. Coll., Cambridge, afterwards King of Madagascar, and died unmarried in 1710. Burke says that he died beyond sea in 1700. I have not found any mention of this king elsewhere, and he is not in the D. N. B.
123. 124. BELSON. I said "See Additions," as I was daily expecting information. But it has not come in yet.
159. BEWSHER. Expected information has not yet come in.
186. BLEMELL. I have not made my meaning clear. I meant that the Christ's Coll. admission book said that he had come up from Suffolk, and had been educated by his most learned father.
241. BORTON Charles James. Was in the Crimean War. Afterwards adjutant of the Hon. Artillery Company. Died in London 1890.
242. BORTON Henry Martin. After leaving the army he was deputy governor of convict prisons at Brixton, Portsmouth, Woking and Wormwood Scrubbs.
- BOTELER ——. Dr. Leeds in 1691 includes a Suffolk boy of this name among his past or present scholars.
- BRANDON ——. Dr. Leeds in 1691 includes a Suffolk boy of this name among his past or present scholars.
274. 275. BRIDGMAN. One of these two boys is probably John Hall Bridgman, son of John Bridgman, collector of customs in the island of St. Lucia, and grandson of Mrs. Hall who was then living in Bury. He was born about 1803, and died in India about twenty years ago.
276. BRIDGMAN P. This must certainly be Percival Bridgman, another son of the collector of customs. (See HALL No. 35. N.B. Also WHITEHORNE.) The Bury Post for Feb. 17, 1813, announces the death on Dec. 20, 1812, in St. Lucia, of Sophia wife of John Bridgman Esq., collector of his Majesty's Customs in that island, and eldest daughter of Mrs. Hall of this town. And in March 1813 it announces the death at Mrs. Hall's house in this town of Sophia, eldest daughter of John Bridgman, aged 14.

BUXTON —. Dr. Leeds in 1691 includes a Suffolk boy of this name among his past or present scholars.

CAN —. Dr. Leeds in 1691 includes a Durham boy of this name among his past or present scholars.

27. CAPELL Edward. I have followed the D. N. B. in burying him at Fornham All Saints. But I have a strong suspicion that it should be Stanton All Saints.
 33. CAREW Isaac. He died aged 68. His tombstone is in Wickham Market churchyard.
 43. CARTER Thomas. Rector of Houghton (not Roughton).
 90. CHAPMAN Edward Palmer. Died at Canterbury, New Zealand, about 13 years ago.
 203. 204. COLK. I am told that one of these two was Martin Colk, afterwards a medical man.
 220. COLLINS Thomas Lakeman. Now on the Stock Exchange.
 248. COOPER Robert. Died at Glenelg on Easter day 1908 aged 61 years.
 262. CORDELL John. Born at Long Melford Nov. 1646.
 263. CORDELL Robert. Bapt. at Long Melford May 1648. Buried there Oct. 1681.
 265. CORDELL Edmund. Bapt. at Long Melford Jan. 1653. Buried there Feb. 1684.
 266. CORDELL Charles. Bapt. at Long Melford July 1658. Buried there March 1681.
- CORRANCE —. Dr. Leeds in 1691 includes a Suffolk boy of this name among his past or present scholars. He must be earlier than any of those that I have in my list.
279. COTMAN Lewis Marcell. I have no authority for including him.

25. DANIEL John Edge. I have no authority to include this boy.
20. 21. 22. DALTON. Rowland Dalton, father of these three boys, died Aug. 1890 aged 89, and lies in Bury cemetery.
- DAVY ——. Dr. Leeds in 1690 includes a Suffolk boy of this name among his past or present scholars.
87. DENNY Richard Cooke. Died Oct. 1890.
- DUDLEY Matthew. Eldest son of Sir William Dudley of Clapton, Northants., who was baroneted in Aug. 1660. He succeeded his father as second baronet in 1670. M.P. for Northampton and Hunts, 1703—15. F.R.S. Died April 1721. My reason for including him will be found under Charles FITZROY, duke of Grafton.

44. ETHERIDGE ——. I think this must be a son of Anthony Etheridge of Stoke Ferry. His youngest son, Charles, died Nov. 1833 aged 9, and has a tombstone in Stoke Ferry churchyard. It could not be him.

FITZROY Charles, duke of Grafton. Born Oct. 1683. Son of Charles, first duke, who was killed Oct. 1690. Succeeded his father as second duke before he was seven years old. Died May 1757.

I must explain on what authority I include him. Four volumes of this Suffolk Green Book series contain the letters and diary of John Hervey, Earl of Bristol. Among the letters is one from Lord Bristol to Mr. Alderman Turnor, Comptroller of ye free-school at Bury St. Edmunds. It is dated April 1721. Mr. Alderman Turnor was an old Bury school boy and so was Lord Bristol. Both were also Governors of the school. From this letter it appears that the Governors were intending to build, and had asked Lord Bristol to ask certain persons to subscribe. And he writes to say how he had got on with them. He says:—The duke of Grafton hath promised to —subscribe but hath not yet named ye sum; Lord Cornwallis hath done ye —same; the Bishop of Norwich hath actually subscribed ten guineas; Sir —Mathew Dudley five guineas, and Mr. Maynard five guineas; Sir

—Marmaduke Wyvell told my messenger he would come and see me and —would then subscribe, but I have not yet received ye favour of a visitt from —him ; Lord Guilford excused himself from ye hardness of ye times and ye —scarcity of money.—(II. p. 145.)

Now of those seven persons I had three in my list before I noticed this letter, viz. Lord Cornwallis, Mr. Maynard and Sir Marmaduke Wyvell. They were certainties for other reasons. Lord Guilford's father, uncles and many other of his relations (see North), were all at Bury school, and so he is very likely to have been there too. Sir Mathew Dudley was a gentleman of Northants. and Hunts., and had nothing to do with Suffolk ; and so it is not likely that he would have been asked to subscribe unless he were an old Bury school boy. I therefore consider it as certain as anything can be which is not quite certain that all these seven gentlemen who were asked to subscribe were old Bury school boys, and would not have been asked if they had not been. The only exception may be the bishop of the diocese, who may have been offered the privilege of subscribing by reason of his office, which connected him with the school. That is my reason for including the duke of Grafton, which it was impossible to put more shortly. He is made still more likely by the fact that his mother married secondly Sir Thomas Hanmer, who had been at Bury school himself and might be likely to recommend it for his stepson.

FRESTON ——. Dr. Leeds in 1690 includes a Suffolk boy of this name among his past or present scholars. He will not fit any of the Frestons that I have got, and so must be another one.

40. GEORGE ——. My guess at the identity of this boy is wrong.
141. GRAHAM Albert. He was the Bishop's youngest son. His date at school should be 1857—65. He went up to Christ's Coll., but did not graduate.
167. GREENFIELD John Tyndale. Went into the Royal Artillery. Cadet Aug. 1858. Captain June 1873. Died at Pau Dec. 1876.
193. GUNN Joshua. Was rector of Redgrave. Died May 1760 aged 33. Tombstone in Redgrave church.

HEIGHAM —. Under No. 139, N.B., I said that only one of his sons seemed to have come to Bury school. But Mr. Horace Barker has since shown me an old school play-bill of Jan. 1785, in which two Master Heighams appear. So that probably one of the brothers of Henry Heigham, No. 140, must be added to this list.

159. HERVEY Henry Arthur William. Died in London May 1908 aged 76. Buried at Cowes, Isle of Wight.

George. Born c. 1818. Sons of William Hogg of Biggleswade.

N.B.—These two boys were grandsons of George Hogg of King's Lynn, and nephews of Rev. Edward Hogg, rector of Fornham St. Martin. They are two of the boys numbered 201—206, but it is not clear which two.

JERMYN —. Dr. Leeds in 1691 includes this name among his past or present scholars. This would almost certainly be Thomas, only surviving son of Thomas, Lord Jermyn of Rushbrook; baptized at Rushbrook Dec. 1677; buried there Jan. 1693 aged 15. He was in a boat on the Thames at London opposite the Strand, when the mast fell upon him and killed him. His marble effigy is in Rushbrook church.

28. KERRICH John. A letter from him to Samuel Kerrich D.D., dated Aug. 17, 1735, shows that he was then thinking of coming to practice at Bury, succeeding Dr. Hartley who was leaving in six weeks. "I think I can go thither with a fair prospect, but yet am afraid." However, he came. He had married Mary, daughter of Simon Patrick, and granddaughter of Simon Patrick, bishop of Ely.

29. KERRICH Simon. Born Feb. 1731. Eldest son of Dr. John Kerrich, No. 28. Adm. to Benet Coll., Cambridge, Oct. 1747. Died an undergraduate.

30. KERRICH Walter. Third son of Dr. John Kerrich. Adm. to Cath. Coll. May 1753. Chancellor's medallist 1758. Was rector of St. Clement's, Eastcheap, from Nov. 1760 till his death. Also (I think) rector of Chigwell, Essex. Canon of Salisbury. Married Christian Wenyeve of Brettenham, Suff., and had a daughter known as "the Salisbury trinket." Died July 1803.

Mr. Albert Hartshorne, to whom I am indebted for the other extracts from Kerrich letters in his possession, sends me this extract of a letter from Dr. John Kerrich to Samuel Kerrich, dated April 19, 1758.—As to the medal, —Walter sends me word that he may not have it yet this twelve month, the —duke of Newcastle intending to get a new die, as the present is not enough —like his Majesty, whose face is on one side, the Vice-Chancellor presenting —the medal to the two batchelors on the other, with something wrote —underneath, but what I cannot tell you, and the name of the person and —college upon the edge. The value 15 guineas.—Then follows an account of the examination.

31. KERRICH Thomas. Fourth surviving and youngest son of Dr. John Kerrich. The difference in his age as given in the Horringer register and on his tombstone, 73 and 76, is accounted for, I think, by the tombstone reckoning his age from the birth of another Thomas, who died in infancy. The long interval between his leaving the University and taking his degree was probably the result of religious or other scruples. Mr. Hartshorne has sent me this extract from a letter written by his mother to Samuel Kerrich D.D. It is dated June 25 (probably 1761).—I am at this time under no small concern —about my youngest son, who last Ladyday took orders quite his own choise, —but upon what motives I don't know he resigned them last week. He went —to London about 10 days ago, and last Post I was acquainted with this step —of his, which surprized me greatly, as you will imagine.—

N.B.—John Kerrich, the second son, appears not to have gone to Bury school, probably on account of bad health. His father writes to Simon Kerrich of Harleston on Dec. 13, 1761 :—By the time you receive this, if not —before, Jack will be set out for Falmouth, in order to embark for Lisbon —and Naples, on account of his health.—He married his first cousin, Amelia Kerrich of Harleston, and died in 1795 aged 62.

105. LOFFT Robert Emlyn. Died Sept. 1847.

LUCAS ——. I had none in my list between 1630 and 1730. But as Dr. Leeds includes the name among his past or present scholars from Suffolk, there must have been some between 1660 and 1690. They are pretty certain to have been the numerous sons of Gibson Lucas of Horringer, No. 132, who would have been just of the right date.

6. 7. MCINTYRE. One of these two was John.

MADDOCKS —. Dr. Leeds in 1691 includes a Suffolk boy of this name among his past or present scholars. Probably from Troston near Bury.

33. MALKIN Benjamin Heath. Born Sept. 1797. Second (not eldest) son. Buried in the Cathedral at Calcutta.

34. MALKIN Frederick. Third (not second) son.

35. MALKIN Arthur Thomas. Fourth (not third) son. Born 1803. Died Nov. 1888. Buried in Highgate cemetery.

MILESON —. Dr. Leeds in 1691 includes a Suffolk boy of this name among his past or present scholars.

NORTH Francis. Born Dec. 1673. Eldest son of Francis NORTH, Lord Guilford, No. 31. Succeeded his father as second Lord Guilford Sept. 1685. Matric. at Oxford, Trin. Coll., Feb. 1689. Died Oct. 1729. Buried at Wroxton. My reason for including him is the same as that for including the duke of Grafton. (See Fitzroy p. 446). Besides that, Dr. Leeds includes a North among his scholars who will not fit any of the Norths that I have got, but who will fit this one.

NORTON —. Dr. Leeds in 1691 includes a Suffolk boy of this name among his past or present scholars. This I think must have been an earlier one than No 37.

65. PEARSON —. I think this is George Edward, son of George William Pearson of Bury St. Edmunds, builder; born May 1833; died Feb. 1888; buried in Bury cemetery.

108. SHORT Richard. Only son of Richard Short. Adm. to Pembroke Coll. Dec. 1660, having migrated from Christ's Coll. B.A. 1664.

107. SHORT Thomas. I had not noticed till now that he is in the D. N. B. He was created M.D. in 1668, and elected a fellow of the College of Physicians in July 1675. He was a Roman Catholic. Died Sept. 1685. Buried in St. James' chapel, London. The D. N. B. says he was born at Easton, which should be Euston.

227. SPENCER —. It is possible that this may be Charles Spencer, afterwards third Earl of Sunderland, who formed the great library at Althorp. Dr. Randall's lines seem to describe a statesman rather than a lawyer. He was born in 1674, succeeded his father in Oct. 1702, died April 1722. But this is a mere suggestion.
244. STANLEY Harry Merridew. Born May 1865. At Bury school 1878—81. Now member of the firm of St. Quintin, Son and Stanley, surveyors etc., 50 Threadneedle street, E.C.
245. STANLEY Herbert. Born April 1868. Now managing director of Messrs. Fraser Ltd., Wepener, Orange River Colony. Mayor of Wepener.
246. STANLEY Frank. Born Oct. 1869. At Bury school 1879—80. Now a clerk in the city of London.

TRIMNELL Charles. Bapt. May 1663 at Abbots Ripton, Hunts. Eldest surviving son of Charles Trimmell. Was at Winchester and New Coll., Oxford. B.A. 1685. Domestic chaplain to Lord Sunderland at Althorpe, and rector of Brington. Bishop of Norwich 1708. Bishop of Winchester July 1721. Died at Farnham Aug. 1723. Buried in Winchester Cathedral. In D. N. B.

This is a very doubtful boy. The reason for including him is the same as that for including the duke of Grafton, but much weakened by the fact that he might have been asked to subscribe as bishop of the diocese and as being officially connected with the school. He was tutor to Charles Spencer, afterwards third earl of Sunderland, whom I have suggested as a possible Bury boy. (See Fitzroy and Spencer, both in Additions.)

CALVERT —. In school lists, sixth form, 1844—46. Captain 1845—46. Foreigner. As he is not in the list of Admissions I imagine that he must be Frederick, No. 15, come back again from Rugby. If not, he must be an additional boy. I know not who.

GREEN —. In school list for 1821. First form. Foreigner.

GREEN —. In school lists for 1826, 1827. Foreigner.

GREEN —. In school list for 1827 only. Foreigner. These three boys have accidentally slipped out from the main list.

APPENDIX.

ORIGINAL SCHOOL LISTS.

LIST I. 1650.

I have not seen the original of this list, but only a copy of it made in or about 1817 and entered into the volume that contains the annual lists beginning with that year. It is not dated, but from the names of the Governors I gather that it must be for the year 1650. Each boy is admitted by a Governor. These are the Governors named : Messrs. Adams, Barker, Chapman, Chaplin, Cobbes, Lelam, Smith and White.

LIST II. 1656.

This list was entered at the time in the Governors' minute book, from which I have copied it.

It was copied into the 1817 book, and was printed with many mistakes in the Tercentenary volume. The boys are shown arranged in six forms. It is not clear what the name in the margin means. Possibly it is the name of the owner of the house where the boy boarded.

This is the list of his old scholars given by Dr. Leeds in the dedication of his Method of teaching Greek, 1690. It is a list of surnames rather than of boys, and any surname may include more than one boy. He arranges them under Counties. Suffolk seems to include the Eastern Counties. I have not seen the original volume, but take the list from Dr. Donaldson's address in the Tercentenary volume.
